ORDER U. S. FLYER EXECUTED

PRESIDENT PUTS HIS SIGNATURE ON SUGAR BILL

Action Deals Blow to U. S. Housewife.

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Hyde Park, N. Y., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—President Roosevelt tonight signed with reluctance the controversial sugar quota bill. He issued an accompanying statement saying that a "gentlemen's agreement" had been entered into by congressional leaders that Hawaii, Porto Rico, and the Virgin Islands will be protected against "discriminating" legislation in the future.

The President's decision lessened prospects of a special session of congress this fall, according to those close to him. There still remains a possibility of an extraordinary session.

Limitations on Refined Product.

The sugar bill has constituted a sticky mess for the administration since congress met last January. As it finally passed the senate and house it was objectionable to the state and interior departments because it imposed limitations on the refined production of sugar by the insular possessions.

The act also freezes the output of American cane and beet sugar refineries substantially at the present level—about 6,000,000 tons.

The one conceded point in connection with the involved legislation was that the American housewife will suffer, no matter what the outcome.

Mr. Roosevelt in the last words of his 1,000 word statement admitted she would lose "millions of dollars every year and I am just as concerned for her as for the farmers themselves."

Finds Legalized Monopoly.

"The problem before me," said the President, "raised by the enactment of the so-called sugar bill, is that the bill, intended primarily to benefit the many thousands of farmers who produce beets and sugar cane and these, who at the place of production refine the raw material into sugar, has been seriously impaired in its value by the inclusion of a provision intended to legalize a virtual monopoly in the hands of a small group of seaboard refiners."

"It is with great regret," he wrote, "that I find that the congress has accorded a status quo continuation of this seaboard refinery monopoly for two and a half years to come. The bill in this respect gives only one ray of hope—for it provides that this refining monopoly shall terminate on March 1, 1940."

Assured by Senators.

The President had been assured by senators and representatives that they in the future will "recognize the fact that Hawaii and Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands are integral parts of the United States and should not be discriminated against."

When the quotas for these islands are terminated, congress will endeavor to enact legislation providing that minimum labor standards in sugar refineries in these offshore areas will not be lower than the minimum standards in refineries on the mainland, the President said he had been promised.

Points to "Gentlemen's Agreement."

"In view of these assurances," the President announced, "I am approving the bill with what amounts to a gentlemen's agreement that the unholy alliance between the cane and beet growers on the one hand and the seaboard refining monopoly on the other, has been terminated by the growers. That means that hereafter the refiners' lobby should expect no help from the domestic growers. That is at least a definite step in the right direction."

At the next session of congress, said the President [refraining from mentioning whether it would be a special or the regular session], he hoped that repeal of the clause which continues the "refining monopoly" to March 1, 1940, would be enacted.

Bingham and President Confer.

The President today conferred with the ambassador to Great Britain, Robert W. Bingham, and Admiral William D. Leahy, chief of naval operations, in connection with the warfare in the far east.

One result of these conversations, according to reliable sources, was a decision not to send more American cruisers to China at the present time.

Ambassador Bingham, whose retirement has been rumored, squelched these reports by stating that he was returning to England in ten days.

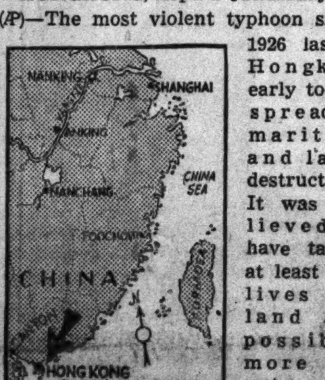
BULLETIN.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 2 (Thursday).—(AP)—Japanese naval authorities warned the British army today to evacuate its outposts on the western boundary of the international settlement as they were preparing to bomb the Chinese communication lines in the adjacent Jessfield park district. The British did not reply. The endangered British outposts are an extension of the line held by American marines.

HONGKONG, Sept. 2 [Thursday].—(AP)—The most violent typhoon since 1926 lashed Hongkong early today, spreading maritime and land destruction. It was believed to have taken at least 100 lives on land and possibly more on water. Fifteen persons perished when a fire caused by the hurricane trapped them in a Chinese tenement block. Other casualty reports were compiled slowly. This British colony is packed with refugees from Japan's undeclared war with China.



Arrow points to area struck by typhoon.

Fifteen vessels, four of them British, were reported aground. Four ships in the harbor sent out S O S calls. The Japanese liner Asama Maru was aground in Junk bay and the Kausing was aground off Green Island.

The harbor was crowded with shipping, including liners sheltering here because of the Japanese blockade of China's coast. The Chinese steamer Anlee piled up and a government tug was set adrift.

Chinese Struggle in Water.

A witness said he saw many Chinese struggling in the water, apparently having been forced from their ships.

Waterfront shops were flooded waist deep, and revenue officers assisted civilians, many of whom had been trapped in crowded buildings along narrow streets.

Despite warnings, few anticipated such a severe blow. Instruments showed it reached a velocity of 125 miles an hour, and it raged six hours.

1,300 Japs Menaced.

Last night officials massed 1,300 Japanese to protect them against Chinese crowds infuriated by Japanese bombing raids Tuesday on Canton, China's southern metropolis. Mobs of Chinese gathered in front of Japanese shops.

R. G. Howe, former British embassy counsellor at Nanking, was believed to be on an Imperial Airways plane due to arrive at Hongkong today. Howe left London to take charge of the British embassy at Nanking after Ambassador Sir Hughe Montgomery Knatchbull-Hugessen was wounded in a Japanese aerial machine gun attack last Thursday.

CHINA GETS 200 PLANES

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TOKIO, Sept. 2 [Thursday].—Soviet Russia is sending more than 200 military planes to China, thereby fulfilling the terms of a secret military agreement attached to the nonaggression pact which the Chinese government announced Sunday. This information reached Tokio today.

Sixteen soviet pilots already have been dispatched to China, the report said. Seventy-two soviet planes, it was reported, arrived in Shensi province by way of Outer Mongolia, which has a defensive alliance with the soviet union.

BIRTH CONTROL BY HYPODERMIC TO BE REVEALED SHORTLY

New York, Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Birth control by a simple hormonal injection in a woman's arm and effective for two months is promised in the early future by a group of British doctors, according to Dr. Eric D. Matsner, medical director of the American Birth Control league, who has just returned from a study of foreign laboratories.

Safe, painless and 100 per cent sure, the method already has been tried successfully on female apes and monkeys, he said. The conclusive experiments will soon be made on humans. Dr. Matsner explained that the new technique was not to be confused with other experiments with anti-pregnancy injections, notably the work already done and publicized by the Russians as "spermatoxin"—a preparation made from the male germ and injected into the woman's bloodstream.

Out of deference to the British scientists who soon will publish a paper on their work, Dr. Matsner refused to disclose their names.

MATE AND CHILD BRIDE DENY THEY HAVE SEPARATED

Sneedville, Tenn., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Yellow haired Eunice Winstead Johns, Tennessee's famous bride, 9 years old, and her strapping husband, Charlie, 23, sprawled under the shade of an old apple tree at her father's home near here today and denied they had "fussed" and separated.

Charlie, his summer's tobacco and corn crop laid by, stopped whittling and asserted with emphasis:

"We're together, ain't we? That ought to be proof we are not separated.

"And we're getting along fine," he added. "If people will leave us alone, we'll manage our own affairs."

Charlie said he and his child-wife had been attending revival meetings "up the road" for the last week.

Mental Strain Breaks Nerves of Test Pigs

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 1.—(AP)—The mental trail to nervous breakdowns was mapped by study of the world's first two nervous pigs. The process was described to the American Psychological association here today.

Both pigs are on an experimental farm at Cornell university. One of them, Achilles, had a nervous breakdown, the first in a pig—announced last May. The mental breakdown of a second pig was announced today by Dr. Quin F. Curtis of the Cornell physiology department.

Like Human Breakdowns.

Both pigs' breakdowns followed the same "pattern." Their experiences were so closely parallel to human reactions as to promise a useful key to the intricate "map" by which human minds go wrong.

The pigs caught the "heebie jeebies" solely by trying to solve mental problems, just a bit beyond their mental capacities.

In a comfortable "sty," in a laboratory, they learned to obtain meals by lifting the "lid" of a box with their noses. This was not their only food, but just a luxury. There was an apple in the box.

Sometimes it wasn't there. The pigs learned that certain tones of a signal meant "apple" and others "no apple." They learned that on some days there was an apple, and on others none. These things the pigs learned readily as separate items.

But Complexity Grows.

Their troubles began when the "apple" and "no apple" signals were given in more and more irregular sequence.

The first mental signs were agitation, shown by false motions. No mentally sound pig hesitates when starting after food.

The second stage of the breakdown was a period of delayed decisions. The pigs appeared to think a long time before being able to make up their minds what to do in situations they previously had solved without delay.

The last stage was curiously human. The pigs became "inert." They pretended to sleep. Sometimes they became "catatonic," that is, rigid, like human beings suffering from the catatonic form of insanity, who stay motionless, paying attention to nothing.

The pigs, however, were not permanently "catatonic." Sometimes their confused mental state showed in their legs. The hind legs would try to walk to the apple box while the forelegs pushed away from it.

In this nervous breakdown state the pigs ceased to be able to learn. This was almost exactly like human experience.

Otherwise Normal.

Further evidence that the troubles of the pigs were entirely mental was found in the fact that outside their laboratory sties they are able to eat. Whether they can be cured of the nervous trouble is yet to be learned.

There is hope that the "road back," which is the goal of medicine, will be found as clearly as the breakdown trail.

Achilles, it was disclosed today, is a female. "He" got his name because of the laboratory habit of calling all the pigs "he." Both the nervous pigs are females. A third pig, male, so far has been more resistant to mental upset than his girl friends.

GIRL CLERK IN 5 AND 10 STORE FINDS $25,000; SPURNS $1 REWARD

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Dorothy Buice, pretty clerk in a 5 and 10 cent store, found herself the central figure today in a $25,000 drama. She said a "tall and handsome man" came to her counter, bought a 10 cent bottle of ink, paid for it and walked away—forgetting a black lether portfolio.

After he had gone, Miss Buice noticed the portfolio and sent it to the store's lost and found department.

Shortly afterward the man dashed into the store. His face was ashen. He appeared almost afraid to ask "Have you—found——?"

Miss Buice answered quickly: "Yes, it's at the office. Second floor. Steps in rear."

At the office the man described the portfolio, opened it hurriedly and thumbed nervously through a stack of bills of large denominations and a batch of bonds totaling $25,000.

On the way out he stopped at Miss Buice's counter and offered her a dollar reward. She thanked him and rejected the offer.

Pro Team Is Defeated by Baugh's Pass

BY WILFRID SMITH.

Slingin' Sammy Baugh and Gaynell Tinsley, two mighty spry young southerners, coördinated in a forward passing combination last night at Soldiers' field to score the touchdown which gave the College All-Americans a 6 to 0 victory over the Packers of Green Bay, Wis., champions of professional football. Tinsley's touchdown dash of 47 yards midway in the first quarter was high tide in the fourth game of the series which is sponsored each year by the Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc., with the coöperation of 150 associated newspapers in 40 states.

An all-time record crowd, 84,560, saw the battle of forward passes, passes thrown by Baugh and thrown by Arnie Herber and Bob Monnett of the Packers. Only 6 points were scored, but again and again the Packers and the All-Stars paraded down the gridiron only to be halted near the goal lines by stirring defenses.

Baugh Justifies Reputation.

Sammy Baugh, All-American from Texas Christian university, captain of his squad, proved to the thousands last night that the words of praise accorded him during the 17 day practice period at Northwestern were understatement. Baugh threw all of the passes for his team. And in 13 tries he completed seven for a total gain of 115 yards.

In comparison, Herber's work was imitation despite the fact he was pitching to such sprinters as Don Hutson, his left end who had helped him establish a National league record last season, and Paul Miller and Joe Laws. In 23 attempts Herber completed eight for a gain of 111 yards.

That the receivers didn't break away, as Green Bay confidently expected, was due to an alert All-Star defense which permitted completions but never failed to drop the receiver as if he had been cut down by a machine gunner.

Drake Is Alert.

And of all those who made this defense impregnable, none was more superb than John Drake of Purdue. At least four times Drake came tearing up to knock down the ball or tackle the receiver before he could advance a step. One of these brilliant plays stopped the Green Bay attack on the All-Americans' 3 yard line in the second period.

This was the peak of the Packer advance, and thereafter the Bays lacked the spirited drive which had carried them to a league title a year ago.

Tinsley, Louisiana State's great end, coached for the last two years by Bernie Moore, a member of the All-American staf for this game, deserves equal credit with Baugh for the touchdown which licked the profes-

SPANISH REBELS DECREE DEATH FOR ILLINOISAN

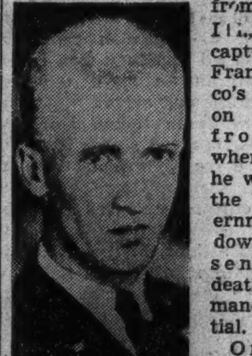
[Copyright: 1937: By the New York Times.]

ST. JEAN DE LUZ, France, Sept. 1.—Harold E. Dahl, 28 years of age, an American aviator from Champaign, Ill., who was captured by Gen. Francisco Franco's rebel forces on the Madrid front July 12 when the plane he was flying for the Valencia government was shot down, has been sentenced to death by a Salamanca court martial.



Harold Dahl.

One of the judges at his trial discussed here today with United States Ambassador Claude Bowers the prospects of Dahl's exchange for a rebel aviator held prisoner by Valencia. These prospects are not bright, the judge said. He explained to Bowers that Dahl was only one of twenty foreign flyers for Valencia now in prison at Salamanca. Franco is willing to exchange three of them for three Italian volunteer aviators held by Valencia.

Dahl's bride of eight months, who was Edith Rogers, once a singer with Rudy Vallee's orchestra, is at Cannes, France. His mother, Mrs. Ida Dahl, lives at Champaign.

HUNT MYSTERY U-BOAT

BY DAVID DARRAH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Sept. 1.—The British admiralty today ordered all available destroyers in the western Mediterranean to proceed to the east coast of Spain to hunt for a submarine, nationality unknown, which late last night fired a torpedo at the 1,335 ton destroyer Havock off Cape Antonio, north of Alicante, Spain. The torpedo missed the Havock, but its track could be seen clearly from the warship's deck.

Six British warships today were circling the spot where the mystery submarine disappeared, waiting for it to come up. All the destroyers have radio submarine detecting apparatus and are armed with powerful new depth charges, the admiralty announced.

Under their orders they will "blow the submarine out of the water" if it bobs up within the circle they are patroling.

Other Warships Join Search.

Besides the destroyer Havock, which was on nonintervention patrol duty when the submersible fired upon it, the destroyers Hyperion, Hasty, Hero, Hereward, and Hardy were engaged in the search. Other British ships were on the way to take up the chase.

The attempt to torpedo the Havock brought the total number of attacks on shipping in the Mediterranean during August to 18.

Almost at the same time the Havock was attacked Spanish rebel planes bombed the Greek freighter Tsepo, about twenty miles north of Barcelona. The Tsepo, carrying a munitions cargo to the Spanish government, was beached escaping from the attack. Her helmsman was killed and another seaman wounded.

The admiralty announced that when the Havock was attacked it immediately counterattacked with depth charges "in consequence of instructions already issued to the fleet and the result of the counterattack is not known."

May Have Sunk Submarine.

The admiralty report then stated significantly:

"No submarine which could be identified with the Havock's assailant since has been discovered. It is most unlikely any further information will be available."

Admiralty experts think it possible that one of the depth charges may have sunk the submarine.

The admiralty stated two weeks ago that "instructions have been issued that if any British merchant ship is attacked by a submarine without warning his majesty's ships are authorized to counterattack."

Some days later the government of Gen. Francisco Franco, rebel commander in Spain, was warned that if attacks were made on British ships the latter would retaliate and take "appropriate action."

The attack on the Havock has precipitated a tense European situation again. Joint action by the British, French, and smaller Mediterranean powers appeared likely to be taken to protect shipping. Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden will discuss the Mediterranean situation with members of the cabinet tomorrow.

French opinion, which holds Italy responsible for the attacks, is reported to be demanding that the British join in measures to call a halt. Seamen also believe most of the recent "incidents" are the work of Italian submarines.

The British apparently have been holding back because they did not wish to jeopardize negotiations for a Mediterranean agreement with Premier Mussolini.

Seek Front of Powers.

According to reports tonight, however, the British and French governments, as a result of conversations between diplomatic authorities during the past few days, now intend to call a meeting of Mediterranean powers at Geneva next week, during the league of nations meeting, to study what can be done. It seemed likely that the meeting of the so-called international committee for nonintervention in Spain, which was to have been held next week, may be called earlier.

With Italy's action now in the status of undisguised intervention in Spain, as evidenced through Mussolini's telegram of congratulations to Gen. Franco over the rebel victory at Santander, the Paris and London governments want to establish a united Mediterranean front to protect shipping. The idea is that the French, British, Turks, Greeks, Jugo-Slavs, and Rumanians should form a patrol so that no merchant ship would ever be far from strong warship assistance.

REGAIN LOST GROUND

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, Sept. 1.—Spanish rebels have recaptured all territory won by the government in an eight days' drive near Saragossa, according to dispatches from Spain today. Moreover, the rebels reported steady progress in their drive westward from Santander, and their advance forces already have entered Asturias province.

Rebel counter attacks in the Almudevar-Zuera sector northeast of Saragossa drove the loyalists from positions they had held since early in the civil war. Southeast of Saragossa, near Belchite, the rebels were heavily attacked, but held their ground.

The drive west of Santander, to expel the loyalists from the small strip of territory they still hold in northern Spain, developed speed when Asturian defenders fled into hiding in the Cuera mountains.

The rebels moved their artillery within range of Pendueles and Vidiago, coastal towns of Asturias. They were said to be fortified, and might present the first resistance to the rebel drive. The rebel column had reached the vicinity of Llanes.

At the opposite [western] end of the strip held by the loyalists, rebels at Oviedo were reported to be massing troops for a drive on Gijon, the last sizable port the government holds in the north.

The government took the offensive on the southern front 45 miles northwest of Cordoba. The loyalists starting from the La Grana mountain range between Fuente Ovejuna and Pennaroya, reached heights overlooking Fuente Ovejuna and in a battle killed 300 rebels.

TWO GUN BANDIT TERRORIZES 11 IN TWO HOTEL RAIDS

A two gun bandit, wearing a coat fastened with two safety pins, raided two north side hotels early today, and escaped with a total of $369 after terrorizing three employes and eight guests in the two buildings. Police said the robber's description fitted that of a man who has committed several similar robberies in the last few weeks.

His first holdup today was at the Pratt Lane hotel, 1246 Pratt boulevard, where he took $36 from James Mulcahy, the clerk, $150 from Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dorsch of Miami, Fla., guests of the hotel, and $75 from David Bennett, another guest. He herded his victims into an elevator and fled.

An hour and a half later the same robber invaded the Viceroy hotel, 4758 Kenmore avenue. He forced Harry McCoy, the night manager, to give up $18. A bellhop and five guests were required to lie down behind the clerk's desk. James Johnson, a guest, was robbed of $70, and Edward Vogt, another guest, of $20.

Two gunmen rounded up several women in the lobby of the Washington Pine West apartment hotel, 5511 Washington boulevard, yesterday and robbed the clerk of $400. The men, one armed with a sawed off shotgun, forced the women into a rear room. One seized $300 from the cashier's desk and the other forced Miss Helen Valzoda, 30 years old, 3732 Arthur avenue, the clerk, to open the safe, taking $100.

SUSPEND 3D COP ON SHAKEDOWN CHARGE IN WEEK

Mowen's squad partner on Aug. 24 was Policeman Edward A. O'Connor, who was suspended on Monday with Policeman Walter Noonan. O'Connor and Noonan, working together on Aug. 25, are accused of taking $6 from Joseph B. Franklin of Hammond, Ind., in a roadside trial for speeding in Illana drive near 92d street.

GUTKNECHT CURB ON MENTAL TEST AROUSES BRAUDE

Cites Value of Examining Wild Drivers.

Judge John Gutknecht returned to the Trafic court bench yesterday after a three month vacation and announced he would moderate the practice started by his predecessor, Judge J. M. Braude, of ordering psychiatric tests for flagrant trafic law violators.

"In the future these examinations will be ordered only in extreme cases," said Judge Gutknecht. He explained that he feared such tests may give youths the idea they are mentally deficient.

Judge Braude last night said he feared Judge Gutknecht had misunderstood the purpose and manner of invoking the psychiatric tests, and expressed regret that Gutknecht had not conferred with him before attacking the policy. He said he would continue to order the tests for the worst offenders who appear before him in the Safety court, to which he has been transferred.

Laboratory Plans Pushed.

"We are going ahead with our plans to establish a safety laboratory as part of the Municipal court psychiatric clinic," Judge Braude said. "The plans have the full approval of Chief Justice John J. Sonsteby. We are buying equipment and have received permission from the police department to use its show-up room in the Central police building until other quarters may be provided."

In reply to Judge Gutknecht's objection that youths subjected to tests may get the idea they are mentally deficient, Judge Braude said he thought the criticism was based on a misunderstanding of the method. The tests were not designed to discover insanity, he explained, but to find personality faults which sometimes turn intelligent persons into menaces to society when they get behind the wheels of automobiles.

"Tests were ordered only for the worst cases," Judge Braude said. "Our purpose was to step into the breach made when the general assembly failed to pass a drivers' license law, and to find some way to separate obviously unfit drivers from their cars."

Speeder Wins Continuance.

In announcing he would moderate the policy started by Judge Braude, Judge Gutknecht said defendants already ordered to take psychiatric tests would be dealt with individually as they return to court. One such case occurred yesterday, that of Allan Spector, 21 years old, 3825 North Albany avenue, who was ordered examined when he was fined $100 last Friday for speeding. It was his third trafic offense. Judge Gutknecht granted him a continuance to Sept. 10 on a motion to vacate the fine.

Informed of this, Judge Braude said he was sure Judge Gutknecht was not familiar with the background of the case. He said he would confer with Gutknecht today and urge that pending cases be sent to him in the Safety court.

In the Safety court yesterday Judge Charles S. Dougherty deprived four motorists of their driving privileges and sentenced one to five days in the county jail. He is George Thomas, 27 years old, colored, 3350 Prairie avenue, who also was barred from driving for one year for reckless driving. The other three, all charged with reckless driving, are Miss Pearl Manick, 33, of 658 Roscoe street; Rollin Gronendyke, 38, of 1915 South Loomis street, and Risdon Woods, 37, colored, who refused to give an address. All were fined $10 and barred from driving for 90 days.

CHILD, 2, JOLTED OFF TRUCK, FALLS TO HIS DEATH UNDER WHEEL

George Davis, 2 years old, 6953 Woodlawn avenue, was fatally injured yesterday afternoon when a wheel of a laundry truck passed over him in the rear of the child's home. The boy had climbed on the running board of the truck while the driver, John Manning, 7035 Yale avenue, was making a delivery, police said. Manning started to drive away without seeing the boy, who was jolted off and under the truck.

Mrs. Agnes Deutsch, 55 years old, 5242 Hyde Park boulevard, was fatally injured last night when she was struck by an automobile at 43d street and Drexel boulevard. She died soon after being taken to the Chicago hospital. Police held the driver, William Baumgarten, 20 years old, 810 Montrose avenue.

The bodies of two of the five persons killed Tuesday in the collision of a Chicago bound Greyhound bus and an automobile near Elkhart, Ind., were brought to Chicago yesterday for burial.

They were Mrs. James Kelleher, 28 years old, 2036 North Lamon avenue, and John H. Heinsohn, 61, who moved to Buffalo, N. Y., in 1934 after living twenty-five years in Chicago.

Up to 4 p. m. yesterday 693 persons had been killed in automobile accidents in Cook county since Jan. 1. Of these 535 were killed in Chicago, where 14,972 were injured.

DOUBT LEGALITY OF CITY DRIVERS' LICENSE SCHEME

Mayor Kelly yesterday said he would favor enactment of the city drivers' license ordinance, introduced in the city council Tuesday by Ald. John A. Massen [48th], if it would be legal. He cited Chicago's experience in 1922 when the council passed a similar law which was nullified by court action. Joseph F. Grossman, first assistant corporation counsel, said he questioned the city's authority to enact such an ordinance.

Joseph H. Braun, general counsel for the Chicago Motor club, also expressed doubt that Chicago has authority to enforce a city license law. A bill to grant municipalities this authority was introduced this year by Representative Richard J. Lyons of Libertyville, but it failed to pass.

Gov. Horner has announced that a special session of the legislature this fall will consider a state-wide drivers' license measure.

Milwaukee C. I. O. Council to Crash A. F. L. Picnic

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 1.—[Special.] The old established Milwaukee Federated Trades council, which always has run Labor day picnics, voted not to invite the C. I. O. unions to participate. Now comes the C. I. O. council and votes unanimously to crash the picnic. J. F. Friedrick, chairman of the A. F. of L. picnic arrangements, said the picnic will be held in a public park and he saw no way to bar the C. I. O. from attending.

A. F. OF L. EXPELS WEST VIRGINIA CENTRAL GROUP

Plans Labor Board War Over Pennsylvania Action

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 1.—(AP)—The American Federation of Labor's executive council today revoked the charter of the West Virginia Federation of Labor for seating C. I. O. delegates at its recent convention.

The council also accused the national labor relations board of violating the Wagner labor disputes act in ordering an Ambridge, Pa., electrical concern to break its contract with the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, an A. F. of L. union. At the request of the United Radio and Electrical Workers, a C. I. O. union, the board ordered an election at the plant.

Plan New Federation.

William Green, A. F. of L. president, said he soon would call a convention of loyal West Virginia unions to form a new state federation. If necessary, he added, legal action would be started to obtain the present state federation's books and property, and to restrain it from using the name "West Virginia State Federation of Labor."

The council last May ordered all state federations and city central bodies to expel C. I. O. locals. Most of them obeyed. However, when the West Virginia federation met, President John B. Easton put the question up to the convention. A substantial majority of the delegates belonged to the United Mine Workers, a C. I. O. union. They voted to disregard the council's order.

Expects Same in Penna.

Green said he expected a similar situation to arise in Pennsylvania where the state federation also is controled by C. I. O. unions.

Regarding the labor board's order, Green said the Ambridge union probably "would take such legal steps as may be necessary to protect the contract."

This action, Green said, probably would be a petition for a federal court order to restrain the labor board from interfering with the agreement.

Ask Damages for Deaths in Texas School Disaster

Henderson, Tex., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Several damage suits arising out of the New London school disaster last March which took the lives of hundreds of children and teachers were filed in District court here today. The suits, asking damages ranging from $3,000 to $15,000 each, were filed against the Parade Gasoline company, a Delaware corporation operating in Texas. They alleged carelessness and negligence caused the school building to become charged with gas and the defendants failed to make proper inspections for leaks.

A. F. OF L. TEAMSTERS BATTLE C. I. O.; USE CARS IN PICKET LINES

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Motorized picket lines of A. F. of L. teamsters virtually isolated the San Francisco waterfront from inland commerce and threatened coast-wide shipping complications today in an effort to force a showdown in a controversy with C. I. O. elements.

Teamster leaders announced the drivers of 500 heavy waterfront trucks were ceasing work and that only perishables and goods already in transit would be moved to or from the docks pending settlement of the dispute.

Almon E. Roth, president of the Waterfront Employers' association, said "a serious situation" would develop in a few days if the impasse continued.

The teamsters called their move a "finish fight" against C. I. O. affiliated warehousemen and C. I. O. longshoremen, who had prevented the trucking of canned goods from a packing company involved in an alleged "lockout" of 75 warehouse union members.

REPORT SHARK AT CONEY ISLAND; THOUSANDS FLEE

New York, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The cry of "sharks!" was raised at Coney Island this afternoon and several thousand bathers scrambled out of the sea in fear.

A patrolman called police headquarters. There radio cars sped down Ocean parkway, and a marine launch, in command of Sergt. Daniel J. Daly, put out to sea from Jamaica bay.

Daly later reported to headquarters by radio he had spotted a shark and was maneuvering for a shot. The shark, he said, was of undetermined size, about 500 feet off shore.

DONALD AWARDED TO HORSTS; REAL MOTHER IN TEARS

Judge Decrees Adoption as She Sobs Consent.

In a dramatic hearing Donald Horst, 2½ years old, yesterday became the legally adopted son of Martha and Otto Horst, 6189 McClellan avenue, who have reared him from birth.

After hearing three hours of testimony, County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki announced there was no doubt in his mind as to who should have the child. Yet as he signed the adoption decree awarding Donald to the Horsts a thin, hollow cheeked woman burst into sobs.

This was Donald's real mother, Mrs. Lydia Nelson Lavin, 4539 Congress street. With John Regan, the boy's father, she abducted the child from the Horst home on Aug. 2.

She Agrees to Adoption.

Judge Jarecki asked her if she objected to the proceedings. She said she did not. I. Harvey Levinson, attorney for the Horsts, asked if she were willing for them to have Donald. She replied she was.

These admissions came after she admitted tearfully that Regan is not her legal husband, that she had not seen her son since his birth until she abducted him, and that she could not support him now.

"I have nothing now!" she sobbed. "Why did this have to happen?"

She was assisted from the witness stand and a doctor summoned to attend her.

The Best Way, She Says.

After the decree, however, as Regan led her from the courtroom, she cast a long look at Donald as he clung happily to Mr. and Mrs. Horst.

"What I've done was for the good of the baby," she said haltingly. "I think it's the best way."

Mrs. Horst was jubilant. "Nobody can take Donald away from us now," she sighed. "Nobody, ever."

Mr. Horst testified he retired from the hotel business to become vice president of United Sound Products company, 816 North avenue, "because of my son's future." He said he owned two parcels of real estate, makes $250 a month, and is worth $20,000. He is planning to buy a home in the suburbs.

DR. CHAS. H. JUDD OF U. OF C. AND ASSISTANT WED

Dr. Charles H. Judd, 64 years old, chairman of the department of education at the University of Chicago, was honeymooning yesterday with the former Miss May Diehl, for years his assistant in editorial work. They were married in Chicago last Saturday, it was announced by the bride's mother, Mrs. Charles Diehl of 1321 East 57th street. They will live at the Windermere hotel. Dr. Judd's first wife, Mrs. Ella Le Compte Judd, died two years ago.

Baby Dies of Paralysis on the Way to Hospital

Rockford, Ill., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Dr. Warren C. Ives, county coroner, said tonight infantile paralysis was responsible for the death of Thomas E. Gordon, 4 months old, found dead this afternoon in a taxicab after it collided with a car while on the way to a hospital. Death apparently occurred before the crash. It was the second death due to infantile paralysis here in recent weeks. There are four other cases here.

After Jane Diana Thedford, 2 months old, gurgled and squealed yesterday before Judge Francis Borrelli in Automobile court the judge put her father, Wayne P. Thedford, 17 years old, 947 Leland avenue, and his companion, Raymond C. Tate, also 17, of 820 Leland avenue, on probation for one year. They had been found guilty of stealing an automobile.

With Jane Diana in court were her mother, June, 16 years old, and Tate's wife, Frances, who is only 14 and whom he married last March 29. It was the first time Thedford had seen his child. He and Tate had just completed a thirty day term in the county jail for a robbery conspiracy. The baby was born after he was arrested in the case.

Daughter of M. S. Eccles, Reserve Board Head, Weds

Ogden, Utah, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Miss Eleanore May Eccles, only daughter of Marriner S. Eccles, governor of the federal reserve board, and Mrs. Eccles of Ogden and Washington, D. C., was married here tonight to Harold J. Steele of Washington, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Harold Steele of Idaho Falls, Idaho. The ceremony was performed in the lounge of the Ogden Golf and Country club. A. E. Bowen of Salt Lake City, one of the twelve apostles of the Latter Day Saints' church, read the service. The bride, 21 years old, was given in marriage by Gov. Eccles. Miss Elaine Young, Blackfoot, Idaho, was maid of honor and Charles Farrington of Los Angeles was best man.

SCHOOLS CLOSED AS SAFEGUARD IN PARALYSIS PERIL

Board Upholds Health Action in Chicago.

To safeguard Chicago children from infantile paralysis, the board of education at a special session yesterday postponed indefinitly the opening of the public schools scheduled for next Tuesday.

The schools will be opened, the board decided, as soon as the Chicago board of health decides this can be done without endangering pupils. The school board's action ratified an order for closing the schools which was issued Tuesday by the health board as a precautionary measure because of indication that infantile paralysis might become epidemic.

Look to Seasonal Decline.

Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, president of the health board, said last night that the end of the summer heat usually halts the spread of the disease, which most often reaches its peak early in September.

During August 109 cases were reported to the health department, an average of fewer than four a day. In the 24 hour period ending at 8 a. m. yesterday there were eight new cases, seven of them among children of school age. From 8 a. m. until 6 p. m. yesterday six additional cases were reported, making a total of 14 in a 32 hour period.

"The situation is well in hand," Dr. Bundesen declared. "We are not afraid. No widespread epidemic will result, because we have taken every precaution."

Serum Used Successfully.

The health department, he said, is assured of an ample supply of serum used in fighting the disease. It is made from the blood of persons who have recovered from infantile paralysis. Chicago health authorities have had great success with the serum, he added, though New York public health physicians have reported less favorable results.

In extending the summer vacation for Chicago pupils, the school board instructed teachers and all other employes to be ready to report to duty at any time. Although employes will not be at work, the board decreed they would lose no pay.

Formal action on closing parochial schools, which also fall under the health board order, was deferred by the board of education of the Chicago Catholic diocese until Saturday. The schools are due to open next Wednesday. The Rev. Daniel F. Cunningham, superintendent, said the board stood ready to obey the health order, but he felt there might be some hope that the situation would improve during the week.

Country Schools to Open.

None of the country school districts will be closed according to present indications, said Supt. Noble J. Puffer. He reported there was no unusual increase in infantile paralysis in the county outside the city limits. Most of the 110,000 pupils are scheduled to return to school Tuesday. Several schools, however, open Wednesday and a week from Monday.

Because of the age range of those most likely to be victims of the disease is between 5 and 15 years, the board of health closing order is not extended to universities, colleges, or other institutions of higher learning.

One reason for closing the elementary and high schools, Dr. Bundesen said, is that many of the present cases under treatment started at boys' camps. Since the period of incubation is from 14 to 18 days after contact, he said, many boys returning from camp would still be in danger of contracting paralysis.

Advises Avoiding Crowds.

Although advising parents to keep their children from mingling in crowds, Dr. Bundesen declared the situation does not warant such measures as closing public beaches, theaters, churches, playgrounds, or other places where crowds congregate.

Swimming pools in parks and schools were closed on schedule Tuesday night. The forest preserve pools are not due to close until Labor day.

The United States public health service announced at Washington that it was ready to help Illinois battle the spread of infantile paralysis but had received no call for assistance. Because of an outbreak at Milwaukee, the health department there forbade children of 7 years or under from attending school or loitering near schools, churches, theaters, or other public gathering places.

PARENTS TOLD HOW TO GUARD CHILDREN AGAINST PARALYSIS

Parents are advised by health authorities that the early symptoms of infantile paralysis are often similar to those of the common cold or other minor ailments and they are urged to call a physician at the first sign of illness.

Among the symptoms are drowsiness, fever, sore throat, and stiffness of the back or neck or any combination of these indications. From 12 to 72 hours after the first definite symptoms, paralysis usually sets in.

Although the cause of the malady is not yet known, physicians are able to diagnose it and prescribe treatment. A sure test is an examination of the spinal fluid. A serum, made from the blood of victims who have recovered, is then injected. Chicago health authorities report good success from the serum.

FRANKFORT, Germany, Sept. 1.—All Palatinate schools were ordered closed today due to an epidemic of infantile paralysis.

"Stay at Home" Strike.

MELBOURNE, Australia, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Melbourne's parents conducted a "stay at home" strike for their children today after authorities had decided to reopen schools which have been closed because of the prevalence of infantile paralysis. Only a few children went back to the classrooms. Cases of the disease have averaged 60 a week, with 17 deaths so far.

RUSH 'IRON LUNG' TO DENVER; LIVES OF TWO AT STAKE

Denver, Colo., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—A train from Chicago bearing an "iron lung" raced with death toward Denver tonight. At stake were the lives of two girls, victims of the dread infantile paralysis.

The outcome depended on frail Shirley Krause, 2½ years old. Shirley is one of two infantile paralysis patients sharing the only respirator in Denver.

Dr. T. L. Williams, deputy health commissioner, said the condition of Maybelle Outcalt, 15, the other patient, became so grave tonight she had to be kept constantly in the one "iron lung" at Steele Memorial hospital.

But Shirley, suffering, like Maybelle, from a paralysis attacking her chest muscles, rallied so well during the day she did not need to be placed in the ton and a half apparatus since afternoon, the doctor said.

While transport planes carried one additional respirator toward Denver and the Burlington Zephyr carried another, hospital doctors hoped Shirley would suffer no relapse as she had once before.

ARMY TESTS ITS NEW AIR FIGHTER AND IS PLEASED

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—The army's new multiseater fighter, technically known as the XFM-1, came through its initial flight test at the municipal airport here today with complete success.

The war department made this announcement proudly because the new combat plane has been the source of more speculation and has aroused greater interest than any army plane since the war.

The formidable fighting machine was taken on its first sky journey today by Lieut. Benjamin S. Kelsey of the army air corps experimental division at Wright field. He flew the high powered, twin engined, low winged plane for more than an hour, putting it through its paces.

Well Pleased with It.

"It is too early to say how it will work out in all its tests," he said when he brought the plane back to its hangar. "However, I am very well pleased with what this ship showed today."

At air corps headquarters here great satisfaction was expressed over a secret report made by Kelsey and flight observers. The XFM-1 was designed to meet the need for a fighter to cope with giant bombers of the so-called "flying fortress" type. The plane is expected to develop speed to overhaul these large, fast bombers and the gun power to cope with them successfully in air combat. The new plane may develop a speed of 350 miles an hour.

From Buffalo the new plane will go to Wright field at Dayton for more extensive tests. From Wright field it will go to the G. H. Q. air force at Langley field, Va., where a new set of tactics is to be worked out for its employment in battle.

Some Radical Departures.

The XFM-1 presents several radical departures from the conventional type of military craft. To begin with, it is a pusher—its propellers are behind the wings. This, it is believed, will give increased propeller efficiency and give more freedom and accuracy to its armament.

The plane carries six guns, more powerful armament than any air fighter, and light bombs. The size of the guns has not yet been determined. In the tests, the air corps will determine whether the principal battery of the airship will be a one pounder or .50 or .30 caliber machine guns.

The plane is powered by two engines developed by the Allison Engineering corporation. To reduce fire hazard, all gasoline is carried in compartments in its giant wings.

Unlike its predecessor, in the pursuit field the XFM-1 is not a small craft. It accommodates a crew of five—pilot, co-pilot, navigator, and two wing gunners. The ship is designed to fly in substratosphere at 30,000 feet, or about six miles.

Gear Retracts Electrically.

The plane embodies all the latest devices to increase its speed and airworthiness. Its landing gear and tail wheel are electrically retractible. It carries flaps to reduce its landing speed. It provides heated compartments for all members of the crew, which will be needed at the 30,000 foot ceiling.

It contains some new and radical departures which may have far reaching significance for the civil air industry as well as the military. Among these are the pusher propellers and an auxiliary power plant which provides for all special needs and leaves the full power of the driving engines available for the propellers only.

An innovation is the interchangeability of the crew. Members can freely change places. Complete telephone intercommunication is also provided.

REPORTS SEEING GIRL KIDNAPED AFTER BATTLE

Lake county deputy sherifs searched highways in the vicinity of Ingleside and Fox Lake early today after receiving a report that a young woman was kidnaped by two men who seized her at the Ingleside station of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad. Robert Burleigh, an employé of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, who lives near the station, said he was awakened by the woman's screams and looked out to see her fighting two men. They overpowered her, he said, bundled her into an automobile, and drove off on a gravel road that leads to highway 59 two miles west of Fox Lake.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Miss Marian Marsh, actress, has been named honorary queen of the national air races, to be held in Cleveland, and she will be on hand when contestants in the Bendix trophy race take off early Friday morning. So far Miss Jacqueline Cochrane is the only woman entered in the Bendix race.

Zoo Gets 2 Ostriches Nine Feet Tall and Still Growing

Two young ostriches from Africa, who will be two of the biggest birds in the world when they finish growing up, but, like others of their kind, will never be able to fly, arrived in the Lincoln park zoo yesterday and began casting a cold eye on visitors. Director Floyd S. Young said they stand nine feet high and weigh 300 pounds each.

RESPONSE HEAVY AS TESTS START IN SYPHILIS WAR

First Day Brings Many to Clinics and Doctors.

There was a large response yesterday from men and women who want to take free secret blood tests as these were administered for the first time to the general public in Chicago's campaign to stamp out syphilis.

At medical centers, city maternity clinics, in the offices of thousands of private physicians who as members of the Chicago Medical society agreed to help in the work, men and women appeared and asked to have the tests made. Every indication last evening was that the laboratories available for completing the tests will be swamped.

Expand Laboratory Facilities.

Dr. Louis E. Schmidt, chairman of Mayor Kelly's committee for the control of venereal disease, said that every effort is being made to handle every request for a test as soon as it is made. Laboratory facilities throughout the city are being expanded rapidly, he said.

"The work will now go forward at an increasing pace as more and more private physicians are able to prepare themselves to handle requests for the free tests," he said. "We already are doing our best to equip all public laboratories for the mass job this is turning out to be."

Aside from those given by private physicians, tests were given yesterday at 28 maternity centers of the city board of health, at the laboratory in the police building, 1121 South State street, and at the board of health laboratories on the 7th floor of the City Hall.

Tests Results Kept Secret.

The tests are being given free to any one who cannot afford to pay for them. There is no inquiry into the financial status of applicants, however, and the results of the tests will be kept secret.

Dr. Reuben L. Kahn of the University of Michigan was driving to Chicago last night to consult with city authorities on improvement and expansion of the testing facilities. He will be asked to take charge of the giving of the Kahn test, which he originated. This test is regarded as faster, cheaper, and equally useful in giving a positive determination of infection as the older Wassermann test.

TWO MONTHS' TESTS PROVE ATLANTIC AIR LINE ROUTE FEASIBLE

New York, Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Two months' operation over the North Atlantic by the leading international air lines of Great Britain and the United States, coupled with coördinated information supplied by similar interests in Germany and France, have proved the trans-Atlantic air line projects feasible, it was announced today by spokesmen for the four companies.

Developments of airplane construction, of weather bureau forecasting, of engine manufacture, of navigating and pilot ability, anticipated several years ago, have exceeded predictions in actual tests continued over the eight week period.

Representatives of the four nations pooled their facilities before the first flight began, it became known. At Port Washington, N. Y., Pan-American Airways offered radio aids to navigation, refueling facilities, and terminal accommodations to the three other experimenting interests. In return Great Britain placed at the disposal of Pan-American its best talent on Imperial Airways at Nova Scotia, Newfoundland, and Ireland.

MOTHER ORDERS SON ASHORE AS SHE, MATE DIE

Montello, Wis., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Although she knew she was drowning, Mrs. Frank Russick of 2710 Fitch street, Chicago, ordered her son to save himself by swimming ashore.

Her husband tried in vain to rescue her. Both husband and wife were drowned, authorities said today as they returned the bodies to Chicago for burial. The tragedy occurred yesterday.

The Russicks were swimming in eight feet of water with their son, Francis, 12 years old, when Mrs. Russick realized she could not reach shore. Obeying orders, the boy swam ashore and summoned help, but it came too late. Russick, 38 years old, was employed by Wilson and company, packers. Mrs. Russick was 34.

GAMBLING STIRS IRE OF COURTNEY; CLEANUP STARTS

State's Attorney Courtney went on the warpath yesterday against gambling. He rebuked Lester Laird, chief of the county highway police, for laxity, and this led to an order to Laird from his superior, Sherif Toman, to close all gambling spots in the county. Subsequently five places were raided and twelve men—all employés of the establishments—were arrested.

The derth of patrons in some of the places appeared traceable in at least one instance to a telephone tipoff which arrived in advance of the police. Horse players and gamblers evacuated the House of Niles, 6825 Milwaukee avenue, two hours ahead of the arrival of Laird's raiders. The crowd of patrons made off in buses and private cars. When Laird appeared he found only the keeper and two aids.

9 More Seized Elsewhere.

Five men were arrested at the Wagon Wheel, 6412 Montrose avenue. Three, all named Joe, were found in the Al-Mar, River and Rand roads, north of Des Plaines, and one was seized in the River inn, on Wagner road near Glenview. No arrests were made at the Harlem Stables, 4301 Harlem avenue, but a padlock was placed on the doors. Meanwhile, Courtney's raiders took nine slot machines from Elmwood Park saloons.

The prosecutor prefaced his tilt with Chief Laird by announcing in an interview that in less than a week his office had practically stopped the operation of slot machines in the county. He declared he was tired of being the only official who was trying to enforce the law.

Then Courtney got Chief Laird on the telephone and spoke sharply to him for letting gambling houses operate. "Are your men blindfolded?" he demanded. "Get out there and close those places and make your report to me in writing. I'm not kidding, and you'd better take the blindfold off yourself and off some of your men!"

Orders End to Gambling.

"What do you mean, you'll call up?" Courtney continued after Laird had made some reply. "You'd better get out there yourself and see that those gambling places are closed and kept closed!"

A short time later Sherif Toman announced that Laird had been told to close up gambling in the county. In doing so he lamented the small size of his police force.

"Chicago," he said, "with an area of 209 square miles, has 6,400 policemen. My territory outside the city limits has 732 square miles, but I only have 99 men, and they are divided between three stations and I have to split them into three shifts each day."

"Have you had a disagreement with Mr. Courtney?" Toman was asked. "Not at all," he replied.

Murder Starts Drive.

The current drive against gambling is due to the murder Monday night of John Sullivan, 45 year old ex-convict, presumably because he tried to muscle in on the slot machine racket. He was shot down as he was placing his car in a garage across the street from his home at 4909 Washington boulevard.

An inquest into his death yesterday was continued to Sept. 29 to permit more investigation. The widow, Mrs. Rae Sullivan, testified to an alleged enmity between Sullivan and John Coppola, 36 years old, 4643 Fullerton avenue, who has acknowledged operating slot machines, but denies complicity in the murder. Coppola and his brother, Harold, 181 North Cicero avenue, were released from the state's attorney's custody yesterday on a writ of habeas corpus issued by Chief Justice Michael L. McKinley of the Criminal court.

Sullivan was killed by two men. Miss Muriel Manlove, 4811 West End avenue, testified that she saw them run past her home after the shooting.

VICE RACKETEER NAMED DRIVER OF MURDER CAR

An admission allegedly made by Leonard Doxey, vice operator, that he drove the automobile for two gunmen who shot and killed Herbert W. Lee, alias Burns, in Grant park Aug. 22 was reported to state's attorney's police yesterday. The information was supplied by Charles H. Davis, soda clerk, who was a cellmate of Doxey in St. Louis when the latter was seized there Friday.

Davis said Doxey told him the story of the killing while he was awaiting arrival of officers from Chicago. He said Doxey told him the murder occurred during a holdup of Lee to get $250 and a diamond ring he was carrying.

Police also were told by Davis that Doxey had said one of the two gunmen was wounded in the neck accidentally during the holdup. Doxey is being held on a murder warant and Lucille Buehler, companion of the murder victim, is held as an accessory.

Miss Sarah Cascavale, known as the Wildcat, and six men members of the same gang were held to the grand jury in bonds totaling $220,000 yesterday on twenty-two robbery charges by Judge Lambert K. Ragweed Pollen Count Rises Despite Calm Day

Although there was little wind Tuesday, the count of ragweed pollen, principal cause of hay fever, rose again, to 372 grains to the cubic yard of air, O. C. Durham, botanist of the Abbott laboratories of North Chicago, reported yesterday. The count Monday was 355.

RACKETS WIN IN NEW YORK; DOG RACING GOES ON

Judge Frees Track Heads in Gambling Case.

BY WILLIAM FULTON.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Sept. 1.—The door was opened wide to the dog race racket with all its underworld ramifications and political knavery today when a County judge dismissed a gambling case against officials of the Nassau Kennel club. And so tonight, beneath a battery of klieg lights, a stable of emaciated greyhounds chased a mechanical rabbit around the track while some 10,000 wagered on the outcome.

Just before the case was scheduled to go to a jury Judge Richard W. Hawkins dismissed the indictments against Percy C. Reed, proprietor of the track on the old fair grounds at Mineola on Long Island, and Richard F. Roberts, racing secretary of the kennel club.

"I am not unmindful of a serious situation which exists here," said the court. "However, under the law I cannot find that these two defendants are liable. If any change in the law is necessary it is entirely up to the legislature."

The dog race racket in New York was dominated by the late Arthur [Dutch Schulz] Flegenheimer until his sudden demise was brought about by gang bullets two years ago.

URGES SINGLE STAFF IN FRANCE.

PARIS, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Gen. Maxime Weygand, former chief of the French army, said in a pamphlet today that French military forces are ready for "any occasion." He urged that the navy, army, and air force be coördinated under a single general command.

Are you seeing a MOVIE tonight in the Loop? Why not do that and have a party, too. Come to us for DINNER . . . for a complete one for 50 cents if you like. Come to beautiful 57 W. $20,000 BEQUEST FROM STRANGER COSTS HIM $1,850

Chris Coragan of La Salle thought he was a lucky fellow indeed, because a stranger he knew only as Paul had chosen him as the recipient of a $20,000 bequest provided in the $500,000 will left by the stranger's father. Mr. Coragan, a restaurant man, was to get the money in advance. All he had to do to earn it was to pray for the salvation of the dead man's soul.

But Paul wanted to be sure Mr. Coragan was a responsible person. A glimpse of Mr. Coragan's savings would convince him. So Mr. Coragan went to a bank in Joliet and drew $1,850 from his account. Paul appeared convinced and handed Mr. Coragan the package he said contained the $20,000. Then Paul decided to take Mr. Coragan's $1,850 to another bank to see if it were genuine. Mr. Coragan said O. K. and left with Paul's package.

DARING GIRL ON HIGH TRAPEZE KICKS MATE WITH GREATEST EASE

While floating through the air with the greatest of ease, Mrs. Diane Bert, 23 years old, a trapeze artist, deliberately removed one slipper and threw it at her husband, striking him in the face. This allegation was contained yesterday in a bill for divorce filed in the Superior court by Harry Bert, 35, of the Raleigh hotel, 648 North Dearborn street, manager of side shows in the circus where his wife works. They married May 13 and separated July 1.

SPECIALIST'S GREEK INTO LAYMAN'S LINGO

By CALEB

WHEN people live in a world full of things they cannot possibly understand they must rely upon the advice and counsel of others who do understand. If a body of those who are in a position to give advice gives it honorably and honestly, they give rise to a semi-profession. Out of semi-professions are professions born.

But a profession cannot be born without the confidence of the public. A profession cannot persist without retaining public confidence. More and more, as specialization limits what people can know of the world around them, they will have to depend upon the honest, sincere counsel and advice of others in fields foreign to their own.

Thus, due to specialization, the future of our society requires ever truer and stauncher character. Yet in many of our educational and academic endeavors we are slackening our insistence on things which build character. Instead we seek to make life easier for people who are to enter a world which must more and more depend for its salvation on their high character.

The physician of fifty years ago could learn all there was to be known about dietetics in his spare time. Today, a man's whole time would hardly suffice to keep him abreast of dietetic developments. And this is but one of the thousand fields in which the studious specialist must goad himself to keep up.

In all fields the specialist's Greek must be translated into the layman's lingo—and with the interest of the public at heart. Intelligent people are needed to catch the things which ascend from the deep wells of specialization and distribute them wheel-wise over the world. The electric eye is an interesting discovery, but it is of public import only when it is put to work in a number of industries.

Thus we need specialists in co-ordination—a new profession.

The department store plays some considerable part in interpreting the work of specialists to the people. The advantages of many an important discovery of remote specialists flow to you through the ubiquitous and alert department store and its semi-professional personnel—people who are specialists in catering to human needs.

TYPHOON STRIKES HONGKONG; SHIPS CALL FOR HELP

Chinese Trapped in Sea; Refugees Periled.

Guns on Japanese warships roared throughout the night, pouring shells into Chapei, tremendously populated Chinese section north of the international settlement. Planes rained incendiary bombs on nearby Hongkew in an effort to drive out the Chinese.

The Japanese announced the attack was designed to wipe out Chinese forces in the lower Yangtze river valley and northeast of the metropolis.

More Troops Landed.

More Japanese troop reinforcements were landed in Yangtzepoo, which is located at the eastern end of the international settlement. The newly arrived soldiers immediately were ordered into action.

The Japanese also landed 4 inch and 6 inch guns in Yangtzepoo. The guns were mounted on caterpillar trucks. They joined the naval bombardment of Chinese forces.

The Chinese regulars gave no signs of retreating and their artillery was directed at Japanese concentrations in the embattled area.

Fight to Push Southward.

Heavy fighting continued at Woosung, twelve miles north of Shanghai. There the Japanese struggled to push southward from the Woosung forts to join positions with Japanese marines northeast of the city.

Bayonet charges and hand-to-hand fighting raged as the Chinese sought to drive the Japanese back. Many were reported killed on both sides.

Shells and bombs destroyed the cotton mills of the Wing On company at Woosung. Tungchi university, which is supported by Germans, was demolished for a second time since 1932.

The Japanese navy announced it "will launch air attacks against all Chinese military airports and bases of military operations."

Foreign Shipping Warned.

Foreign shipping was warned to keep away from Japanese naval concentrations in the Whangpoo river and the Yangtze estuary—the only path by which American and other refugees can escape from Shanghai. American and British authorities conferred, indicating that warships would convoy any refugee ships sailing down the Whangpoo.

Indignant British authorities indicated that they will protest to the Japanese over a bombing which endangered 31 men of the 2d battalion, Royal Welsh fusiliers, who were protecting the British Fengchi cotton mill. Japanese planes dropped six bombs in the Jessfield sector, west of the international settlement, in an attempt to destroy two bridges.

LUCAS TO TALK AT PARTY RALLY FOR 2 COUNTIES

Havana, Ill., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Congressman Scott W. Lucas of this city will make his first speech since the adjournment of congress at Florence, Ill., on Labor day. He will speak at a big Illinois river fish fry sponsored jointly by the Democratic organizations of Pike and Scott counties. This is an annual rally that usually attracts a large crowd.

POSTOFFICE MAY BE AGENCY SELECTED TO COUNT U. S. JOBLESS

Washington, D. C., Sept. 1.—(AP)—America's millions of unemployed may be registered through postoffices, officials said today after a conference on the census recently ordered by congress.

Meeting at the commerce department, representatives of social and statistical agencies concluded it might take some time to set up machinery for the registration. They said, however, the count could be taken quickly after preliminary arrangements have been completed. Under the recently enacted law, the census is to be finished by April 1.

Before any definite program can be devised, it was said, President Roosevelt must designate the agency that will have charge. Forms probably will be drafted by the census bureau consultation with other interested agencies, it was said.

WOMAN SEIZED WITH YARROW'S SON IS DIVORCED

Mrs. June Wheaton Stadelman, 33 years old, 6153 Greenwood avenue, was awarded an uncontested divorce yesterday by Judge Charles A. Williams from Oscar L. Stadelman, 43, of 7529 Colfax avenue, a druggist. They were married May 7 and separated June 10.

Mrs. Stadelman, questioned by Attorney Harry X. Cole, said her husband struck her in a quarrel over money. Attorney Cole said Stadelman had agreed to drop disorderly conduct charges against his wife and Philip R. Yarrow, son of the Rev. Philip Yarrow, vice crusader, who were arrested in the Stadelman home recently. Cole also represented two of Stadelman's ex-wives, Marie, who divorced him in 1923, and Margaret, in 1934.

POSES AS OFFICER; FINED $100.

Leonard Hughes, 32 years old, 3122 West 15th street, a clerk, yesterday was fined $100 by Judge Oscar S. Caplan in the Fillmore street court on a charge of inpersonating a police officer.

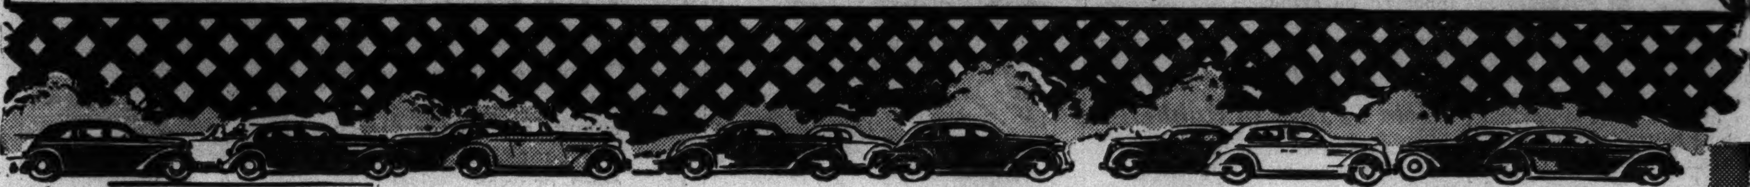
ARE YOUR TIRES SAFE FOR LABOR DAY TRAFFIC?



WHY TAKE CHANCES?

THIS week-end you'll need the mighty center traction grip of stout new Goodyear tires more than ever . . . need it to hold on curves when you're making time . . . to stop quick when traffic piles up suddenly.

Remember, more than 8,000 tests proved Goodyears stop a car quicker, giving you a life-saving margin of safety in emergencies. That's why Goodyears are the world's first-choice tire for safety.

Extra Safety—at no extra price

You get this proved center traction safety in all Goodyears—at all prices. In the famed super-mileage "G-3" All-Weather that delivers 43% longer non-skid mileage. In the sensational new "R-1" that offers first-class travel at reduced rates. And in the economical Speedway, a real quality tire at rock-bottom price.

The plain truth is: Goodyear tires cost you less per mile today than any other operating expense on your car—there's so much extra mileage, value and safety built into them! So why run the risk of tire trouble spoiling your holiday? Get the Goodyear that fits your purse and need—now—and be safe all winter long.

THE CHEAPEST THING ON YOUR CAR IS THE BEST TIRES YOU CAN BUY

Charted here are average maintenance costs obtained from fleet owners operating hundreds of cars on Goodyear tires. Note that a full set of Goodyears costs only about one-fifth as much as gas—from one-quarter to one-half as much as other routine expenses. Ratios may vary somewhat in your case depending upon roads, climate and how fast you drive, but these nation-wide records prove Goodyears cost least under any conditions.

WORLD'S FIRST-CHOICE VALUE—at all prices
QUICK-STOPPING CENTER TRACTION GRIP
THE GOODYEAR MARGIN OF SAFETY
TOUGH LONG-WEARING NON-SKID TREADS
HIGH CURVE-HOLDING SHOULDERS
SUPERTWIST CORD BLOWOUT-PROTECTION IN EVERY PLY

EVERY ONE BUILT TO THE GOODYEAR STANDARD
GOODYEAR
GOODYEAR G-3 ALL-WEATHER
GOODYEAR SPEEDWAY
GOODYEAR R-1
SENSATIONAL NEW VALUE
—the big, he-man "R-1"—one of the greatest tire values of all time, at the price you're accustomed to paying.

M'NARY LASHES ROOSEVELT FOR COURT ATTACKS

Declares President Won't Accept U. S. Verdict.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 1.—[Special.] — President Roosevelt has refused to accept the verdict of the people against his court packing plan, Senator Charles L. McNary, Republican leader of the senate, said today in a statement released through the Republican national committee. From his home at Salem, Ore., the senator said the original court plan, involving a reactionary step in government, seems to have remained alive in the mind of the President.

Senator McNary.

In his statement Mr. McNary paid tribute to the Democrats who fought the administration plan. In this he was joined by John M. Hamilton, chairman of the Republican national committee.

Lauds People's Good Sense.

"As Republican leader of the senate—and I think I speak for every Republican in the senate—I want to pay tribute," Senator McNary said, "to the great good sense of the American people in their successful opposition to President Roosevelt's attempt to pack the Supreme court. Now that the President has signed the bill effecting wise reforms in the procedure of our lower courts, the President's court packing bill is formally dead.

"The original plan, however, seems still to live in the President's mind. He has raised again the specious and exploded pleas of the need to relieve the Supreme court of the burden of its work and of the need for a flow of new blood to the courts. The President's distaste for age, whatever the wisdom of age may be, appears again in this last pronouncement where he refuses to accept the verdict already rendered by the people.

Refused to Submit It.

"The President refused to place the issue before the people for their formal ratification or rejection but the people took up the issue. And the force of popular opinion decided it, even though the President cannot seem to realize this fact."

"The Republican party will press ahead with warm humanity within the framework of the constitution, amending it if necessary, for wise changes that from time to time may be demanded to meet the needs of the people. At the same time we must remember that opposition to reckless or wrong action is our duty and change is not always necessary or wise. A party is not blocking progress when it blocks change that is foolish or dangerous. That is what we did in the Supreme court fight."

DILLINGER'S PAL IN FIRST CRIME KILLED BY TRAIN

Mooresville, Ind., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Edward Singleton, companion of John Dillinger in the first known crime the late public enemy committed, 13 years ago, was killed today by a Pennsylvania freight train.

Singleton, 45 years old and a WPA worker, was sitting on a rail of the track near here, his lunchbox beside him, when the train bore down and crushed him to death. The crew was not aware of the accident and the train did not stop.

Dillinger and Singleton held up a grocery near here in 1924. They were caught soon afterward and although Singleton had a previous criminal record, he was given a lighter sentence than Dillinger. This "injustice" and Singleton's early influence on Dillinger was blamed for starting the Indiana farm boy on his notorious crime splurge.

He's Unhappy at Home, So Shoots Away His Left Side

ARMY PLANE IS FOUND IN GREAT SALT LAKE; MECHANIC MISSING

Salt Lake City, Utah, Sept. 1.—(AP)—An army plane that plunged into Great Salt lake last night was found by searching planes today, but there was no trace of the missing mechanic, Henry Pearson.

Lieut. Lucian Powell, who swam two miles to shore, told his commanding officer, Capt. D. W. Goodrich, that Pearson chose to stay on the plane.

The plane's tail was seen protruding from 12 feet of water, approximately five miles from shore. A boat pulled it high in the water. A searcher climbed to the wreckage, peered into both cockpits, but found them empty.

County Hospital Patient Leaps 7 Floors to Death

Benjamin Leonard, 47 years old, a former real estate broker who lived at 1015 North Ashland avenue, leaped to his death early yesterday from a seventh floor window of the County hospital. Leonard, who formerly operated a real estate office at Potomac and Wolcott avenues, retired from business six years ago because of ill health. Stanley J. Bialoruski, a friend with whom he had been living for several years, said he had been despondent because of his illness. He was unmarried.

LONG'S OLD PAL DUBS ROOSEVELT HUEY'S DISCIPLE

Sen. Ellender Pledges Aid to Dictatorship.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Senator Allan J. Ellender of Louisiana, an ardent supporter of President Roosevelt, declared before leaving for his home today that the President is "following the methods and philosophy" of the late Huey P. Long.

"I want to help Mr. Roosevelt do the same things for the nation that Huey did for Louisiana," explained Senator Ellender, who was Long's floor leader in the Louisiana house of representatives.

"If that spells dictatorship, I am going to do all I can to help the President establish such a dictatorship in the United States. But, of course, there never was any dictatorship in Louisiana. The people ruled. Huey wanted to give the people a break."

No man, perhaps, is more familiar with the "methods and philosophy" of the late Louisiana "King Fish" than this one time floor leader, who helped to drive through the measures establishing a one man government. In a reflective mood, Senator Ellender recalled that when the state Supreme court was frustrating important parts of Huey's program, measures were taken to "make democracy work."

"We discussed what to do about it," Ellender said. "As it happened, the election wasn't far away and, as members of the state courts are elected, it wasn't necessary to do anything except defeat the opposition judges at the polls. But we would have done whatever was necessary, calling a state constitutional convention to increase the size of the court, if need be."

The Way It Happened.

What actually happened with respect to the Supreme court in Louisiana, an incident which figured prominently in the debates on President Roosevelt's proposal to pack the United States Supreme court, was not simply a matter of "defeating the judges at the polls." The court as constituted was 4 to 3 against Long. Long's candidate died a few days before the scheduled election. He then ordered a special election, in violation of the state constitution, and secured the election of John Fournet, his former speaker of the house.

BLIND WORKMAN DIES OF FALL.

NATION'S FIREMEN COME TOMORROW TO JUBILEE SHOW

More than 300 of the nation's crack firemen will begin arriving in Chicago tomorrow for the First National Fire Fighters' tournament at Soldier's field next Sunday and Monday.

In the tournament, which is part of the Charter Jubilee celebration, thirty visiting teams of firemen will compete for $2,750 in prizes and will demonstrate water fighting, jumping into life nets, climbing burning buildings, and rescuing young women.

Tomorrow night the Fred A. Busse, Chicago's new fireboat, will hurl skyward sixteen streams of water, each higher than a fifteen story building, in the yacht harbor at the foot of 8th and 10th streets. Other demonstrations will be given Saturday and Sunday in the Burnham park lagoon.

THE BACK-TO-SCHOOL SHOP

is now open

If you wear bell-bottom trousers and a slicker with John Held Jr. drawings on it—never mind reading this! Because our big "Back-to-School" shop is strictly 1937! We think we know today's college man. He's the smart young lad whose preference for odd jackets and slacks started a national style; who discovered Benny Goodman and rediscovered "swing"; who knows more about golf and tennis and even sailing than his father; and whose ideas of correctness in dress are as well-defined and unbreakable as the rules of an English gentleman's club.

So here we come—with a chip on our shoulder! We think the 1937 "Back-to-School" shop has everything. It has all the rough tweeds and cheviots that we know you want. It has plenty of button-down oxford shirts and striped ties. It has the hats we know you wear—including one that a young chap from Princeton told us was the best young man's hat he'd ever seen. And this year we've grouped everything we think you'll want into one shop where one young fellow can sell you just about everything you'll need without your moving more than a few yards.

So come in—look us over—let us answer your questions. We think you'll understand why this annual shop has become a "required course" for so many young men about campus.

NOTE TO ANXIOUS PARENTS: Naturally, the message above is directed to the sophomores, juniors, and seniors—who know what they want. But if you have a son going away for the first time, send—or bring—him in. Tell the understanding young chaps in our shop how much or how little you want to spend—and they'll help you to plan everything—easily, correctly, economically!

ASSAILS APATHY WITHIN RANKS OF REPUBLICAN CLUB

Blames Fear for Failure of Victory Banquet.

BY THORNTON SMITH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Criticism that a do-nothing atmosphere of defeatism pervades the Republican Club of Wisconsin, defeating a plan for a victory banquet in celebration of the shelving of the Roosevelt court packing plan, was voiced today by J. P. Beuscher, Milwaukee attorney, who was chairman of the victory dinner program.

The dinner was conceived as a rebuke to the Wisconsin congressional delegation which either supported the President or failed to oppose him and to serve as an object lesson for the future. Senator Robert M. La Follette supported the President vigorously and Senator F. Ryan Duffy never revealed his position.

The celebration got away to a good start, with the club approving a resolution to hold the dinner and President Albert K. Stebbins appointing Beuscher, Richard Falk and George R. Howitt as a committee to promote it.

Tickets Eagerly Bought.

Beuscher said he met a welcome response to the idea and had sold numerous tickets when he began to encounter obstacles from within the organization. He proposed inviting Senator Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan or former Chief Justice Floyd Thompson of Illinois or some other nationally known supporter of the Supreme court and said he received assurance of interest and support from many rank and file citizens of all political parties, but that he never was able to get his committee together.

Falk advised he could not serve, and President Stebbins would not appoint another member, Beuscher said.

The charge that Stebbins killed the celebration was made by the program chairman tonight in a letter sent to Falk as secretary of the club.

Dinner for 1,000 Envisioned.

"I personally sold 50 tickets the first day," Beuscher wrote, "and the response I received assures me we could have had a dinner of at least 1,000 representative citizens who opposed the tactics of President Roosevelt.

"The Republican Club of Wisconsin could be a power in resurrecting the party in this state if it had officers at its head who were interested in making it a success. Thousands of Progressives are ready to come back into the Republican fold if there were a reorganization.

"Nothing can be done as long as Messrs. Stebbins, Philipp, and Samp claim to be the governing power of the party. For nearly 70 years the Republican party made this state what it is today, and that can be repeated in the future. The Republican club should be a leader."

Beuscher referred to Cyrus L. Philipp and Edward J. Samp.

"Licked by Fear," His Charge.

The unwillingness of President Stebbins to proceed with the plan for a victory celebration, Beuscher said he believed was due to defeatism, the fear of failure.

"He was licked before he started," Beuscher said. "The policy of postponing action and doing nothing because of apathy or the fear it will not succeed has robbed the Republican party of first place in Wisconsin."

Stebbins denied that he had interposed any obstacles to the success of the celebration.

"I named the committee in good faith," he said tonight, "and it is news to me that the members are not going ahead with the program."

Husband to Pay

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Bartlett.

Hollywood, Cal., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Once a motion picture star commanding a salary of $2,000 a week, Alice White Bartlett, known in films as Alice White, today was the recipient of a $65 a week temporary alimony award given her by Superior Judge Goodwin S. Knight of Domestic Relations court. She had applied for $1,000 per month.

Bartlett testified he was earning $400 a week as a studio writer and that he had various relatives to support.

"You're only as good as your last story," said Bartlett.

"What was your last play?" asked Judge Knight.

"You'd hang me if you saw it," said Bartlett. "It was 'The Man Who Cried, "Wolf!"' It was terrible."

GAMBLER FINDS NO PLAYERS FOR 'SKY LIMIT' GAME

BIARRITZ, France, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The "big money" baccarat players at the Biarritz casino tonight appeared to be ignoring, for the time being at least, Amleto Battisti's challenge to a "sky's the limit" game.

The Uruguayan, who professes to be seeking revenge for the $1,000,000 he says the baccarat experts took from him eight years ago, had made all arrangements to bank a wide open game, but the men who cleaned him out have shown little inclination, thus far, to take him on.

Battisti's chief agent, Antonio Abecassin, who has been doing most of the fronting for him at the casino here, said Battisti's rendezvous with the group of players who broke him eight years ago "depends upon their whim." Casino attendants said they believed most of the big time baccarat players of the world are playing now at Deauville, where the casino season is in full swing.

HAMILTON PICKS MAINE WOMAN FOR G. O. P. POST

Washington, D. C., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Miss Marion E. Martin, Republican national committeewoman from Maine, today was appointed by John M. Hamilton, chairman of the Republican national committee, to be his assistant in charge of the woman's division.

She will assume her duties here Oct. 1, and one of her first tasks will be the coördination of the work of various organizations of Republican women throughout the country.

Miss Martin is serving her first term as national committeewoman. She has served two terms in the lower house of the Maine legislature and is now completing her second term in the state senate.

JOYFULLY QUITS CHAIN GANG FOR BAY STATE LIFE

Parolee Goes to Fulfill Condition of Release.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Happy over his parole, however strange, Fleming Willis, Georgia chain gang Negro, was "moseying along" toward Massachusetts tonight in accordance with the edict of Gov. E. D. Rivers.

Fleming Willis.

The governor pardoned Willis this morning on the condition that he live in Massachusetts. Willis, a Sunday school teacher, had served less than a month of a ten months' sentence for operating a lottery.

The order was a slap at Gov. Charles Hurley of Massachusetts, who recently refused to extradite an escaped Georgia chain gang convict caught in the northern state. The fugitive, Will Cunningham, who had been sentenced in Georgia for burglary, was fined $300 in Massachusetts for conducting a lottery.

Sees "Need" for Lottery Men.

"Gov. Hurley seems to be in need of extra lottery operators," the Georgia executive commented. "I am accommodating both Gov. Hurley and this prisoner by signing this parole.

"Strangely enough, Gov. Hurley seems more interested in the welfare of criminals than in law abiding citizens."

Willis, who began serving his sentence on Aug. 6, stated in his petition for parole:

"Applicant desires to move his residence to the state of Massachusetts and become a bona fide resident of that state.

Likes Hurley's Attitude.

"Applicant feels that the attitude of Gov. Hurley of Massachusetts is more favorable toward those similarly situated to applicant than is to be found in the state of Georgia.

"Applicant, therefore, stipulates that in the event his parole is granted, that he wishes it to be made a condition of his parole that he will reside in Massachusetts during the full term of the parole."

The Negro, who is 30 years old and owns a barber shop in Atlanta, grinned broadly as he left the executive offices in the state capitol.

"I'm sure gwine to mosey right on up to that thar Massachusetts," he avowed as he moseyed home to pack.

Local Government Debts Rise $13,502,953 in 2d Quarter

Due to an increase in outstanding tax anticipation warrants total debts of the five major local governments in Cook county rose $13,502,953 in the second quarter of 1937, analysis of quarterly debt statements issued by the city, school board, park district, sanitary district, and county discloses.

For the twelve months ended June 30, 1937, however, there was a decrease of $36,172,236 in the liabilities of these governments. The debt increase in the second quarter reflected the small amount of taxes collected in the period and the consequent slow retirement of tax warrants. No tax penalty date fell in the three months.

Net Decrease Is $289,772.

In the first quarter of 1937, which included the second penalty date on 1935 real estate taxes, there was a drop of $13,792,725 in total debt, making a net decrease for the first six months of $289,772.

Since the penalty date on the first instalment of 1936 real estate taxes and on 1936 personalty taxes has fallen in the present third quarter, it is likely that the downward debt trend will be resumed in this quarter.

The total debt of the five governments, according to the quarterly statements, was $595,249,749 on last June 30. Changes in major debt items from a year ago were as follows:

	Debt on June 30, 1937.	Decrease in 12 months.
Floating debt	24,608,860	9,754,256
Totals	$595,249,749	$36,172,236

Bonded debt increased $576,990 in the second quarter of 1937, tax warrants rose $14,024,669, and floating debt was down $1,098,706.

The decreases in total debts of each of the five governments in the twelve months were as follows:

	Decrease in 12 months.
City	$ 5,371,003
School board	7,551,394
Park district	15,443,426
Sanitary district	7,303,576
County	502,837
Total	$36,172,236

An increase in the bonded debt of the city in the twelve months appears after the sale of 11 million dollars' worth of bonds in January to pay off old judgments. Retirement of other bonds brought the net increase in the city's bonded debt down to $2,187,461 for the year.

Statements Compared.

Following are comparative statements, as of June 30, 1937 and 1936, for the five governments:

The liabilities listed are those of the principal operating funds of the five local governments. Obligations of minor funds and semi-independent taxing groups, such as the forest preserve district, school board building fund, Municipal Tuberculosis sanitarium, and public library, are not included.

JOBS OF 24,000 THREATENED BY NEW WPA RULE

City Rejects Provision It Guarantee Projects.

Jobs of 24,000 WPA workers on city sponsored projects hang in the balance as the result of the city's refusal yesterday to sign new contracts with the WPA. The contracts carry a provision, effective yesterday, requiring the city to agree to bear the entire cost of completing projects in the event federal funds are withdrawn.

Should the WPA decide to close down the city projects with their $1,500,000 monthly pay roll, Chicago would face a further relief shortage. The cost of supporting these workers and their families on direct relief would be about $750,000 a month, and there is now a September relief deficit of $1,000,000, due to exhaustion of local relief funds.

18,000 on Other WPA Jobs.

Plans of Leo M. Lyons, city relief administrator, to cope with this deficit by shifting relief clients to WPA rolls would be scrapped if city projects are abandoned. And the situation would grow even worse if the Chicago Park district and the Illinois Emergency Relief commission took the same stand as the city regarding their WPA projects employing 18,000 persons.

Oscar E. Hewitt, city commissioner of public works, informed WPA officials that he had been advised he could not sign the new contract which is being offered to local governmental officials throughout the country by the WPA.

Corporation Counsel's Ruling.

"A city official could not sign the contract," said Corporation Counsel Barnet Hodes, "because he would be agreeing to provide an indefinite amount of money when no money has been appropriated for the purpose. State law prohibits such an agreement."

State Senator Harold G. Ward, Democratic floor leader, said Gov. Horner might be asked to call a special session of the legislature to increase state funds for relief. He said that Cook county members of the assembly foresaw in June the present relief deficit and proposed an appropriation of $4,000,000 a month. The bill was stricken from the calendar in favor of one giving $3,000,000.

Parolee Held in $20,000 Bonds for Two Holdups

Albert Zuris, 37 years old, a paroled convict, was held to the grand jury in bonds of $20,000 yesterday by Judge George B. Weiss after he waived examination on two robbery charges. He collapsed sobbing as his detention was ordered. Zuris, a former fireman, who in 1929 was awarded the Lambert Tree gold medal for rescuing a woman from a burning building, was paroled from Joliet penitentiary on Feb. 29, 1936, after serving one year of a one to fourteen year sentence for robbery. He was arrested last Aug. 21 on charges of robbing loop stores.

1937 PERSONALTY TAX SCHEDULES GOING INTO MAIL

Personal property tax schedules for 1937 are now being mailed to all Cook county taxpayers, Assessor John S. Clark announced yesterday. All of the 850,000 schedules are expected to be in the mail within three weeks. Already 220,000 have gone to the country towns.

The assessor also said that 1937 real estate schedules will be ready to go out next Jan. 1, with the expectation that all bills will be mailed on time by May 1 next year, one month ahead of the penalty deadline. A penalty of 1 per cent a month was imposed yesterday on all 1936 taxes paid at the county treasurer's office following the deadline Tuesday. Today a 2 per cent penalty goes into effect.

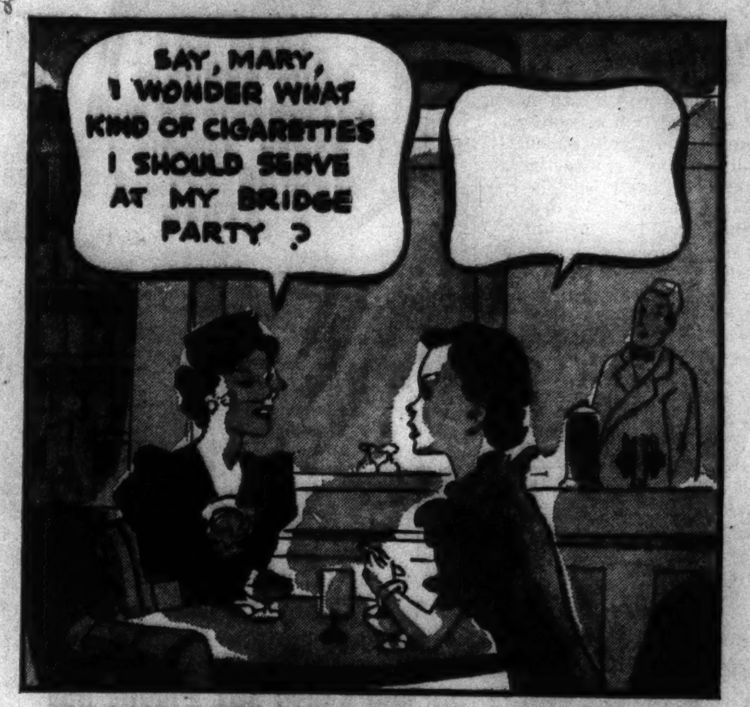
THIS IS A SAMPLE CARTOON

(It is used only for the purpose of explaining how you can enter and win in this contest. Read explanation below.)



SAY, MARY, I WONDER WHAT KIND OF CIGARETTES I SHOULD SERVE AT MY BRIDGE PARTY ?

YOU SUPPLY THE REPLY FOR THE EMPTY BALLOON

HERE is what you do to win in this contest. Just study the conversation in the cartoon, and then YOU SUPPLY THE REPLY FOR THE EMPTY BALLOON.

Or, Mary might say:

Mary might say:

"Get Old Golds. They're always fresh. They'll please everybody."

There are so many things that Mary could reply that it seems almost needless to give any more examples. For instance, Mary might very well make any of the following these replies:

"My choice is Old Golds. They're always fresh, always Double-Mellow."

There is nothing hard about this contest. Almost anybody can think of dozens of things that Mary would reply. And it's the same with all of the Official Cartoons in this contest. Just study the picture and the conversation and supply your own, original reply for the blank balloon. That's all there is to it.

Under each of the Official Cartoons you will find suggestions to help you write the missing conversation for the empty balloon.

RESETTLEMENT UNIT ACTIVITIES AGAIN REDUCED

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—For the second time within a year Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace today revised the Resettlement administration, one of the most grandiose of the administration's ventures into the more abundant life.

The secretary today revised the duties and the name of the administration, created by Dr. Rexford Guy Tugwell at the height of his career as No. 1 brain truster. Secretary Wallace said from today on the unit is to be known as the Farm Security administration and will be empowered to administer the Bankhead-Jones farm tenancy act.

Under Prof. Tugwell the RA started out with 90 million dollars to spend in a fourfold program he envisioned to make over America and spent in all about 250 millions. The first of the unit's functions was rural relief, the making of small grants to distressed farmers and rehabilitation loans for improvement of the farms of selected clients.

Called for Land Purchases.

The second of its functions—the land use program—called for the purchase and use of 10,000,000 acres of submarginal land. The third and fourth functions were the rural and suburban resettlement programs, under which large numbers of workers and farmers were to be transplanted to areas selected as more desirable by the No. 1 brain truster, such as his pet colony at nearby Greenbelt, Md.

A year ago today the administration recognized the program as a failure and began a drastic curtailment. Thirty projects were dropped and cuts were ordered in loans and personnel.

To Make Tenancy Loans.

Today Wallace announced that under its new name the unit will administer the farm tenancy act and rehabilitation loans. Under the act the secretary is authorized to lend $10,000,000 in the first year of its operation to farm tenants to help them buy farms and to spend another $10,000,000 in the retirement of submarginal land.

"Tugwell Town," the Resettlement's most ambitious project at Greenbelt, Md., is like a ghost town of the western boom mining areas. Eighteen months after the doors of its 875 houses and apartments, constructed at a cost of $14,500,000 were to have swung open, the town of 2,625 [prospective] souls remains tenantless.

Persistent reports have it that Edward A. Filene, Boston financier and philanthropist, who is close to the administration, may take over the model village. It would be operated by the Consumers Distributing corporation, which is a Filene corporation. If the town is let to Filene rents are expected to be far greater than those Tugwell planned to set.

BRITISH WARSHIP RACES TO QUELL MUTINY ON LINER

LONDON, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Reports of near mutiny aboard the South African steamer Sherard Osborn sent the British flotilla leader Broke speeding from Plymouth today to investigate. Both the admiralty and Lloyd's received messages. Lloyd's radioed report described trouble amounting "almost to mutiny."

The British steamer Viscount said the Sherard Osborn was seeking aid from the British warship Resolution, but had been unable to contact the latter because of interference. The Viscount message said:

"Trouble aboard Osborn. Almost mutiny and sabotage."

The Osborn, 1,481 tons, is registered at Cape Town and was bound from Table bay to Rotterdam. It left Madeira on Aug. 25. The vessel is described as one of the oldest ships afloat. It was built in 1877 and was one of the ships which went to the rescue of the Titanic.

Convicted City Embezzler Loses Plea for New Trial

Judge Robert Jerome Dunne in Criminal court yesterday denied a motion for a new trial in behalf of Timothy F. Donohue, 34 years old, who was convicted recently of embezzling $2,767 in city funds during his employment as cashier at the city water bureau. Judge Dunne said he would rule on a motion for probation today. Donohue, who lives at 9023 Maryland avenue and was a city employé for 11 years, faces a sentence of 1 to 15 years in the penitentiary.

Bandit Gets $35 in Cafe While 40 Customers Eat

There were 40 diners in a Thompson restaurant at 75 West Monroe street last evening when a robber presented a note demanding money to the cashier, Miss Dorothy Letter, 58 West Burton place. Miss Letter handed the bandit $35. He turned and flourished a pistol at the diners, then walked backward to the door and escaped.

Hollywood, Cal., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Roy Randolph, 32, a motion picture dance director, was acquitted today of a statutory charge involving Charlotte Sweet, 17, a Chicago high school girl, in Superior court.

Judge A. S. Scott pointed out that California law is well established and that today's case appeared to be a "small Pantages case."

"This is simply another case of a little girl coming out to find out about Hollywood," Judge Scott said in part.

Under examination by his attorney, Randolph denied the girl's previous testimony that on the night of June 26 he twice raped her at his Beverly Hills apartment.

RAPE STORY HOAX TO PROTECT HER LOVER, SAYS GIRL

The story told Monday by a girl, 17 years old, that a red headed men raped her near her home, caused delegations of Jefferson Park citizens to demand additional police protection of Capt. Herbert Burns.

Yesterday the girl, June Zuber, 6029 Northwest highway, confessed to Sergt. Ignatius Brandt that the rape story was a hoax. She told it, the girl said, to protect her lover, because she thought she was to become a mother.

Police arrested the man she named, Harold Johnson, 20, of 5729 North Mulligan avenue, who said he would marry Miss Zuber. The girl said the red hair of the imagined rapist which she showed police was cut from the head of her sister's doll.

FIND 35,000 YEAR OLD HUT.

MOSCOW, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Soviet archeologists today reported the discovery of a prehistoric dwelling made of clay which they estimated as 35,000 years old. They found bone and flint implements, including arrowheads. The discovery was made at Kostenka, Voronezh province.

PRIZE CONTESTS TO MARK FARM WEEK FESTIVAL

Charter Jubilee Program to Open Sept. 12.

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Plans for the farm week festival to be held as a part of Chicago's Charter Jubilee program were announced yesterday by the agricultural committee, headed by C. V. Gregory.

The farm program will begin with thanksgiving services in Stagg field at 2:30 p. m., Sunday, Sept. 12, and will last until Saturday, Sept. 18. The farm and farm life parade will be held Sept. 13, featuring farm animals and field and garden products. The jubilee fiddle and square dance contest will be held in Grant park on the third day.

Pulling Contest Planned.

The jubilee horse and mule pulling contest plans were announced yesterday by Wayne Dinsmore, secretary of the Horse and Mule Association of America. Cash prizes totaling $650 are offered to the winners. Pairs of draft horses or mules weighing 3,000 pounds and over will be eligible to compete. Prizes range from $50 to $200.

Mr. Dinsmore, who has charge of the contest, which starts at 1:30 p. m., will be one of the judges along with E. T. Robbins, University of Illinois, and Prof. James G. Fuller, University of Wisconsin.

15,000 to Attend Picnic.

Members of the 4-H farm boys' and girls' clubs in the thirty-three counties that constitute the Chicago milk shed will be entertained by the jubilee committee. Friday, Sept. 17, will be pure milk farm day. Plans are being made for 15,000 members of the Pure Milk association to hold an all day picnic in Grant park. Various contests will be held in Soldiers' field in the afternoon, including competitions in milking, hog and husband calling, rolling pin throwing, post driving, and horse shoe pitching.

Mayor Kelly said that the farm week is set aside as one of the most important of Chicago's Charter Jubilee, in order to honor those to whom, to a considerable extent, Chicago's size and importance as a trading center is due. The jubilee closes officially Oct. 9.

Investigator Held to Jury on Tax Collection Charge

Joseph Murray, 30 years old, 2416 North Le Claire avenue, an investigator for the state finance department, was held in bond of $500 yesterday by United States Commissioner Edwin K. Walker on charges of impersonating a government officer. Murray was arrested after Mrs. Augusta Schmehil, owner of a tavern at 2418 Linden place, complained that he collected $10 from her by representing himself as a tax collector. Murray denied the charge, insisting he gave her a ticket for violating the state sales tax law.

MRS. STERN, DAUGHTER OF ROSENWALD, WINS DIVORCE AND CHILDREN

Mrs. Marion R. Stern, daughter of the late Julius Rosenwald, philanthropist and capitalist, was granted an uncontested divorce yesterday by Judge Ralph J. Dady of the Lake County Circuit court at Waukegan from Alfred K. Stern, chairman of the Illinois housing commission. The ground was desertion.

Mrs. Stern, represented by Attorneys Herbert Lautman of Chicago and Sidney H. Block of Waukegan, received custody of the two children, Alfred R., 15 years old, and Adele R., 11. They live at 1701 South Sheridan road, Ravinia. Mrs. Stern waived alimony, her bill explaining that she and her husband have independent estates.

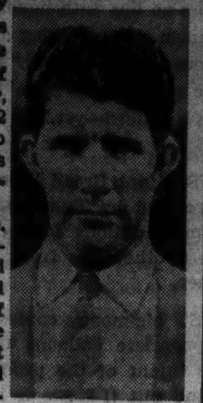
The decree provided that Stern could visit the children and have them with him during part of their vacations. Mr. and Mrs. Stern also are to consult on the children's education and medical care.

She Dies in Airplane on Way Home to Denver

Denver, Colo., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Death came to Mrs. Grace A. Carroll of this city in a plane high over Nebraska today. The wife of W. B. Carroll, she was being returned to her home from Rochester, Minn., where she received hospital treatment. Her husband and a nurse were with her as she died, near Grand Island, Neb., a refueling stop.

FREE HAZELWOOD OF RAPE-MURDER CHARGE IN SOUTH

Hendersonville, N. C., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—T. D. Hazelwood, former Butler university athlete who was charged with the rape-murder of his stepdaughter, Gloria Hauser, 12 years old, two weeks ago, was released from custody today.



T. D. Hazelwood.

Solicitor C. O. Ridings, announced he had decided to nol pros charges of statutory rape and murder that had been filed against Hazelwood on the complaint of Coroner Bruce Cox.

Ridings said there were only a few circumstances to support the warant and no concrete evidence.

The announcement was made in a courtroom where Coroner Cox had reconvened an inquest jury originally called together last Saturday.

Hazelwood, third husband of the former Maxine Dollman of Indianapolis, made no public comment concerning Gloria's death except to declare after his arrest that the charge against him were "preposterous."

CLOSE BANK IN FUND SHORTAGE; OFFICIAL FLEES

Charles Town, W. Va., Sept. 1.—(AP)—The board of directors closed the Farmers Bank and Trust company today and turned it over to the state banking commissioner because of "gross irregularities on the part of Assistant Cashier J. Richard Russell."

Russell, former mayor, was charged with embezzlement in a warant issued by Magistrate James A. Smith. Bank officials said he had left the city. A shortage was discovered Monday by examiners.

Meanwhile, at nearby Martinsburg, Brown Hendricks found the body of his father, Gilbert H. Hendricks, a director of the bank, in a parked automobile. Physicians attributed death to a heart ailment.

DELIVERS TWINS AFTER DEATH OF A TEXAS MOTHER

Kingsville, Tex., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Dr. D. A. Harrison yesterday performed a posthumous Cæsarean operation upon a tenant farmer's wife and delivered twins, who still are alive today.

The mother, Mrs. George Conde, 41, died of heart failure. The twins are a boy weighing 4 pounds 4 ounces and a girl weighing 5 pounds 8 ounces.

Dr. Harrison said, "As far as I know, this is the first successful operation of the kind in medical history."

Dr. C. M. Carrithers assisted in the operation, performed in the Kleberg County hospital.

THIS IS THE STORY OF JIM AND JOE

TWO GENTLEMEN WE KNOW YOU KNOW

Joe, in a hurry, forgot last night
To service his car—now see his plight!

But Jimmy, the one with face aglow,

So he stopped at STANDARD for Iso=Vis
And decided to see if more was amiss.

Yes—plugs were faulty, lights were dim,
The air in his tires was kinda slim.

So the station man fixed this and that—
Put everything right in nothing flat.

Now he's rolling—he'll get where he's going
While Joe, at the roadside, is certainly showing

Why those who go places this Labor Day
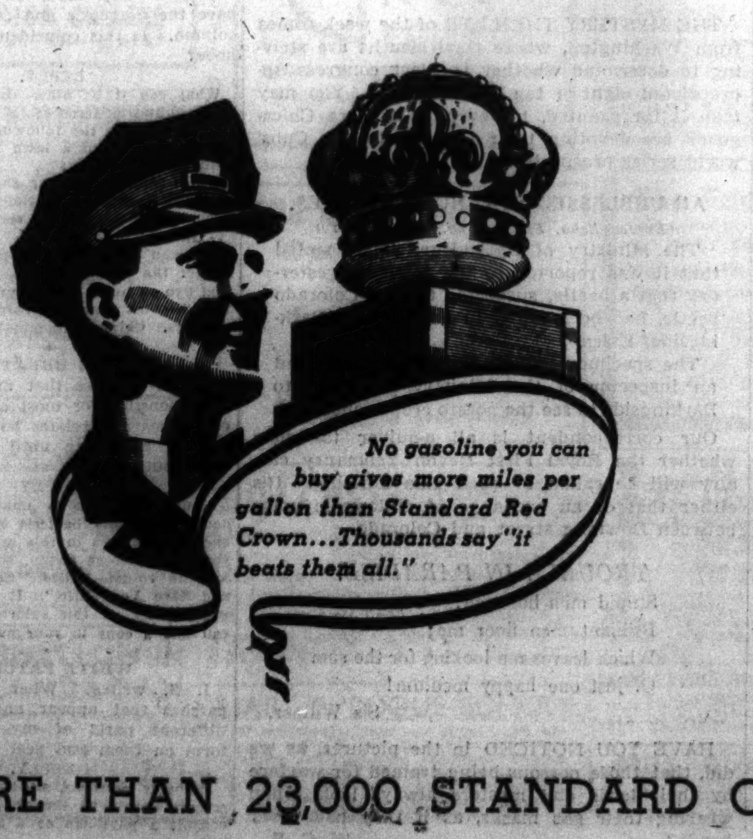
Should "STANDARDIZE" 'ere they get under way.



No gasoline you can buy gives more miles per gallon than Standard Red Crown... Thousands say "it beats them all."

HINT Your car has led a strenuous life this summer. Is it up to the additional work you'll demand of it this Labor Day week-end?

There's one way to be sure—let a Standard Oil Dealer check it over. If it needs no more than a clean windshield, water for the battery and radiator, air for the tires and such things, he'll fix you up without a penny's cost.

But if the tires are worn—if oil needs changing—if the car needs chassis lubrication, if spark plugs or headlight bulbs should be replaced, have the work done by all means, and, of course, fill up with Standard Red Crown Gasoline. The good service and supplies you get under the Standard Service Sign will make your trip more enjoyable and less costly.

THE KISS OF THE RED BEAR.

New Yorkers in particular and many Americans in general may be astonished to find that communism is in the front of the New York primary election for candidates for mayor, and no amount of denials and protestations can keep it out.

Probably the only element thoroughly pleased with the situation is the communist party itself. It has walked right in and is not turning around to walk right out again.

Mayor La Guardia, who has the support of the New York communists, scolds them roundly and says they know what he thinks of them, but Earl Browder and his communist party associates remain quite serene. They like Mr. La Guardia and if he says he doesn't like them that is of small concern to them.

The communist party as such, unaided by any political developments which they could not themselves create, would be a harmless nonentity in the New York elections. If they had a candidate nobody would pay any attention to him except the communists themselves.

Communists have been on the ballots in many states many times. There are odd organizations which manage to put up tickets even in presidential elections, and the voter must be taken by surprise when he sees how many parties there can be in a country supposed to be governed under the two party system.

Communism is an issue in New York in this election because radicals, semi-Socialists and Socialists have created conditions which Mr. Browder and his friends recognize as distinctly advantageous. Mayor La Guardia and his fusion support present a popular front political party in which Mr. Browder recognizes the true germ of the Moscow ideal.

They recognize that Mr. La Guardia's election will be a step in the direction of communism. Every man with a grain of sense will recognize the same thing. A vote for La Guardia is a vote for communism.

SPENDING MELLON'S MILLIONS.

We confess a kindred feeling for Anne Jesty Rogers, who writes today in the Voice of the People of what she might do if she had all of Andrew Mellon's millions. We, too, have had our dreams of what we might accomplish if we were suddenly endowed with a few hundred millions, although we never envisioned so magnificent a philanthropy as giving every family in the country $35 a week.

Mrs. Rogers, it is evident, is no professional Share the Wealth-er. She confesses that her happy idea may be impractical and just a wild dream. This would be a less contentious world if some of our other Utopians salted their schemes with similar reasonable doubt.

Consulting our standby on American incomes, the reports of the Brookings Institution, we find that in the boom year, 1929, there were 11,533,000 families in the United States receiving less than $1,500 a year. To boost their incomes to $1,820 a year, or $35 a week, would require, at a very rough calculation, $907 a family, or $10,454,310,000 a year. Put to that laudable purpose the half billion dollars which represents the presumed peak of Mellon wealth would last just two and a half weeks.

Anyway, Mrs. Rogers, it is a nice idea, and does credit to your generosity.

FEDERAL INEQUITIES.

An official of the Victor Chemical company explains that the report of its plant extension in Tennessee rather than in the Chicago area was in part in error. The site selection was not due to cheap TVA power. The intention was to build in Tennessee, supplementing the Nashville plant with one in the southern part of the state. The TVA power contract was accepted because the Tennessee Electric company would not make rates comparable with the federal government rates. It would not because a taxed private enterprise cannot stand up against a subsidized governmental enterprise.

If the Victor company cares to do so it can regard the TVA benevolence as just so much cut off its taxes. The Tennessee company must regard the loss of the contract as just so much taken away from its federal taxation and its ability to pay local taxes and, moreover, just so much added to the difficulty in keeping its head above water. Through taxes the private company is helping support another private company the business of which it lost because of a federal authority it helps support.

The inequities of the planned society are monumental and the place begins to look like a cemetery in which fair dealing in a thousand shapes is buried. In housing, in loans, in subsidies, in social security, in labor relations, in things done and things proposed the federal government arbitrarily discriminates in favor of one person and against another. It gives to one and makes the other pay for the gift.

When Mr. Roosevelt vetoed a flood control bill he said he proposed to present to congress in January a comprehensive national plan which would be thoroughly democratic. He intends the creation of seven more TVA's to cover the country. Presently with a 40 billion dollar debt there will be no taxpayers. The tax eaters will have taken the last one.

BAD FAITH AND THE PENALTIES.

Arthur Willert [Sir Arthur at home] is an English newspaper man who was publicity agent for the British foreign office, has been Washington correspondent for the London Times, and is now a recognized spokesman on the unofficial side for the British government. What he has to say about China is not simply an expression of an able journalist. It may be taken as something from the feed box.

He says that the shooting of the British ambassador and the ungracious pettifogging way in which the Japanese so far have treated the incident symbolizes for the British the disconcerting change in the balance of power in the Pacific.

He says that the disconcerting change "really took place when Sir John Simon threw cold water on former Secretary of State Stimson's suggestion for a strong Anglo-American stand to pr[illegible] China when Japan first began to slice a piece off in 1932. But it has taken the events of the last month to make us realize that Japan is getting ready to dominate the far east just as Germany and Italy are trying to dominate Europe."

The confession of error comes too late. Europe should have saved this situation in 1932 when Secretary Stimson was betrayed into thinking that the treaty protecting China meant something. If Great Britain had supported him, it is highly probable that the other nations obligated by the treaty would have done so, and Japanese ambitions, which in the long run are for the control of China, would have been checked and might have been modified.

The British deserted the American state department with the evasive policy of acting through the already crippled and futile league of nations. All the league did was to putter around with an investigation and allow itself to be bluffed by the Japanese delegates who walked out and took Japan out of the league of nations.

That was the turning point. It is not to say that America has not been and will not be duped again, but the lesson sank in deeply and it is being remembered today. The British now say that European complications must engross nearly all their efforts. They cannot do much in the far east although they have the concessions, possessions, and naval bases, and in them an advantage the United States has not. Undoubtedly they want the United States to assume chief responsibility for occidental interests in China.

It is apparent that the present Japanese movement is on a large scale. It is aimed at the complete domination of China and the exclusion of non-Asiatics. It threatens the great British interests in Hongkong and Canton. Great Britain at home is checkmated by Italy and Germany. America has no interests in China which could possibly justify a war now. The United States would have been willing to protect the treaty in 1932 if it had not been left all alone to make a protest. When the Japanese discovered that obstruction to their plans was a fiction, and that the treaty they had signed had been torn up, they could proceed with their major strategy and they have never desisted from that time to this.

If this is to mean the exclusion of occidental interests and influence in China, it is not the fault of the United States, and it is too late now to talk of a determined front against Japanese aggression. The British have much to lose; the United States has comparatively little. We are getting out of the Philippines and should get out much more rapidly than is now proposed. The Filipinos asked for whatever they will get and the sooner the American military forces are brought home or stationed at Hawaii, the better it will be for America.

The old days when western capital went along with western privileges and territorial concessions in the far east may be coming to an end. One of history's great make-overs may be beginning. The governments of Europe have dealt with each other and with the United States in such complete faithlessness that they have made their exclusion from Asia possible, probable, or inevitable. Their justification for being in China was only their power to stay there. They are losing that and the fault is theirs.

NINE MEN AND ONE MAN.

From those radical elements that are continuing to blaze away at the Supreme court we hear it reiterated again and again that the court has too much power to be intrusted to any nine men, even lawyers.

At this juncture there comes up the collateral proposition which, placed in interrogative form, asks whether the presidency of the United States, with the powers it has latterly assumed and with the White House insistence that the Supreme court be reduced to a group of yes men, has not too much power to be intrusted to one man, even a so-called superman.

If nine men shall not be given such power is it logical that one man may properly have it?

Editorial of the Day

NO ALMERIA FOR AMERICANS.

[The Kansas City Star.]

An American sailor has now been killed in line of duty at Shanghai. Very properly the United States government has instructed its officials on the scene to investigate the shelling of the cruiser Augusta and suggest what action should be taken. But, fortunately for every one concerned, the United States is a democracy. Its policies are not determined by some militaristic dictator obsessed with the belief that the only way to deal with such a tragedy is by ruthless retaliation.

Therefore, whatever our investigators discover and recommend, the world may be sure that the United States navy will not be ordered forthwith to bombard some Japanese port hundreds of miles from Shanghai [as was done by the Germans in bombarding Almeria, Spain], murdering women and children who probably would not even know of the death of Freddie John Falgout on the Augusta, much less be conceivably responsible for it. Nor will the United States government declare war on China.

No decent American citizen will feel that in exercising such restraint the government is betraying the honor of his country. Our position in the world is not such that we must regard every incident of this kind as a mortal affront, to be purged only by another shelling of Almeria. Nor is our moderation likely to be mistaken by either Japan or China as national cowardice, inviting further contempt for American life. One of the great benefits of democracy is that it permits a nation under such circumstances to behave in a civilized manner without losing "face."

And then with eager feet I run
To try them for you one by one,
Knowing that some sound I heard
Will sing for you beyond my word.

FIDDLESTICKS OF FORMULA.

One of our myths is that simple formulas can be found to settle our most important problems. Frinstance, the pacifists of the world have been arguing for years that disarmament would guarantee peace, and conversely that armament brings on war. A sifting of the thought indicates that it all depends on what your armament's for. It is unquestionably in the interest of peoples whose ancestors won them ample patrimonies by war to love peace and to arm only to maintain it. Vide England, the United States, France. The other side of the picture shows Germans, Italians, and Japanese as strong peoples who believe themselves unfairly treated and are arming for conquest. Our pacifists should, logically, urge huge defensive appropriations on the first group and a turn-the-cheek policy for the second. But pacifists, like Dr. Sangrado, are committed to their own beliefs even if they know these are wrong.

HAVE YOU NOTICED in the pictures, as we did, that those persons being trained for warfare by their lords and masters always look, when wearing their gas masks, as if they had asses' heads? W. C. S.

How to Keep Well By Dr. Irving S. Cutter

To the limit of space questions pertaining to hygiene and prevention of disease will be answered in this column. Personal replies will be made to inquiries, under proper limitations, when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Dr. Cutter will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

HOW THE LUNGS AVOID DUST

NATURE does her best to protect the members of the human family against filling the lungs with dust. Tiny hairs growing at the entrance of the nostrils and the moist nasal mucous membranes extract great quantities from the inhaled air. On a windy day, just blow the nose with a clean handkerchief and note the blackened character of the discharge. All of these particles would have reached the bronchi and the lungs were it not for the filtering function of the nasal mucosa.

There are circumstances in which the respiratory apparatus is powerless, because the air is too heavily loaded with dust. For the last two or three years certain sections of the west have suffered severe dust-storms; and airplane pilots have encountered highly charged atmosphere from 10,000 to 15,000 feet above the earth. In one area on only thirteen days out of sixty-eight was the air clear enough for normal breathing.

The striking thing about these storms is that the effect upon human beings is largely due to mechanical irritation. No evidence was discovered that disease producing bacteria were carried. But there followed in every instance an increased number of nasal, bronchial, and lung infections due to the fact that the sensitive mucous lining was definitly inflamed, furnishing a soil upon which organisms already present in the air passages could grow.

Obviously in afflicted regions it is necessary to do something to combat the menace, and the best remedy is to dustproof the home with glass-cloth. The procedure is carried out by covering the window frames with this material, pasting down the edges with adhesive tape. The cost is relatively low, rarely exceeding $3 or $4 per house. In addition, it is sometimes necessary for the people to wear gauze masks over the nose and throat, which are more efficient if they are kept damp.

There are types of powdery atoms that are known to cause irritation. We are familiar with hay fever and asthma which develop in sensitive individuals whenever certain pollen is inhaled. Many varieties, however, are nontoxic—for example, fine bits of carbon [soot], which may pass the nose, throat, and bronchial tubes and lodge in the lungs without the slightest damage.

Again, some kinds are explosive, particularly that from coal, wood, cork, cotton, starch, rice, sugar, grain, and dust from flour mills, grain elevators, and many other sources. When any of these materials reaches the right concentration, a spark or flame may result in a powerful explosion.

If dust contains a high percentage of silica we are faced with a more serious problem. But even this situation has been magnified in some quarters. It has been learned that pure silica particles may bring on fibrosis of the lungs [pneumoconiosis], but if they are mixed with other substances little damage will ensue. Much will depend upon: first, the percentage of silica; second, the duration of exposure, and, third, the size of the particles.

Fortunately, the lung tissue possesses remarkable tolerance, but we can readily see that, if the concentration is high enough and the exposure is continued long enough, some injury may follow. As a rule the size of the specks exceeds that which produces irritation within the lungs.

Under ordinary conditions very little of the foreign matter which is breathed reaches the large bronchial tubes. Even when the individual is a mouth breather the larger portion is caught on the mucous lining of the throat or the trachea. Dirt particles reaching the bronchi are likely to be engulfed by the large white cells from the blood which are thrown off the surface and expectorated. This accounts for the grayish streaks or dark spots frequently appearing in sputum. It is only when these specks are able to get through the protective mucous lining and reach the lymph spaces that they become dangerous.

From the standpoint of the home, vacuum cleaners have proved a real boon, although fibers from carpets, curtains, and furniture, as well as grime blown into the house from the street, rarely cause trouble unless one is peculiarly susceptible. But in crowded places or constantly occupied rooms these floating bits of material may become bacteria carriers. Hence, as a hygienic measure, we should avoid a sooty atmosphere.

Furthermore, the cleaner we can keep the nasal passages the better able they will be to filter out noxious fragments. Incidentally, persons with chronic respiratory diseases should, if possible, remove from areas in which dust-storms occur and avoid employment in dusty environments.

CHIGGER TROUBLE.

C. W. writes: If on Monday I have a misery of any kind, on Tuesday you have the diagnosis and remedy in your column. Is this coincidence or clairvoyance?

REPLY.

What can it be other than second sight or thought transference?

C. M. appends the following plaint, for he has a garden and a lawn and is bothered with chigger spiders:

When I venture out for garden sass,
Or fruit to make a luscious berry pie,
From every blade and spear and leaf of grass,
They leap upon this helpless passerby.
Rather the screened porch, the closed door,
And live on husks and water evermore!

MOUTH BREATHING.

W. F. believes that mouth breathing is responsible for most of our catarrhal conditions and relates how he found relief by practicing until he could keep the mouth closed.

REPLY.

Mouth breathing is unhealthful and no doubt numerous bacteria reach the throat and air passages in this manner. Some 70 years ago George Catlin, the painter, wrote a little volume called "Shut Your Mouth and Save Your Life." It is an interesting commentary on this subject. Perhaps you can find a copy in your public library.

WHITE PATCHES.

I. S. writes: What are the white patches that appear and disappear on different parts of my body? Scales form on them and peel off.

REPLY.

Probably psoriasis, although some form of eczema should be thought of. You should consult a physician or a skilled dermatologist.

EXECUTION SALE.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—I bought 17 acres of land in 1933 from Mr. A, who died in 1934. In April, 1936, I built a home on this 17 acres. I was notified in May, 1936, that there was a deficiency decree awarded against Mr. A, that the execution was filed in 1931. At that time Mr. A owned 117 acres of land, 100 acres of which Mr. A deeded to his brothers just before he died in 1934.

1. The execution [lien] was sold at a sherif's sale in April, 1937, [2] for $1,200, the original lien being $750.

3. The same party who put it up for sale bought it back.

4. Could the holder of the lien stop me from moving the home I built if I did not redeem this from the execution sale? I could move my home a hundred feet and it would be on my other land. I have a waranty deed, but Mr. A left nothing but an insurance policy that is now used up, and this 100 acres he deeded to his brothers.

5. Is there any possibility that I might recover some from the 100 acres if this was all redeemed?

6. Since I own 17 acres of the 117, how would this be divided if we were to redeem, since B owns 30 acres, C owns 30, and D owns 40 acres? Since the lien was for $750 and was sold for $1,200, [7] is this legal? I have been told that this execution was not satisfied.

8. How long can the buyer hold this without paying? Could he wait the 15 months?

9. Am I supposed to be notified who bought this lien? A. B.

1. We assume that you mean that the property was sold at execution sale.

2. It seems probable that the court records would show how this amount was made up.

3. This is the usual procedure.

4. Yes.

5. In general, a conveyance by way of gift can be set aside as fraud on the rights of existing creditors. We advise you to go over your facts in a personal interview with an attorney.

6. We cannot advise without having the facts more clearly before us. If you contemplate a redemption you should employ an attorney to examine the records of the proceedings.

7. See 2.

8. We do not understand the question.

9. Same.

MELLON'S MILLIONS.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—I wager there isn't a person living who read in the morning paper of Andrew Mellon's millions who didn't immediately plan what he or she would do if they had that much. I planned a Utopian scheme that may have no practical side whatever, but if worked out would solve the unhappy problem of the world.

Here 'tis: To give each salaried man not less than $35 a week. Our happiest families are the $35 a week kind—they can't starve on that. Give them a home, a garden, a car so they can work off unnecessary steam.

Thirty-five a week would make it possible for many lovers to marry who otherwise would have to wait till they were too old to enjoy life. This may be a wild dream, but if it could be worked out it would bring happiness to millions.

ANNE JESTY ROGERS.

THEY'RE ALL WEEDS TO THE WPA.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—We just had the pleasure of having a WPA crew clean our neigborhood of vegetation. Of course their intentions were appreciated, but on the two adjoining lots on each side of our house considerable time and effort have been dispensed since early spring keeping all weeds pulled out and nursing young saplings, grapevines [which, incidentally, were just loaded with green fruit], elderberry, gooseberry, and raspberry bushes. Flowers were also planted and in bloom at the time of their visit. Today we have this same ground, but all its beauty is gone. We pleaded with the superintendent of the crew to leave this section alone, but all he did was produce a chart to show property to be cleaned, and proceeded to follow out orders.

It really is too bad that these men are lacking in common sense, or is this an example of what our administration calls "progress"? G. H. F.

THE NAVY IN CHINA.

Chicago, Aug. 25.—Quoting from today's TRIBUNE on the far east situation: "The United States destroyer Parrott was caught in an artillery fusillade today and driven from its post off Gough Island, where it was guarding the Texas company oil plant near the mouth of the Whangpoo river . . . as the . . . shells began falling . . . the skipper shouted the command to "Push off," and the destroyer sped . . . up the river to the . . . Socony-Vacuum docks, where the destroyer Edsall was standing by."

From the above it is quite evident what our military and naval forces are doing in China. It is high time complacent parents of military aged youth are reminded why we have foreign wars and what we are heading into.

EXAMINATION OF FOOD HANDLERS.

Elkhart, Ind., Aug. 24.—Noticing the letter about better dishwashing in eating and drinking places appearing in the Voice of the People column, it occurs to me, since the drive is on to stamp out venereal diseases, it would be in line to provide for the examination of all employés working in places where food and drink are served.

H. A. K.

WE WON'T ADVERTISE HIM.

———, Ind., Aug. 23.—I read THE TRIBUNE every day and I have noticed that every so often there is an item that deals with the number of couples that come to Indiana to obtain marriage licenses.

The number from Illinois has increased our issue here nearly 1,000 per cent and the number is increasing every week.

One couple asked me if I demanded a doctor's certificate and after telling them that Indiana law does not require this they told that they had their certificate and upon telling them I was glad that they could pass this test they told me that they did not pass any test, but only gave a doctor ten dollars and he made them out a certificate without passing any test.

Is this the result of Illinois' new law?

Personally I am very much in favor of such a law in Indiana, but inasmuch as we have no such law here, I am going to continue to marry all who are issued licenses in Indiana, whether they are from Illinois or any other state.

Illinois does not refuse to sell liquor to Indiana residents and for this reason I see no reason to refuse to marry Illinois residents.

Yours for more business.

DOG POISONERS.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—The writer has just witnessed the death of his fine Irish setter dog from an oversized dose of poison, evidently submitted in the absence of the family while the animal was in the back yard of our home. Major was not blue ribbon stock, but true blue all of the way, though, and the constant guard and companion of two little boys who cannot realize that in this world are people mean and rotten enough to take his life. My only hope is that in the hereafter there is a place of special torture for this outcast brand of humanity.

CARL WILDEY.

BABIES AND DOGS.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—It appears to me that the stealing of that baby last week was a very good warning to most mothers. I work in a tavern on State street just a few doors from a chain store, and have seen mothers day in and day out do their shopping and leave their babies in buggies outside, sometimes as long as a half hour.

I've seen some of these same mothers go to the store with their dogs, but I've never yet seen one leave the dog outside.

H. D. BERNERO.

TO SAVE THE ROBINS.

Chicago, Aug. 26.—In reply to boys killing robins. There is a law against boys using guns for such purposes, and if you will call the Chicago Anti-Cruelty society, 157 West Grand avenue, I feel sure you will get action on it immediately before the young devils do any more damage or cause any more suffering.

J. M. COLBURN.

EASTER LILIES IN AUGUST.

Chicago, Aug. 26.—Has any one ever seen Easter lilies in full bloom this time of the year? These lilies are bulbs from Easter transplanted in the back yard and are now two beautiful Easter lilies.

DE PAUL UNIVERSITY

EDUCATION THAT ENDURES

To say that education imparts knowledge . . . . that it cultivates the moral and intellectual faculties . . . that it instructs and trains—is to describe conventional education. But—

Isn't real education something more? Shouldn't it be training that teaches one to enjoy what life has given rather than to be forever discontented, wishing for the impossible? And shouldn't this training be in an environment as close as possible to the environment one will live in after schooling is finished?

And finally, shouldn't education be something with enduring qualities, something which, like an old friend, is always on hand when needed most? This is the De Paul approach to education.

TWO ATTACK OWN ELOPEMENTS AS EVASION OF LAW

Chicagoans Seek to Annul Indiana Marriages.

The annulment of two recent Crown Point elopements on the ground that the principals evaded requirements of the Illinois hygienic marriage law was sought yesterday in two bills, one filed in the Circuit and the other in Superior court.

This is the first time that evasion of the new state marriage law by elopers has been made the basis of a suit for divorce or annulment. Although some attorneys and judges have suggested in unstudied informal opinions that such evasions might make the marriages null, others believe that under the rules of interstate comity, such marriages are perfectly valid.

In one suit, Mrs. Eleanor Grove MacMillan, 16 years old, 3500 Euclid avenue, Berwyn, sets out that she married Donald MacMillan, 25, on Aug. 18, and at that time gave her age as 21. In the other, William H. Clark, 26, of 807 North Lorel avenue, states he married Jonnie Clark, 1811 Orleans street, on July 31, while on a drinking spree, and after a Waukegan justice of the peace refused to marry them because they had not complied with the Illinois hygienic marriage law.

Reflecting the increased business at Indiana's Gretna Green since Illinois adopted new marriage laws on July 1, the number of licenses issued at Crown Point in the last three months was: June, 943; July, 1,903, and August, 2,037.

Jacob Franks Estate Sued on $30,000 U. S. Tax Claim

A suit was filed in the United States District court yesterday by Assistant United States District Attorney David Bazelon against executors of the estate of Jacob Franks, who died in 1928, asking that $30,000 be paid as a deficiency corporation income tax. The suit claims that Mr. Franks, father of Bobby, Loeb-Leopold murder victim, sold the Van Buren Building corporation in 1924 for $300,000 and failed to report the sale as corporation income. The estate is being sued because Mr. Franks owned the corporation.

Jos. Applebaum, 59, Dies; Furniture Dealer 40 Years

Joseph H. Applebaum, a furniture merchant in Chicago for more than 40 years, died yesterday after a heart attack in his home at 3614 Grenshaw street. He was 59 years old. Born in Poland, he came to the United States when he was 14 years old, and at the age of 19 he was operating his own business. He is survived by two daughters and two sons. Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the chapel at 3654 Roosevelt road. Burial will be in Jewish Waldheim cemetery.

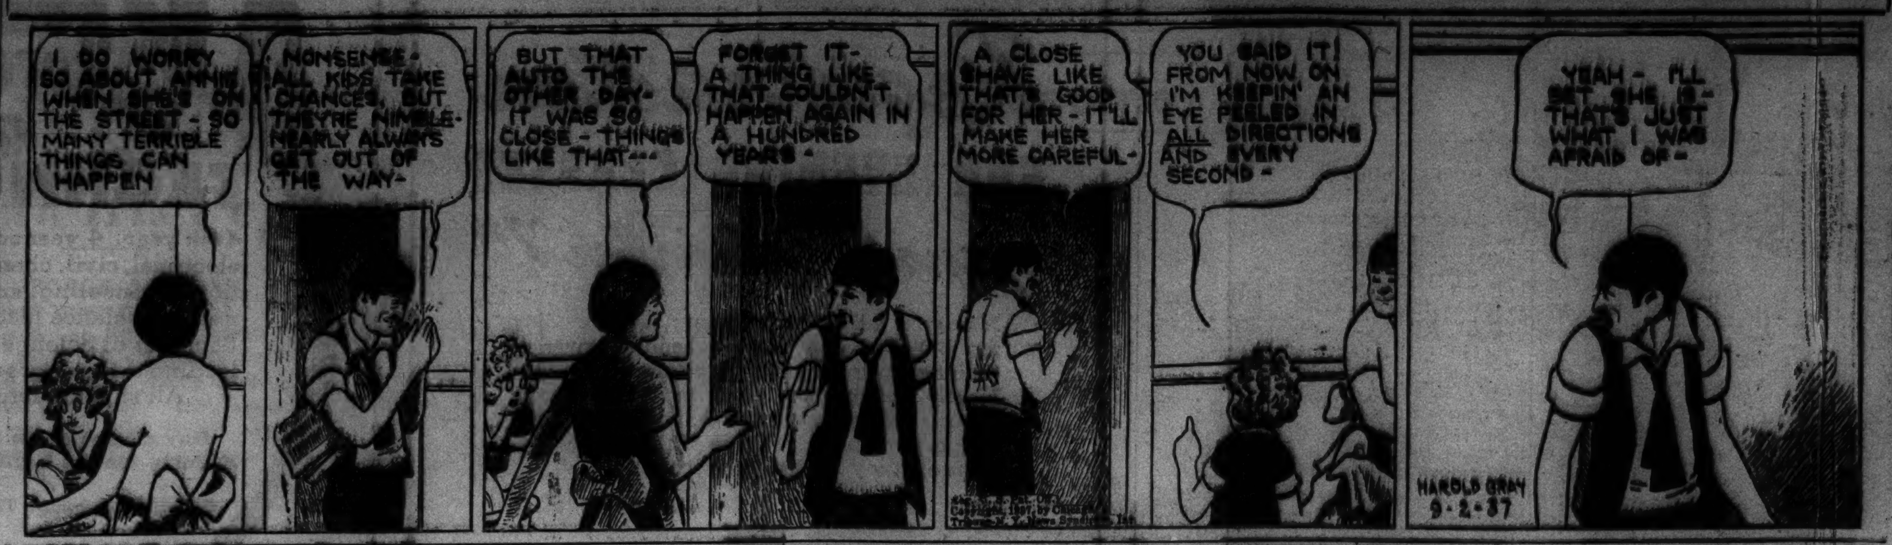
Engineer Dies of Burns Incurred in Mattress Fire

George Groeting, 27 years old, a civil engineer, died yesterday in St. Luke's hospital of burns incurred Tuesday night when the mattress on his bed at the Hart sanitorium, 3400 Michigan avenue, was ignited. Police said he apparently went to sleep while smoking in bed. His widow, Mrs. Lee Groeting, 5746 Dorchester avenue, told police he had been recuperating from a nervous breakdown.

Mrs. Amelia Sprandel, 88, Dies at Kendallville, Ind.

Kendallville, Ind., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Mrs. Amelia Sprandel, 88 years old, this city's oldest continuous resident, died at her home here today. She was confirmed in the first confirmation class of St. John's Lutheran church in 1863.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE: Once Burned



I DO WORRY SO ABOUT ANNIE WHEN SHE'S ON THE STREET - SO MANY TERRIBLE THINGS CAN HAPPEN
NONSENSE - ALL KIDS TAKE CHANCES, BUT THEY'RE NIMBLE - NEARLY ALWAYS GET OUT OF THE WAY -
BUT THAT AUTO THE OTHER DAY - IT WAS SO CLOSE - THINGS LIKE THAT - - - FORGET IT - A THING LIKE THAT COULDN'T HAPPEN AGAIN IN A HUNDRED YEARS -
A CLOSE SHAVE LIKE THAT'S GOOD FOR HER - IT'LL MAKE HER MORE CAREFUL -
YOU SAID IT! FROM NOW ON I'M KEEPIN' AN EYE PEELED IN ALL DIRECTIONS AND EVERY SECOND -

DR. G. H. SIMMONS FUNERAL RITES WILL BE TODAY

Funeral services for Dr. George H. Simmons, 85 years old, from 1899 to 1924 editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association, will be held at 2 p. m. today in the Graceland cemetery chapel.

Dr. Simmons, a leader in the development of the medical profession during his generation, died in St. Luke's hospital early yesterday after failing to rally from an operation performed last Wednesday. At his bedside was his niece, Miss Annie Nicholls, with whom he has lived in Hollywood, Fla. His wife, Kate M. Simmons, died in Chicago in 1922. There were no children.

Born in Moreton, England, Dr. Simmons came to the United States at the age of 18. He received M. D. degrees from the Hahnemann Medical college, Chicago, in 1882, and from Rush Medical college in 1892. In addition to his duties as editor of the A. M. A. Journal, with headquarters in Chicago, he was general secretary of the medical association from 1899 to 1911. He became editor and general manager emeritus of the Journal upon his retirement in 1924.

J. H. Campbell, Streator's Last Civil War Vet, Dies

Streator, Ill., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—John H. Campbell, 92 years old, last civil war veteran in this vicinity, who served in the 104th Illinois volunteer infantry, died last night at St. Mary's hospital. He was born at Uniontown, Pa., March 24, 1845, and he came to this section in 1852 by boat via the Ohio and Illinois rivers. He located near Magnolia and Ottawa before going to Streator, where he was first a carpenter, then a rural mail carrier. On July 4 last he with another civil war veteran, Thomas B. Weston, 90 years old, of Wenona, dedicated the $300,000 river bridge here.

StandardOilEngineer Dies; Blame Black Widow Spider

Roselle, N. J., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—George H. John Jr., 44 years old, a mechanical engineer associated with the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, died today of blood poisoning resulting from an infected bite, believed to have been inflicted by a black widow spider. He and his family spent their vacation at Proctor, Vt., and on Aug. 20 he was awakened during the night by a severe pain in a leg.

Chicago Veterans' Band Wins National Contest

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 1.—(AP)—With 7,000 spectators watching, the Elevator Operators and Starters' post band of Chicago tonight won the Veterans of Foreign Wars national band contest. The Elgin, Ill., post 1037 ladies' drill team took second place in the drills.

Harry McCoy, Film Actor and Director, Dead at 43

Hollywood, Cal., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Harry McCoy, 43, actor and director, and composer of "Pagan Love Song," died of heart disease here today. In the early days of motion pictures he was cast as a comedy cop and as "Hallroom Boy."

News of Radio

BY LARRY WOLTERS.

For those who missed Tommy Farr's colorful version of the king's English Monday evening, another opportunity awaits tonight. Robustious Jim Tully is to interview the Welsh fighter and his manager, Ted Broadrib, on the Rudy Vallee hour. If you tuned out Monday before Farr had his inning at the mike, here are his words: "I done my best—I got plenty of guts."

It's a pleasure to have Rube Appleberry, the demon pitcher of Quietude, Posey county, Indiana, back on the air again. Several persons have remarked in the last day or two that the author [he is Capt. Paul Fogarty] must have modeled Rube after Dizzy Dean. But the truth is that Fogarty had popularized the Rube on W-G-N before Dizzy emerged on the national scene. Perhaps Dizzy borrowed a bit from the Rube.

The Aunt Jemima show, which bowed in over NBC Tuesday, had plenty of tough luck on its pushoff. Basil Loughrane, the director, fell and cracked several ribs and was unable to direct the show. Herb Butterfield took over in his place. Then WMAQ's transmitter got temperamental and went off the air just before the broadcast, so it was not heard locally.

News Notes: Sponsor of First Nighter has named that new show which is to be introduced over NBC Monday, Sept. 20, Vanity Fair. Cal Tinney will be master of ceremonies, Bob Trendler is to make the music on at least the first show, and a young tenor, Milton Wilson, is being warmed up. Frank Moss is writing the opus. . . . Lynn Chalmers, formerly with David Broekman's orchestra in California, is the new singer with Harold Stokes and the W-G-N Dance orchestra. . . . Fred Ibbett has left Chicago to produce Hollywood Hotel in the west. He has asked Willis Cooper, former author of Lights Out, to write this show.

Mildred Bailey and Red Norvo left Chicago yesterday for Hollywood, where they are to make a guest appearance on Benny Goodman's Swing school Tuesday night. Thereupon they will open a dance engagement at the Palomar ballroom. . . . Morrison Wood, W-G-N production director, is back from a northwoods trip where he spent most of the time writing episodes of Wife vs. Secretary, which he took over from Bob Andrews recently, and his new serial Dangerous Romance, soon to be introduced on W-G-N. . . . Mark Love, W-G-N basso, is back from a look at the wonders of Alaska. . . . That new top tenor with Fred Waring is Gordon Goodman, a onetime Salt Lake City truck driver. . . . Lew Goodkind, formerly in the radio department of Lord & Thomas agency, has joined the Burnet-Kuhn Advertising company as vice president. H. G. Little is a new vice president at Lord & Thomas.

Fire Commissioner Corrigan will give a preview of the national fire fighters' tournament to be held at Soldiers' field Sunday in a talk over WLS at 11:30 a. m. today. The Magic Key will pick up a portion of Sunday's proceedings. . . . The Lanny Ross-Charlie Butterworth show, starting next Tuesday, is to be called Hollywood Mardi Gras. . . . Roger Pryor's band and Ann Sothern [Mrs. Pryor] will give the Grant park curtain raiser at 7:30 tonight. . . . Paul Whiteman presented his new All-American band last night for the first time on the air. . . . Gabriel Heatter is to replace Phil Lord as host when We the People returns to the air on Oct. 7 over CBS. . . . Sam [Schlepperman] Hearn will be a fixture on the Jack Benny show when it comes back Sunday, Oct. 3.

Miss Benedict to Bow at Tea Dance Dec. 28

BY JUDITH CASS.

ANOTHER name that belongs on the 1937-'38 debutante list is that of Miss Dorothy Benedict, daughter of Mrs. James E. Baggot Jr. Mrs. Baggot and her daughter, who just returned Tuesday from a round of visits in the east, completed plans yesterday for a tea-dance at the Arts club on Dec. 28, which will serve as pretty Miss Benedict's formal introduction to society.

This brings the list up to 49. Another debut tea-dance at the Arts club for which a definite date just has been set is the one at which Miss Gertrude Smith will be presented by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Garritt Smith. Dec. 24 is the date chosen. Miss Smith also just returned on Tuesday from a summer away. She spent July and August at the attractive summer home of her parents on Green lake in Wisconsin.

Miss Smith will not be here to enjoy all the festivities of the winter, for she is going to attend the Finch school in New York. On Sept. 13 her aunt, Miss Eleanor Roberts, is giving a luncheon for Miss Smith at the Onwentsia club. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are remaining at their home in Wisconsin until after Labor day, when they will join their daughter at their Evanston home. Mrs. Smith's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Fentress, left yesterday for New York, where they are to live temporarily.

Debut Parties Start Today.

The round of festivities for the debutantes begins today with a luncheon Mrs. Ernst Von Ammon and her sister, Mrs. Robert Butts, are giving at Mrs. Butts' home in Winnetka for Miss Helen Shoemaker, the Warren W. Shoemakers' debutante daughter.

From now until the latter part of the month, when the majority of the debutantes depart for schools and colleges, there is scarcely a day without its luncheon, tea, dinner, or dance for the buds and their escorts.

Wade Fetzer III. is the name that has been given the son born yesterday at the Passavant hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Wade Fetzer Jr., the former Florence Otis. The baby has a sister, Nancy, who is two years old. He is a grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Otis and of the Wade Fetzers. Not long after young Mrs. Fetzer and her baby return from the hospital they will move into the house the Fetzers are building across the road from their present home in Northbrook. The new house is to be completed by the end of September.

John W. Valentine is arriving today to spend a week with his wife and two little daughters in Lake Forest. His business necessitated his moving to New York earlier in the summer, but Mrs. Valentine and the children are remaining in Lake Forest until Sept. 15. The Valentines plan to take an apartment in New York City for the winter. They are a popular young couple and will be missed greatly by their many Chicago friends.

Mr. Valentine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Valentine, are sailing on Sept. 18 from Honolulu for San Francisco. With them are their other son, Joseph W. Valentine, and Dr. Robert B. Preble.

Illness Forces Delay of Prenuptial Parties.

Miss Mary Mavor of Highland Park has been ill with influenza, so all the parties that had been planned for before her marriage tomorrow to Richard H. Hedberg have been postponed until after the young Hedbergs return from their wedding trip. The bride-to-be is well enough, however, to attend the bridal dinner her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morton Mavor, will give at their home tonight.

The wedding is taking place tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, with the Rev. Lewis Sherwin officiating. Only the relatives and a few friends have been invited to the ceremony, but a larger group will attend an 8:30 o'clock reception.

Mrs. Fred Harvey of Lake View avenue has gone to her summer home in Lake Geneva to recuperate from the accident which kept her in the Grant hospital for six months.

Miss Beverly Mann of Quantico, Va., daughter of Capt. William L. Mann, U. S. N., is the guest of Col. and Mrs. Henry Barrett Chamberlin at their summer home near St. Joe, Mich. William Charles Chamberlin, who has been awarded the senior fellowship at Dartmouth college, has completed his summer training at Quantico and will be with his parents until his return to Hanover, N. H.

Former Mrs. Willett to Live in Canada.

We hear that the former Mrs. Grace Williamson Willett and her new husband, Richard R. Chamberlain, have taken out Canadian citizenship papers and are planning to live permanently on his beautiful estate on the St. Lawrence near Prescott, Ont., where they are staying now. The wedding was a quiet one in early August and not even their best friends knew of it until after it had taken place.

Mr. Chamberlain, who formerly lived in River Forest, was a widower, his wife having died about seven years ago. He has one son, Gene, who attended the Oak Park High school last year, but who will not return there this winter, so friends say, for he will live in Canad with his father and Mrs. Chamberlain. Gene recently returned from a summer abroad.

Mrs. Chamberlain has taken much of the furnishings of the penthouse in Lincoln Park West that she formerly occupied to Canada, and it is reported that she is reproducing some of the penthouse rooms in her husband's house. The former Mrs. Willett and Mr. Chamberlain have known each other since they were in school.

New Barrymore Stuns Filmland with His Pep

BY GEORGE SHAFFER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Hollywood, Cal., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Some rejuvenative process has presented Paramount studio with a new John Barrymore. The unpredictable thespian has become the hard working "model" for his new studio employers.

John is in the midst of his third film in two months. And Carole Lombard and Fred MacMurray are waiting for him to join their cast before they start "True Confession," which will be his fourth.

Featuring this new splurge of acting power, Barrymore yesterday came within a gnat's eyelash of rendering several of Hollywood's better known male actors hors de combat. It was in a scene of "City Hall Scandal."

The scene required Harvey Stephens to be brought before Barrymore by two attorneys and a police guard. "There," one of the attorneys [Lynne Overman] tells Barrymore, "is the man who murdered your wife."

Barrymore was supposed to make an attempt to harm the suspect.

But instead of "an attempt" he flew at Stephens' throat, knocking that actor for a complete loop.

Barrymore's rush at Stephens also sprawled Overman backward into a chair, where both man and chair collapsed in a heap on the floor. Even this collision failed to stop John, whose rush carried him over the other two prostrate actors and into a state of what the football coaches term "body contact" with rough, tough, red-headed Charlie Bickford.

Bickford, for all his 200 pounds and years as an adventurer, found himself no match for an inflamed Barrymore. Bickford went down like the last remaining tenpin in a bowling alley.

"To what do you attribute your vigor and your success in your recent pictures?" was the query put to him by one of the question askers who had witnessed the scene.

Barrymore looked contemplative, although those knowing eyes danced a bit. "I am feeling better than in years," he responded. "I am sleeping ten hours a night." [All listeners gave a start.] "I am going to bed at 8 o'clock when I have an early call." [The start they gave this time practically rocked the building.] "Sleep," proclaimed the great man, with the air of discovery, "is the greatest of builders."

But his reunion with Morpheus was not a single item. The reunion with Elaine was important also.

Barrymore explained that as a young man he had been "naturally indolent," and that as a consequence "lost the chance to be wealthy." "I took the path of easy resistance," he explained profoundly.

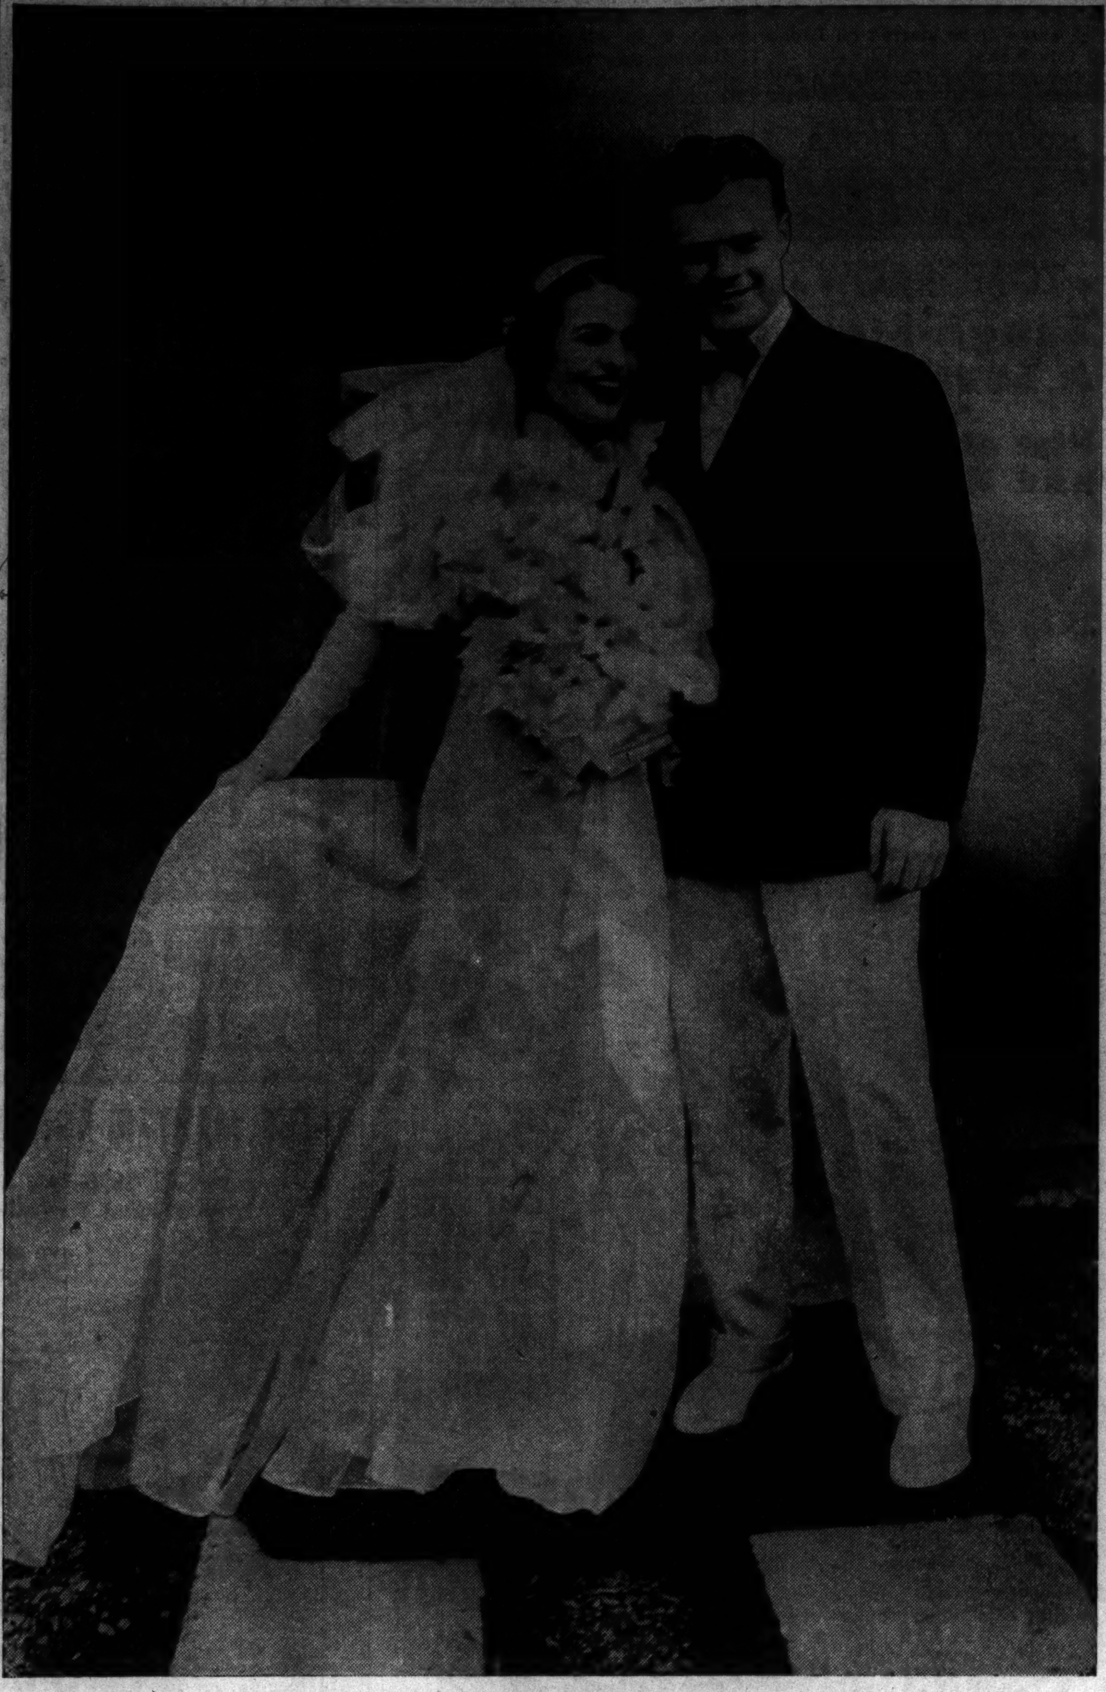
But about eight years ago a change seemed to come upon Barrymore, and it has grown more pronounced. "Now that I have become used to working again," he explained, "I love it. My fortune is on the way back. I never was happier in my life. Life recently took on a new aspect—and Mrs. Barrymore has been a great inspiration to me since we were reunited after discovering that we could not live without each other."

Gene Raymond's retirement from the cast of Lily Pons' "It Never Happened Before" at RKO was the result of the actor's recollection of how a bunch of featured comedy players, revolving around a girl with such personality as Miss Pons', can push a leading man into the background.

Last year Raymond appeared with Miss Pons in "That Girl from Paris" and the comedy satellites who revolved around Lily and made a place in the spotlight for themselves included a trio of sure fire performers—Jack Oakie, Mischa Auer, and Frank Jenks.

This year Raymond was assigned to play Miss Pons' leading man again, and agreed, but then he was informed that three sure fire comedians—Oakie, Edward Everett Horton, and Eric Blore—would be in the cast. Raymond looked for his hat and the exit.

Miss Rosemary Price Becomes Bride



Mr. and Mrs. James Alfred Johnson Jr., just after they were married yesterday afternoon in Christ church, Winnetka. The rector, the Rev. Ashley Gerhard, read the service that made Miss Rosemary Price the bride of the young Texan, the son of Mrs. William McFadden Averill of Beaumont. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dorr C. Price of Winnetka. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will be at home after Sept. 20 in Cincinnati.

Douglas Fairbanks Says He's Too Old for Modern Movies

New York, Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Douglas Fairbanks Sr. confessed somewhat sadly today that he'll never again appear in motion pictures, because he's too old.

Fairbanks, once one of the brightest stars of Hollywood, sailed aboard the liner Normandie with Mrs. Fairbanks, the former Lady Ashley.

"So far as I am personally concerned," the former jumping jack of Hollywood said, "I'm through with pictures. I'm too old. The movies have left me behind. In my days on the silent screen things were entirely different than they are today. I'll leave it to my son and younger men and women to carry on."

Music Lovers Loyal in Face of Grid Classic

BY EDWARD BARRY.

Music was worshiped opposite 11th street last night and football opposite 16th. Although the gentler of the two arts cannot claim that her votaries exceeded in number those at the rival shrine, still she can be consoled by the thought that the Grant park concert acquitted itself creditably against the terrific competition of the All-Star game.

For tens of thousands of people made their way over boggy ground and through light autumnal mists to the vast lake front audience area, where they were nicely repaid by the artists there assembled for their delectation.

The distinguished Richard Bonelli, baritone of the Metropolitan and Chicago Opera companies, and an especial favorite of this city since 1925, was the featured soloist in a program whose instrumental portions were provided by the Chicago Civic Opera orchestra, Joseph Raffaelli conducting.

Mr. Bonelli chose to lend his smooth textured, chocolatey voice and his vast artistic prowess to three of the best liked arias in the baritone répertoire. Besides these there were a familiar instrumental piece in unfamiliar vocal dress, an excerpt from oratorio, and one of those dreadful creations which for some completely unknown reason are referred to customarily as "semi-classics."

The high point in the operatic excerpts was, of course, the "Largo al Factotum," from "The Barber." First there is the glorious youthfulness of the music, then the fact that the whole character of the aria fits Mr. Bonelli's personality so admirably. The archness and epic humor which he brings to his portrayal of the deathless Figaro are at least as important in the total effect as the effortless beauty of his singing.

"Eri tu," from "The Masked Ball," and "Vision Fugitive," from "Herodiade" were tensely dramatic, yet devoid of histrionic mannerism. Devoid of musical mannerism, too, for Bonelli refuses to break the line of the melody with that tasteless explosiveness of delivery which is regarded in grand opera with all too much tolerance.

Before singing the "Danse Macabre" of Saint-Saëns, the baritone gave out the startling information that the vocal version of the piece is the original one and that it was not until later that the composer gave it its present instrumental form. The tempi were slowed considerably as he sang it last night, and the rhythm, in consequence, took on an unexpectedly compelling quality, a quite Bolero-like urgency. Mr. Bonelli's encores were a noble air from an obscure Handel oratorio, and the familiar opus called "Tommy Lad." St. Cecelia, patroness of music, be with us now!

Mr. Raffaelli and the orchestra provided accompaniments for the singer and played a variety of well known and little known instrumental music besides. In the latter classification was the overture to Pedrotti's "The Masked Ball."

This column has often stressed those incongruous Grant park happenings which emphasize the informal character of the summer concert series. A climax of a sort was reached last night when an airplane advertising a dog food grew tired of flashing its message at football patrons exclusively and hit upon the idea of trying to make the product known to the band shell crowd as well. The time chosen for the visitation happened to coincide with a performance of "Siegfried's Funeral March."

THEY have different methods of teaching spelling in school nowadays. Not so successful, either, judging from the written "Pledge of Allegiance" of a Chicago school pupil who could repeat it perfectly. His written version:

"I pleg a leget to the flag of the Unted States of Amaca and to the replec for which it stands one nashen inthiable with libity and Justes for all."

* *

WORST pun of the summer: When the little ear of corn said to its mother, "Where did I come from?" she answered, "The stock brought you."

* *

LEONARDO DA VINCI did find, for Mona Lisa, a white cat with one blue and one topaz eye, as the woman from Beirut told the little boy now in Chicago when she gave him a similar cat in Syria. We had overlooked it in Merejkowski's "Life of Leonardo da Vinci," as readers pointed out.

"He arranged the studio for her [Mona Lisa's] reception. Boltraffio, watching him, marveled at his unusual solicitude. He prepared palette, brushes and skins of paint, each one coated with a transparent film of gum arabic. He removed the cover from the portrait. . . . He set the fountain playing in the middle of the court. It had been constructed for her delight—falling streams striking against glass spheres put them in motion and produced a strange low music. Her favorite flowers had been planted round the fountain—pale irises—the lilies of Florence. Then he crumbled bread in a basket for the tame doe which lived in the court, and which she used to feed with her own hands; lastly he arranged her chair—of smooth dark oak with carved back and arms; before it placed a soft rug, upon which was already curled and purring a white cat of rare breed—procured for her pleasure, a dainty foreign beast with varicolored eyes—the right yellow as a topaz, the left sapphire blue."

* *

THE owner of the cat that came from Syria is 3 year old Bill McEwan, son of Calvin McEwan, field director of the Syrian expedition of the Oriental institute of the University of Chicago. Bill has been to North Syria twice; in fact, by the time he was 2½ years old he had traveled 30,000 miles. His first Christmas tree, from necessity as well as from choice, was a cedar of Lebanon. He speaks four languages—English, French, Turkish, and Arabic, and he speaks them with discrimination. At the dig in Syria, for instance, if he asked his father for a nail he asked him in English. If his father sent him to the Arabic carpenter, Bill asked him in Arabic, and if he referred him to his Turkish assistant the child addressed him in Turkish.

The cat with a topaz and a sapphire eye was given Bill because he, too, has eyes like those of Mona Lisa's cat—his right eye is amber brown and his left blue. The latest news flash on the cat, according to a friend of the McEwans, Mrs. Roger L. Sergel, is that the cat has struck up an interesting acquaintance with an aristocratic red Persian, is blessed-eventing late in September, and is knitting bootees, each pair in different colors, one blue, one amber.

THE Chicago public library possesses a new unabridged dictionary and its acquisition is directly due to the recent nationwide puzzle contest. A group of Chicago contestants bought it to replace the one they had worn out during the contest, and they paid for it by taking a collection among themselves, each believing, according to Ben Abramson, that his contribution was a sort of Peter's pence from the large prize that he would undoubtedly win.

"Find This Girl"

BY ROY VICKERS

[Copyright: 1937: by Roy Vickers.]

SYNOPSIS.

Bessie Mersand, a nurse, is acquitted of the charge of administering a fatal dose of medinal to an elderly patient. Gwynneth Bentley and her lover, Roy Gleason, attended the trial. Later Gwynneth meets Bessie, who has changed her name to Mathews, and, waiving references, gives her a job caring for Gwynneth's invalid husband. She plans to kill her husband and plant the guilt on Bessie. Medinal tablets for Gwynneth's sleeplessness are placed in Bessie's charge. Gwynneth hides a valuable jeweled dagger, then puts the ground tablets in her husband's food. She then gives Bessie the day off, and sends away Bessie's luggage to make it appear that Bessie has fled. In London Bessie meets her friend, Jim Watkin, who has heard of the crime over the ticker at his club. He hides Bessie in his apartment while he tries to gain proof of her innocence. To his friend Inspector Rason Jim introduces Bessie as his sister. Jim tricks Gwynneth into admitting that Roy Gleason is her lover, and gets Roy to admit that he and Gwynneth attended Bessie's trial, so know her identity. Bessie had had a duplicate key, supposedly for her jewel case, made for Gwynneth. It was really a key to the safe containing the dagger. Jim learns Gwynneth knew of the locksmith who made it through her criminal brother.

INSTALMENT XXII.

THROUGH THE MICROSCOPE.

"This"—Watkin picked up the little brass cylinder—"is a pocket microscope. Would you be good enough to look through that—at the same spot on the tablecloth?"

"I can never see through things like that!" said Gwynneth. "You look for me, please, Mr. Rason."

Rason took the little microscope and stared at the spot on the table where the medinal tablet had been.

"I can see a number of small lumps like lumps of sugar. What's it all about, Watkin?"

"You know as well as I do, Rason, that those 'lumps of sugar,' as you call them, are really minute particles of the medinal."

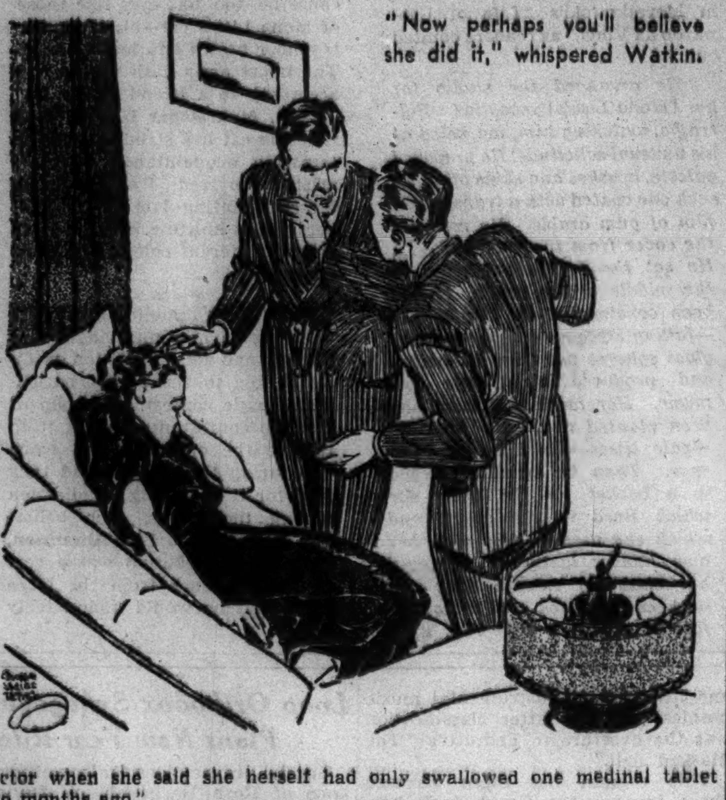
Gwynneth had the sensation that her heart turned over. She had been a fool to despise this big, bony man. He was Bessie's friend—she saw that now—probably in love with her. She had stirred up a dangerous force against herself in that man who was more ruthless than the police, unhampered by their regulations.

"Look here, Watkin, this conversation began by Mrs. Bentley telling me that you had accused her——"

"I didn't accuse her. She drove me to saying that I thought it possible that she might have murdered her husband."

"Well, of course, anything is possible——"

"Quite possible. Easy in this case—if you assume she was lying to the doctor when she said she herself had only swallowed one medinal tablet two months ago."



"Now perhaps you'll believe she did it," whispered Watkin.

"Lying!" protested Rason. "Really, Watkin——"

"O, let's can all the drawing room stuff. Mrs. Bentley is under suspicion and knows it. I suspect that she drew a medinal tablet from the nurse every second night and saved up the tablets."

"O, now I understand!" A ripple of silvery laughter broke from Gwynneth. She had passed the first moment of panic. She was at bay, and when at bay she was cool and formidable. "Let him go on, Mr. Rason. I don't really find it painful. It's too fantastic. Is he going all over the house with that microscope looking for grains of medinal?"

"A woman who was saving up medinal in such a manner—and for such a purpose—would conceal the tablets in a very special place," said Watkin. "A place in which no one else could find them."

He turned and glanced at the safe. Then he caught Gwynneth's eye.

"No, you wouldn't have hidden them in that safe, in the special circumstances, because your husband had a key to the safe. You'd have hidden it in some special little place of your own. Have you a private safe?"

"No."

"But I think you have a jewel case?"

"Yes."

"Then have you any objection to sending for the jewel case?"

"None whatever. I'll go and fetch it myself."

"Pardon me, Mrs. Bentley."

She stopped short on her way to the door.

"I said would you mind sending for it? If you were to go for it you would have time to brush it out."

Again Gwynneth rang the bell.

"Bring my jewel case, please," she ordered.

"Yes, madam."

When Ledbourne brought in the jewel case Gwynneth produced a key from her bag and opened it.

"I suppose you want me to remove my jewelry while you poke about with your microscope?"

"I'm not going to poke about with my microscope. I'm only an amateur," said Watkin grimly. "This is a job for the home office analysist. If you'll be good enough to remove your jewelry I think Mr. Rason will seal up the case and take it away. . . . Look out, Rason."

Rason was standing nearer to Gwynneth Bentley and caught her as she swayed and lost consciousness. Together they lifted her onto the sofa.

"Now perhaps you'll believe she did it," whispered Watkin.

"Shut up," cautioned Rason. "We'd better get one of the maids."

Ledbourne brought brandy and in three minutes Gwynneth opened her eyes.

But not before she had collected her wits.

"I'm so sorry I fainted, but I've had no food since my husband died," she apologized. "Mr. Rason, please take the jewel case if you feel you need it. Perhaps you will bundle the jewelry into one of the drawers of the desk."

"You quite understand, Mrs. Bentley, this is not our doing," said Rason diffidently. "But after what has been said, perhaps it would be as well for me to take it along right away."

As he spoke he glowered at Watkin, who ignored him, and began to put the jewelry in a drawer.

Rason placed a label on the jewel case, then officially sealed it. From time to time he looked up to scowl at Watkin.

Watkin went over to the sofa and stared down at Gwynneth Bentley. The color was coming back to her cheeks. A beautiful creature in the flower of womanhood, serene, the embodiment of dignified innocence. So one would have said. Such was her magnetic power that even then he could feel it just possible that he had made a ghastly mistake.

She spoke and her voice held the faint scorn of a woman reproving a fifth form schoolboy.

"And you think that a jury will take any notice of what they're told about a microscope?"

Again came the challenging smile, as if she liked him for the very thrill of fear which he gave her.

"I could almost envy Bessie. You'd make a wonderful lover," she breathed, whereupon Jim Watkin beat a retreat.

He handed over the jewel case for microscopic analysis. Then at a junior's request he went to an exhibit room.

On the floor were Bessie's suitcases and trunk, recovered by a magistrate's order from the cloakroom at Waterloo. And on the table was laid out the entire contents.

"We couldn't find anything that was any good, sir. No letters and not a single name anywhere. The only written matter is this shopping list—which we found in the brown handbag."

There was nothing very incriminating in the shopping list. Three or four items of medical supplies required for her patient and one or two household articles evidently bought for Mrs. Bentley.

"Send that to the photographic department and have it circulated to the press, requesting them to insert it with a notice of warning the public to look out for that handwriting," he ordered. "Has the description and photograph of the safe key gone out?"

"Yes, sir!"

Bankhead Love Story Is Idyll of Swim Pool

New York, Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Broadway was all a-flutter today when the news of Tallulah Bankhead's marriage to John Emery, the actor, reached the street.

Theatrical folk were amazed to learn that the theater's saltiest sophisticate had fallen for a tall, wide shouldered, narrow waisted stage lover like any mooning matinée girl.

There were other Tallulah tidings of keen interest to show business. Variety, weekly theatrical gospel, came out today with a Hollywood dispatch saying she had finally been chosen to play Scarlett O'Hara in Selznick-International's "Gone with the Wind."

After the wedding, last night at Jasper, Ala., it was given out that Miss Bankhead had met her husband in Hollywood about a year ago, when she was starring in "Reflected Glory" and he was supporting Katharine Cornell in "St. Joan."

New Yorkers in the know smiled at this story. They said the Bankhead-Emery romance was scarcely a month old.

Tallulah, her friends revealed, met Mr. Emery about four weeks ago. The bridegroom then was featured in "Busman's Holiday," an English whodunit, in Westport, Conn.

On the second night Miss Bankhead invited Mr. Emery to be her house guest at Norwalk. There the actress had been studying Shakespeare's "Anthony and Cleopatra," in which she will be starred on Broadway this season.

A few days after Mr. Emery's suitcases had been moved from Westport to Norwalk there appeared in the dramatic news columns of the New York papers a paragraph to the effect that Mr. Emery was to play Anthony to Miss Bankhead's Cleopatra.

The two, according to their friends, daily rehersed the rôles of the classical lovers from morning to night on the edge of Miss Bankhead's swimming pool. This continued until yesterday, when, without a word to their intimates, they took a plane for Alabama.

Relatives May Cause Small Child Harm

By GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.

[Copyright: 1937: By The Chicago Tribune-New York News Syndicate, Inc.]

Ordinarily, in using a letter in this column, I reserve a fair proportion of space at the end for my own comment; but I have a letter before me which paints, rather in detail, a vivid picture of a situation that exists far too often for the good of the small children involved in it.

"Dear Miss Bevans: I have a little boy who will be 6 years old in October, and he is considered very bright for his age. But he is also very headstrong. No matter what I say or any one else tells him to do he has his own way and takes his time.

"He is very restless and I guess it is because he has so many bosses, as circumstances force me, at this time, to live with my parents. I have been living here for the past five years, off and on. My father is a very high strung and nervous man. My son seems to annoy him all the time as my father raised us to be seen and not heard, though I don't believe in that.

"My brother-in-law is always spanking my boy if he does anything he doesn't like and, naturally, I resent this very much. My father also hits him and it seems Sam is always upset and terribly nervous, too, from it all. My father will make a fuss over my sister's little girl, and deliberately ignore my boy. Then Sam gets jealous and talks back to my father and so the war starts. My mother always takes my father's part and says he likes girls better than boys. No matter what goes wrong or what is out of place or broken, my father blames my boy without giving him the benefit of the doubt.

"I have been very good to my parents and pay my way liberally and it hurts me to see my little boy treated as if he were the worst boy on earth. Everybody is always telling him to do this and not do that and keep quiet. My father plays the radio all day and the children are not allowed to even talk. They are always hushed by mother and the rest."

Unless there can be a very radical change in the attitude of all these grownups this mother should, at any cost, make a home for herself and her small boy elsewhere. He is going through a very disintegrating experience, which may affect his whole future. This mother must use courage and independence in dealing with her family.

Fields Denied Retrial of Medical Fees Suit

Riverside, Cal., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Judge O. K. Morton denied today the motion of attorneys for W. C. Fields, screen comedian, for a new trial of the civil suit in which Dr. Jesse Citron, Hemet, Cal., physician, was awarded $1,500 medical fees.

Culbertson's "Gold Book of Bidding and Play"

Herewith is presented another portion of Mr. Culbertson's latest work on contract, the "Gold Book of Bidding and Play," which is being reproduced in this column in daily instalments.

THE FEAR OF GETTING BEYOND ONE'S DEPTH.

[Copyright: 1937: By Ely Culbertson.]

Saving a Round of Bidding: For his first asking bid the player should choose the one which will yield the most information, keep the path clear for a sign-off if necessary, and leave room for future asking bids if they prove to be necessary or desirable.

South:
♠ A K 8 6 5 2 ♥ none ♦ Q J 10 6 5 ♣ A 6
North:
♠ J 10 4 3 ♥ 9 5 ♦ A K 4 ♣ K 9 5 2

South	North
1 spade	3 spades [1]
4 clubs ? [2]	4 diamonds [3]
5 diamonds ? [4]	5 no trump [5]
7 spades

[1] A minimum double raise. [2] South has his campaign completely planned. He knows that if he bids four diamonds and North raised to five diamonds, showing the ace, there will not be enough rounds of bidding left to find out about both the club and diamond kings, for the next asking bid would have to be at the level of six-odd, and a six no trump response would force a grand slam contract which might be defeated. If North signs off over four clubs, South intends to bid four no trump. Then if North has the two missing aces, a sure discard is available for the losing club, and a six diamond asking bid will locate the diamond king, leaving time to sign off at six spades if North does not hold it. [3] This shows only the diamond ace and club king. [4] Knowing only about first round diamond control, South asks about second round control. This can consist either of the king or of the singleton ace [since South already knows North has the ace]. [5] Confirming the diamond king and, incidentally, showing South that the grand slam is at least a 3 to 1 bet.

The bidding [East-West vulnerable]:

North	East	South	West
1 heart	Pass	2 diamonds	Pass
2 hearts	Pass	3 diamonds	Pass
3 no trump	Double	5 diamonds	Pass
Pass	Double [final bid]

The opening lead was the spade ten, dummy winning with the ace. Then declarer, after a moment's thought, led the five of hearts from dummy. With all the cards exposed East has no problem, of course. East simply ducks and declarer must ruff, later having to concede two club tricks and one spade. But, dear reader, put yourself in East's position. From his point of view declarer might well be leading toward a blank jack. In that case it would probably be fatal to hold up the ace. Suppose declarer's hand had been:

♠ 7 6 4 ♥ J ♦ A Q J 10 9 6 5 ♣ K 5.

In that case East could win the heart ace and cash a spade and a club trick. Failure to put up the ace would result in its loss and hold the defenders to two tricks.

East put up the ace and saw it ruffed. Declarer then drew trumps, discarded two clubs on the king and queen of hearts, and finally conceded two tricks.

It should be noted that declarer's play on this hand was eminently correct. To lead the heart king through in the hope that the ace can be ruffed away, or finessed, is futile; one discard will avail declarer exactly nothing.

TODAY'S QUESTION.

Question: The bidding has been:

South	West	North	East
4 hearts	Pass	Pass	?

East holds:
♠ A Q 8 ♥ 7 6 ♦ A Q 9 6 3 ♣ K 9 4.
What is his proper bid?
Answer: East should double.

The total value of game is:

Your first game: About 250 points [150 points plus the 80 or more points below the line].

Your second game, when the opponent has no game; also about 250 points.

The rubber game, when each player has a game: 300 points [the rubber bonus] plus the 80 or more points below the line—a total of about 400 points.

Smart Fabrics Are Ready for Busy Scissors

BY RHEA SEEGER.

Roaming through the yardage displays where all the bolts and bolts of fall fabrics are piled high makes the most timid soul grab the scissors, a pattern, and start the adventure of making her own clothes. If different materials are not sufficient lure for such a job, then the new fall colors will make your fingers itch.

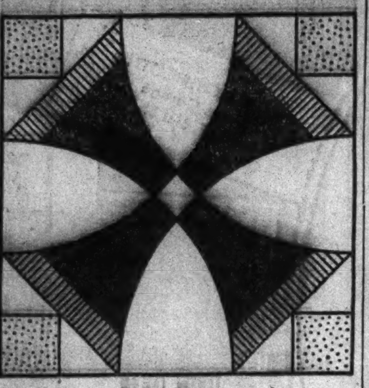
Woolens are fabulously beautiful, luxurious and softly feminine. The colors and the trick new textures will keep you in long moments of indecision unless you have an unlimited clothes allowance, in which case you'll be tempted to spend every cent on the newest finds. Tufts of yarn, knots of silk, wool with wool fringe, dull thin wool with silk fringe, wool matelassé, wrinkled wool, smooth suede wools, duvetynes, and thin, coarse wools like hop sacking, wools like the weave of a coarsely woven jersey sack are the newest arrivals.

Black and navy and deep brown wool contrasted with nubs of high colored yarn make stunning street outfits. Wool with ridges of velvetlike material are other good buys. And checks and stripes go on forever, with some new wide Scotch woolens, authentic tartans imported from Scotland, taking top place in popularity.

See some new silks and the dull crêpes with high embroidered flowers resembling small, gay carnations in bright yellow and scarlet splashed all over the crêpe. They will give you a daytime dress of unusual distinction. See the gauzelike silk tissues, with silver or copper or gold threads· the metallics printed in dots and lovely old Persian designs that will make the best of the decorative blouses and simple streamlined dress parade dresses.

And then go to work!

Pieced Quilt Is Dignified with a Regal Charm



Regal Cross.

Patterns of this design are 5 cents, stamps or coin. Address Nancy Cabot, Chicago Tribune, or call at one of the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street or Tribune Tower.

BY NANCY CABOT.

The dignity and charm of this lovely pieced block is suited to its title, "Regal Cross." It is a rather difficult pattern as pieced blocks go, but it is one of the favorites among the expert quilt makers and one which allows the accomplished needleworker a chance to display ingenuity in the quilting design. The completed square measures twelve inches, and the pieced and plain blocks are set together in an alternate arrangement, with a three inch white border surrounding the blocks.

North Side Will Hold Jubilee Parties at Pier

Eleven north side communities will join in giving a free pageant and dance this evening and tomorrow night at the Navy pier in celebration of Chicago's charter jubilee. A historical costume ball will be held tonight, and tomorrow Miss North Side will be crowned at a queen's ball.

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

A few days ago we had one of the best and certainly one of the most unusual face treatments to be found anywhere. It's a new thing for Chicago.

This face treatment is founded on the theory that face contour sags because muscles bog down and that muscles won't bog down if, like all other muscles of the body, they are properly exercised. So, when you have one of these corrective—and preventive—treatments your face muscles are exercised. And how they're exercised!

A man gives the treatments. Only men are trained for the work—and after a couple of treatments we can understand why. Only men would have the hands for the businesslike workout given to the face muscles. There is no namby-pamby stroking. It's all deep molding and lifting and kneading. For the first time in your life you find out what muscles are in your face, and where.

It takes a solid hour. The creams used are only lubricating agents. Manipulation is what does the trick of toning up those muscles as they've never been toned before. When it's over your face is actually a little tired—that nice, relaxed, healthy tiredness your body muscles reflect after a good workout. It looks swell.

We're an exercise fan, so this treatment is one we appreciate and approve. Because that's actually what it is, healthy, toning exercise for muscles we never get at. We're told these treatments have brought about some marvelous corrective results—and we can see why. It's something quite new and sound under the Chicago sun.

Girl Alone in City Often Is Sad and Blue

BY DORIS BLAKE.

[Copyright: 1937: By The Chicago Tribune-New York News Syndicate, Inc.]

"I have been alone in the city for four years. Only a girl who has lived alone can tell what a lonely life it is. I am employed in a bank in a clerical capacity. Out of my weekly pay, which is not large, as you must judge, I send a couple of dollars home each week to help out my family. This leaves me cramped about going places and, indeed, having the kind of clothes I'd like to have, as clothes seem terribly important in a city where one is taken at face value.

"Frankly, I would like to meet young men, the kind of young men I knew back home. Of course, every girl in a city meets some men, but when one is living alone, with no home background and no people of importance to give one prestige, she is up against it with the men she does meet. They do not offer the same respect, somehow. If one acts lighthearted and gay, they assume that she is "on the make." One has no place to which to bring men in after a show when one lives in a furnished room as I do.

"The girls I work with all have homes, it so happens and they have beaux they can entertain at home. I suppose, if one doesn't care, as long as one is on the go, not finicky about the men she could go out with, it would be a gay and giddy whirl. But, gosh, while I'm not finicky, I do like nice men and I just can't stand the insinuations that are offered by the average city slicker. Slicker maybe isn't the word, either, because they are so darned cheap."

You state the case of the girl alone in the city pretty well, Hazel. Without that home background, without any prestige whatever, you have to move slowly in the business of making friends with the other sex, and it is lonely for a young woman. Nevertheless, there are countless numbers of girls just like you, Hazel, who've worked out their romance career successfully starting with just as many handicaps as you. You lay too much emphasis on clothes, we think. Be nicely dressed, of course, but when you are young and a clever shopper you can do this on comparatively little outlay.

Your fight is to keep from getting discouraged, making a recluse of yourself. You have to get out determined that you are going where you can meet nice young men. Go to church affairs. Join a club. Maybe it would be better if you lived in one where social affairs are planned. Take up a night study where you'll run into worthwhile people. Do something, anyway, rather than sit and brood over the lot of a girl alone in a city.

Studios Make Talent Trade to Settle Suit Over Gary Cooper

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—Following more than a year of litigation over the asserted "luring" of Gary Cooper away from Paramount, that studio and Samuel Goldwyn, Inc., Ltd., today arranged an out of court settlement of Paramount's $5,000,000 suit involving the star.

Announcement of the settlement involving a trade of talent was made by Adolph Zukor, chairman of Paramount's board of directors.

Zukor said Paramount would make available the services of Henry Hathaway, "one of our most important directors, for three pictures to be produced by Samuel Goldwyn, and the Goldwyn company will make available Gary Cooper for a Paramount picture."

Organized Women Musicians of Chicago will meet at 1:30 o'clock today in room 201 of the Auditorium building, 431 South Wabash avenue.

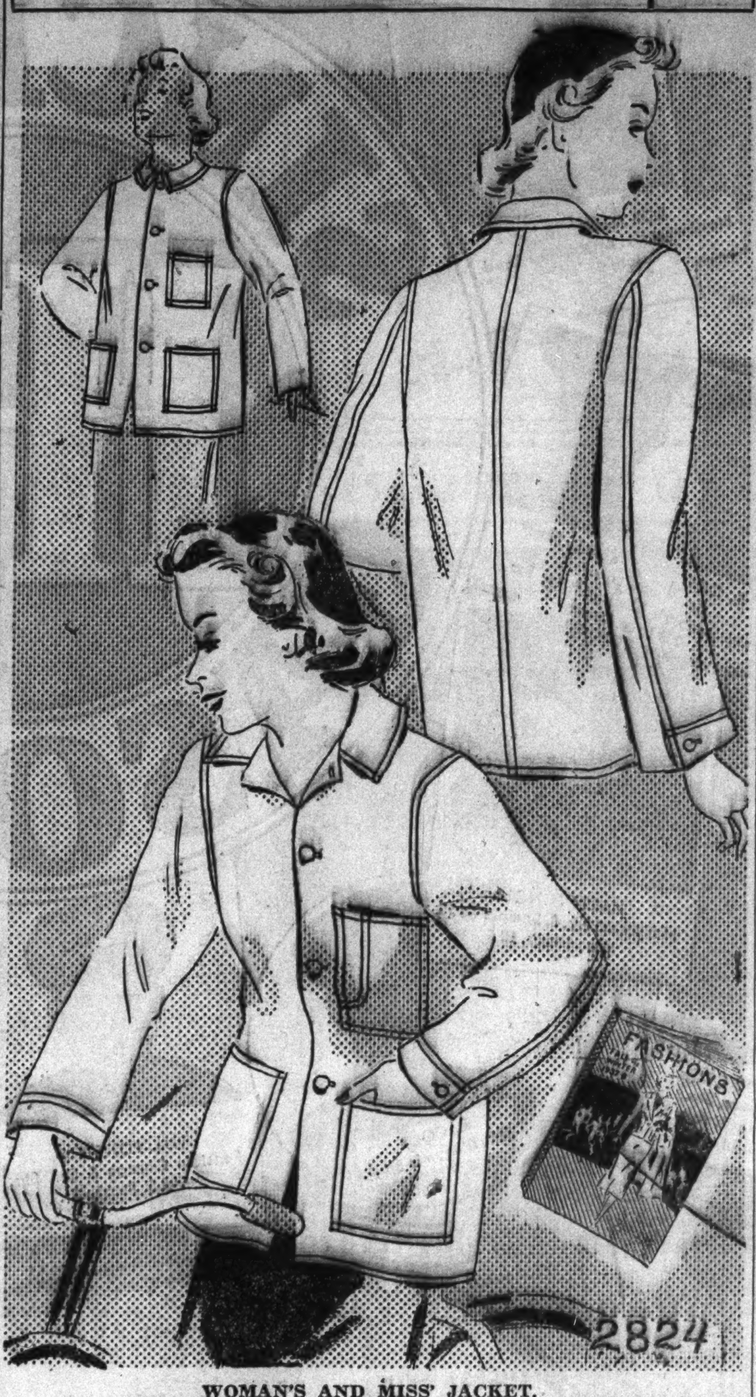
ENGAGEMENT

From Upper Montclair, N. J., comes the announcement of the engagements of two sisters, Miss Priscilla and Miss Barbara Thomas, daughters of Mrs. Leon Irving Thomas, formerly of Oak Park. Miss Priscilla Thomas is engaged to Marston Stickney Leonard of Cambridge, Mass., and her sister's fiancé is John Fisher Graham of Lynn, Mass.

Miss Priscilla Thomas is a graduate of Wheaton college, Norton, Mass., and her fiancé, a Harvard graduate, is a member of the faculty of the Harrisburg academy of Harrisburg, Pa. Miss Barbara Thomas was graduated in June from Colby Junior college, and her fiancé is a senior at Dartmouth. No dates have been set for the weddings.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Franklin Reed of Eldorado, Ark., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Ann, to Clifford Tuttle Fogarty, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Fogarty of Evanston. Both Miss Reed and Mr. Fogarty studied at Northwestern university. The wedding will take place in Eldorado during Christmas week.

A "Must Have" for Campus



WOMAN'S AND MISS' JACKET.

This boxy sports coat is a "must have" for campus wear and for all late autumn sports events no matter where you are. The original is fashioned of wide wale corduroy with lether buttons. The garment is an ideal topper for your favorite woolen skirts. For extra warmth and a "sporty" touch it may have a Scotch plaid lining. Other fabrics which make up effectively in this model are rabbit's hair woolen, plaids, and tweeds.

The lines of this coat are extremely tailored and of distinctive cut, but you will find the garment easy to make if you use the illustrated step-by-step sewing chart which accompanies the pattern. You don't have to be any specific age to wear this coat, either. Whether co-ed or matron, you will find ample use for this versatile jacket.

Style No. 2824 is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20 years, and 30, 32, 34, 36 and 38 inches bust measurement. Size 16 requires 2½ yards of 39 inch material.

Living Up to Beauty Hard on Actresses

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

[Copyright: 1937: By The Chicago Tribune-New York News Syndicate, Inc.]

Living up to her beauty reputation doesn't make life any too easy for the actress, either, if you would believe Elizabeth Love, who has played parts on stage and screen.

Elizabeth Love. Beauty a job.

"How many times," Miss Love inquires, have you seen some favorite actress, perhaps your favorite one, either on the street or in a restaurant, and thought, 'Why, she isn't much to look at after all!' If you're a woman who gets around you've probably said it often. Perhaps too often for the actress' comfort.

"Well, it is our job—our duty to our public as the saying goes. I got a lesson not long ago from Pinkie. Who is Pinkie? About a year ago I went to spend a week-end with a friend, the mother of a little boy. I'd heard a lot about him but I'd never met him. When I arrived it was late afternoon and I was so tired that I dozed off on the porch swing. After awhile I became conscious of somebody watching me.

"And who are you?" I asked the boy.

"I'm Pinkie," he answered. "And you're Lovey [my nickname], aren't you? But before I could talk to him he had run away.

"'Mother,' I could hear Pinkie calling, 'what did you say Lovey was?'

"'An actress,' I heard her say.

"'An actress?' said Pinkie. 'Why, she looks more like a relative.'

"Pinkie's point of view that an actress should appear a special person and not look like a relative made a great impression on me. I made up my mind then and there that I would never be careless about my looks again for even the tiniest of audiences! Pinkie, I consider, did me an awfully good turn."

It's true that we do turn a meaner eye on a stage or movie person than we do on any other woman. In fact, you might call it a scurrilous eye. But that's not our theme this morning so much as calling attention to Pinkie's implication that a relative looks like something different. In an era when relatives have everything in their favor to look well there need be no dividing line.

[Copyright: 1937: By The Chicago Tribune.]

Tinkle, tinkle, chime, chime—your toast is done to a turn, madame. The new automatic toasters tell you so, as soon as the bread has crisped to brownness.

Some of them don't chime or tinkle, but pop the slices of toast out almost in your face, the moment they are done.

Many of these new and shining toasters are able to make toast in any shade of brown. If Granny likes toast pale and not too dry, the regulator may be adjusted for that. If Sis wants her crisps, dark, and crunchy she may be accommodated, too.

None of these toasters will burn your fingers. They're well insulated, and they're constructed so that they won't leave scratches or scorches on the finest table surface. They are decorative and dependable, and vary in capacity from one-slice to four-slice models. A toaster which accommodates two slices at a time is the best choice for an average family.

Few electrical appliances are more useful than the toaster. It is indispensable at breakfast, and valuable at other meals where toast is made the basis of a creamed dish, or is desirable as a soup accompaniment.

There are scores of toasters from which to choose, with a wide price range. I feel that it is advisable to purchase one of the more substantial automatic types, even if the price is what you consider high. A toaster is almost a lifetime investment, and it almost always receives hard use. It isn't necessary to buy a model which whistles, chimes or shows a light when the toast is done, but it is wise to get one which doesn't need constant watching. It should have a good exterior finish which will continue to look new and attractive.

The waffle iron is another useful electrical appliance which has been perfected in design and in operation. A regulator makes it possible to produce light or dark waffles of varying crispness, to bake gingerbread or cake batters at the rather low temperatures they require.

A drip proof model is preferable to one which will allow overflowing batter to trickle to the table surface. Square waffles, round waffles, or triangular waffles, thick or thin waffles may be baked, according to your choice of waffle baker.

Any new waffle baker needs special treatment before it is used. Instructions which come with the appliance should be followed. Generally, this is the process to use: Heat the iron to baking temperature. Open it and brush the grids with unsalted fat, using a pastry brush to apply it evenly. Close the baker and allow it to heat for several minutes. Then disconnect the current and allow the iron to cool while closed. It then is ready to use, without ever again applying fat.

The inside of a waffle baker never should be washed. Loose particles may be removed with a brush. Grease or batter should be removed from the outside of the baker, while it still is hot, with a soft cloth or paper.

CUBS BEATEN, 6-4; DROP TO SECOND; SOX LOSE, 2-0

DODGERS ARE SURPASSED AT OWN SPECIALTY

It's Chicago Team's Turn to Be Daffy.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 1.—The Cubs knocked themselves out of first place with their own punches today. They apparently forgot that fielding is an important feature, so they punched themselves groggy with errors and let the Daffy Dodgers triumph, 6 to 4, in the second of the series. Meantime the contending Giants registered a triumph at New York and moved into the National league lead, forcing the Chicagoans back into second place by a two point margin.

Most of the devilment perpetrated by the Dodgers, who usually are pretty funny themselves, can be credited to ideas created by Curt Davis. The ex-Philly, now a 4 to 4 performer for the season, made a wild throw to third in the seventh. In the same inning he forgot his primer school lesson about covering first base. The upshot of this was a 4 to 1 lead for the Dodgers. The Cubs tore right back into a tie, only to fall apart again in the home eighth, when an error by Linus Frey led the local actors to their two winning runs.

Henshaw Puzzles Cubs.

The Cubs had quite a job ridding themselves of the southpawing of their one time mate, Roy Henshaw. For six innings the only scoring activity was a run picked up by the Chicagoans on hits by Frank Demaree and Gabby Hartnett. But after Davis had invited the enemy to take a 4 to 1 lead in the seventh, the Cubs suddenly popped forth with a lot of power at the plate. This demonstration, in which Demaree, Hartnett, and Pinch Hitter Joe Marty were the ring leaders, not only tied the count, but ran Henshaw to cover. Then the Dodgers brought in Max Butcher and the Cubs folded.

Henshaw wasn't the only Cub graduate able to toss a few poisoned darts into the hides of his old friends. Babe Phelps, once an understudy to Hartnett, ripped off two hits, one a seventh inning double which drove in the only earned run of the Dodgers' half dozen. In this same four run inning Woody English, another Chicago outcast, singled, although it was flukey. And in the eighth English produced his third single to drive in the extra run and cause Clyde Shoun to come to the rescue of the dazed Davis.

The Dodgers didn't wait long before putting on one of their daily breathless and original exhibitions. They staged it in the second inning when three men in succession reached base, but only four batted.

Cubs Take Lead.

Phelps led off with a single to center. Brack singled to right and Phelps, who runs without giving much indication of progress, tried to reach third. He was out by yards. Davis then perpetrated a wild pitch, and Brack evidently wanted to prove he could make two bases. Hartnett's throw to Hack nailed him. Next came a pass to English, and Wilson, the fourth batter of the inning, flied to Galan.

With one out in the fourth Demaree

BY ARCH WARD.

JOE CARR, president of the National Professional Football league, accepted the first assist for the favorable change in the weather for last night's All-Star game. . . . One of the first celebrities on the premises at Soldiers' field, Joe spoke over W-G-N and then recalled his visit to this department on Tuesday. . . . Joe had been curious then as to whether everything was taken care of to make the game another success. . . . We assured him we had attended to all but the weather, and had reserved that chore for him. . . . He did not hesitate last night to point to the blue crowding through the early evening clouds, and take credit for having done his usual Wednesday good deed.

First to arrive on the grounds were Col. Andy Frain and his regiment of ushers. . . . There were 800 of them at attention throughout the stands at 5 p. m. . . . Two hundred more were stationed at the gates. . . . A new detail in the Frain battalion was a guard of 25 young messengers, all in their teens. . . . Their uniforms were presented to them by P. K. Wrigley, president of the Cubs. . . .

* * *

The early birds in the throng of 84,560 were spotted all over the big stadium by 6 o'clock. . . . They took their places everywhere from the north goal line through the midfield section, and on up to the top of the bowl at the south end. . . . At 6:30 a crew of 40 men began the task of brushing off the residue of the afternoon's downpour from the huge tarpaulin which had covered the playing field throughout the drizzle. . . .

Noble Kizer of Purdue, who directed the inaugural squad in 1934, was absent. . . . Recuperating from his recent illness, Noble listened to the game at his home at Lafayette, Ind. . . . Bernie Bierman, the boss of Minnesota's Golden Gophers, who was in charge of last year's team, was in the stands, accompanied by Frank McCormick, athletic director at Minneapolis and Jim Kelly, formerly of De Paul and now on the Gopher staf. . . .

Other noted big time coaches in the house included Bob Zuppke of Illinois, Harry Kipke and Hunk Anderson of Michigan, Mal Elward of Purdue, Harry Stuldreher of Wisconsin, Francis Schmidt of Ohio State, Irl Tubbs and Ernie Nevers of Iowa, Bo McMillin of Indiana, Clark Shaughnessy of Chicago, and Charley Bachman of Michigan State and Paddy Driscoll of Marquette. . .

There was music and song aplenty. . . . The Lawson Y. M. C. A. Glee club rendered college anthems prior to the game, while the Green Bay Y. Glee club filled the air with melody during the half. . . . Music was supplied by the 175 piece All-Collegiate band under the direction of Glenn Bainum and Armin Hand's band. . . . The All-Star squad was first on the field and received a rousing hand from the rapidly filling stands. . . . When the Packers stormed on shortly after 8 o'clock a thunderous cheer went up from the west stands, where the ever loyal Green Bay delegation, which totaled 15,000, was seated. . . . Leading these rooters from the north was Mayor John S. Ferrell of Green Bay. . . . His honor was greeted yesterday morning with all of the ceremony befitting his position. . . . He was whisked from the railroad station to his hotel in an official civic car, and later had a chat with Mayor Kelly. . . . The same automobile took him to the game and back to his hotel. . . . The crowd liked the girl cheer leaders, led by Kay Stewart, the former Northwestern co-ed from Shenandoah, Ia., who is now a movie actress. Aiding her were Janice Hall, Anita Blum, and Dorothy Sullivan. . . .

The swift action of the first half was followed by one of the surprises of the night during the intermission. . . . The lights of the stadium winked out and a battalion of brilliant lights moved into the sudden darkness in marching array. . . . It was the 175 piece all-college band presenting a stunt which would do our best college troupes proud on any Saturday afternoon. . . . Headed by a guard carrying batons with whirling bulbs, the boys spelled out the words "Packers" and "All-Stars." The brilliant production was arranged by Glenn Bainum.

Monsignor Thomas Conry, president of the Columbia college of Dubuque, where Head Coach Dorais held his first job, was right back of the All-Americans' bench to root for Gus and his boys. . . . The boss man of the 1937 All-Stars and Mrs. Dorais will leave Saturday on a trip to Mackinac Island. . . . Jim Phelan and his wife head back for Seattle tomorrow. . . . Lynn Waldorf, his wife, and their two daughters left immediately after the game for Eagle River, Wis., where they will spend four or five days. . . . Bernie Moore entrains at 10 o'clock this morning for Baton Rouge, La., where his Louisiana State university squad already has begun training. . . . Bernie's roommate during the All-Star training session at Evanston was Maj. Lawrence M. [Biff] Jones of Nebraska, his predecessor at L. S. U. . . . The major watched the game from the press box. . . . The Rev. Albert H. Poetker, S. J., president of the University of Detroit, was among those cheering Dorais' charges. . . .

* * *

Gil Kuhn of Southern California flew back to Hollywood after the game to resume his duties as an assistant director at Twentieth Century-Fox. . . . With him was Jerry Conlee of St. Mary's of California, who will go right to work as a high school coach in San Francisco. . . . The Chicago Bears and Cardinals were represented en masse. . . . The Bears leave this morning for Dallas, Tex., to begin a five game training tour. . . . Art Rooney, boss of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was in the stands. . . . With him were Johnny Blood, the Pirates' new coach and former Packer star, and Shipwreck Kelly of the Brooklyn Dodgers. . . . Near them was Don Hutson's father, who came all the way from Fayetteville, Ala., to see the game. . . .

Mayor Kelly witnessed the game from the east side of the field. . . . State's Attorney Courtney also was a spectator. . . . Bishop Bernard J. Sheil flew from a church conference in St. Paul to be among those present. . . . Joe E. Brown was in a party with June Travis and her father, Harry Grabiner. . . . Dutch Meyer, Texas Christian coach, came up to watch his star, Sammy Baugh, sling passes.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

The Red Sox made two unearned runs and the White Sox made no runs in the 6½ innings the weather man tolerated of what was to have been a double-header at Comiskey park yesterday afternoon. The bobtailed 2 to 0 decision gave Bob Grove his thirteenth victory and second successive shutout.

Yesterday's shutout was the third the Sox have suffered in their last six games.

Five Hits Are Wasted.

The White Sox made five hits, including a leadoff triple by Luke Appling in the second inning and a double with one on and two out by Jim Dykes in the fourth. The Red Sox made only four hits, all singles, off Bill Dietrich, but deserved to win on their second run, although it technically was unearned. Their first run never should have reached first.

That first run, the victory number as things turned out, resulted from Appling's fumble of an easy grounder, a sacrifice, and Oscar Melillo's single. The second run was the result of two passes, a sacrifice, an intentional pass, and a dropped ball by Tony Rensa on what should have been a double play.

The White Sox opened up the first threat, then proceeded to blow it. Appling got the second inning under way with a triple to left center. Dykes then perpetrated a timid little strikeout, Piet tapped to Cronin, who was playing at Grove's side, and Rensa was thrown out by Cronin on a nice play in deep short.

Luke Foozles One.

Appling apparently was grieving about the collapse of his associates on the offense when Desautels bounced the ball straight at him at the start of the third. At any rate Luke put on a juggling act. Desautels reached second on Grove's sacrifice, after which Melillo, of all people, made the first hit off Dietrich, Desautels scoring. Cramer popped to Appling and Cronin fanned.

The Red Sox wasted a couple of singles in the fourth just before the rain busted loose. Higgins and Chapman made the hits.

The Red Sox's second run, like the first, was unearned, though that fact reflected little credit on Dietrich. Foxx and Higgins walked and advanced on Mills' sacrifice. Chapman was given an intentional pass, filling the bases. Desautels flied to Kreevich and Mike's perfect throw beat Foxx to the plate. Rensa dropped the ball when jolted by Foxx, so Jimmy was safe.

Terry Signs for 5 Years; Gets a Raise

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Sept. 1. — Bill Terry, whose New York Giants are giving the Chicago Cubs a fierce battle for the National league pennant, was rewarded for his club's success today with a new contract for five years with a boost in salary. The contract is effective for the 1938 season.

Bill's old contract, which had a year to run, was canceled.

The club's announcement said "the new contract will carry an increase in salary, part of which is for additional duties in connection with the operation of the Giants' farms system."

While both Terry and officials were silent, as usual, in the matter of figures, Bill is reported to be in line for an annual wage of $40,000 starting next season, giving him the highest salary for managers in both major leagues. Terry's present contract, a five year agreement signed after he piloted the Giants to a world championship in 1933, is said to have paid him $27,500 a year.

Terry reached an agreement with Horace Stoneham, Giant president, just before today's victory over the St. Louis Cardinals, which with the Cubs' defeat at the hands of the Dodgers, returned New York to the league lead.

Stoneham announced that Terry would continue as active manager of the team, setting at rest recent rumors that he had been slated for the post of general manager.

ALL-AMERICANS GAIN 115 YARDS BY AIR ATTACK

Pros Are Penalized Only 10 Yards.

Although their favorites were beaten by the College All-Americans, 6 to 0, in last night's game at Soldiers' field, followers of the Green Bay Packers found some satisfaction in the fact that the professional champions were superior in first downs and total yards gained.

The Packers piled up seventeen first downs to eight for the collegians. Nine of Green Bay's first downs were the result of passes, five were made by rushing, and three by penalty. The All-Americans made six first downs by rushing and two by passing.

Green Bay gained a total of 343 yards, 202 of which were from passes, 126 from rushing, and 15 by penalty. The All-Stars gained 185 yards in all, 115 of which were from passing, 65 from rushing, and 5 by penalty.

Thirty-eight passes were thrown by the Packers, 16 of which were completed. Two of the completions were the result of interference. Three of the Packer aerials were intercepted.

The All-Americans tossed 13 passes and completed 7. One was Baugh's 47 yard throw to Tinsley for the touchdown.

Each team averaged 39 yards on punts. The All-Stars were penalized 7 times for 45 yards, while the Packers suffered 2 penalties for a total of 10 yards. Each team fumbled once and recovered its own fumble.

FIRST QUARTER.

The All-Stars won the toss and chose to defend the south goal. Francis kicked off. The ball rolled out of bounds and was placed in play on Green Bay's 35 yard line. Baugh replaced La Rue at left half for the All-Stars. Hinkle picked up four yards off right tackle. A smash at the line lost five yards. Then Herber tossed a nine yard pass to Gantenbein. Baugh received Hinkle's punt on his 10 yard line and returned to the All-Stars' 25 yard line, where he was thrown by Bruder.

Green Bay was penalized five yards for offside. Baugh slid off his right tackle for four yards. Baugh then rifled a pass to Wendt, who was downed on Green Bay's 47 yard line. Drake smashed left tackle for 10 yards. Baugh passed to Tinsley for 11 yards. Baugh lost a yard at his right tackle. Francis failed to gain on a smash at center.

Place Kick Fails.

Baugh's long pass over the goal line was incomplete. Francis' try for a place kick from the 35 yard line was wide, giving the Packers the ball on their own 20 yard line.

Sauer went in for Miller and made a yard at left tackle. Herber's flat pass to Hinkle was incomplete. Sauer made 2 yards at his right tackle. Hinkle's punt rolled dead on the All-Stars' 32 yard line. Green Bay substituted Laws at full back for Herber.

Baugh's quick kick on the first play went over the goal line and the Packers took the ball on their 20 yard line. Hinkle made 3 yards on a spinner over the middle of the line. Sauer failed to gain on a reverse. Laws slipped on a try around his left end. Hinkle's punt sailed out of bounds on the All-Stars' 48 yard line.

Tinsley Shows Speed.

From here, however, Tinsley carried on, a twisting run which was worthy of any back. First he eluded Green Bay's Hank Bruder, who came rushing up to tackle. By the fraction of a step Tinsley got away from Bruder's clutching hands, and as Hank hit the turf he was in full flight down the western side lines.

Now it was entirely a question of speed. Joe Laws, the Bays' safety, came across at an angle. Tinsley gave ground until he was running almost on the chalk line which marked the boundary of the field. At the nine yard line Laws left his feet in a despairing, diving tackle. He hit Tinsley, staggered him by the momentum of his drive, but couldn't knock him down. Tinsley went on to the end zone for the winning score.

At the time the fact that Sam Francis, burly full back from Nebraska, failed to kick the extra point, seemed to invite disaster. Many in the throng last night remembered how the All-Americans of 1935 had scored first on the Detroit Lions, but that Detroit had rallied to finish in a tie, 7 to 7. Even those rabid collegians who were predicting more touchdowns to come by virtue of Baugh's accurate arm, were undoubtedly concerned.

Packers Outgain Foes.

But these six points held up, although the Packers were credited with seventeen first downs as compared to eight for the All-Americans. But once more first downs had no bearing on the outcome.

Green Bay also outgained the All-Americans 343 yards to 185 yards. All this proved was that the game was far more interesting than the score might indicate. It was reminiscent of such college games last year as Pittsburgh's victory over Ohio State, when the Panthers scored only one touchdown after a total gain of more than 300 yards.

Perhaps Green Bay might have done better had Herber been able to play in the last quarter. Arnie was hit hard midway in the third period just as he let loose a pass. The force of his fall dislocated his right shoulder. Thus the burden of passing in the last desperate Packer drives fell to Monnett.

Packers Start Drive.

The Packers had not made a first down up to the time Tinsley scored. Then, as in many of their victories last fall, goaded by the derisive cheers of the partisan spectators in the east stands, the Packers buckled to their task. Shortly after the teams changed goals for the second quarter Herber returned Baugh's punt to his own 24 yard line. The Packer machine started to roll.

In three plays, the last a pass from Clarke Hinkle to Hutson, the Packers gained ten yards. A long forward pass fell incomplete, but another, Herber to Hutson, gained 41 yards and placed the ball on the All-Americans' 25 yard line.

Hammer at All-Stars.

The Wisconsin folk, more than 8,000 of whom had come from Green Bay, roared approval. Could Herber beat the All-Star defenders with his passes?

One aimed at Herman Schneidman was knocked down. Then Monnett went wide to take a pass for a gain of nine yards. Now the Packers tried to catch the All-Americans with a surprise pass on third down, although only one yard was needed for first down. The pass failed, but on the fourth down play Herber broke loose around right end for a first down on the All-Stars' nine yard line.

Hinkle now went into action. His first sharp thrust into the line gained five yards. Again he hit over guard, but this time he was held to only two yards as Max Starcevich and Steve Reid piled under the attack.

Monnett tried left end but failed to gain. Time was taken out. Then Herber attempted a pass which had scored the winning touchdown for the Packers against the Bears in the now famous 17 to 14 game at Wrigley field. Herber threw quickly to Hutson as he ran wide along the line of scrimmage. Hutson caught the pass, but as he caught it Drake dropped him without gain. The All-Americans had broken the Packers' advance.

Baugh Punts Out.

Sammy Baugh now added to his laurels as a great triple threat back. Standing in his own end zone he kicked out and the ball rolled dead on the Packers' 47 yard line, a distance of 50 yards from the line of scrimmage.

Soon the Packers were threatening again in the same period. But this time Al Agett, half back from Michigan State, who had replaced Baugh, checked the advance. After the professionals had marched from their own 37 yard line to the All-Stars' 31 yard strip in five plays, Agett raced back under Herber's pass and intercepted it at the goal. Dodging and sidestepping, reversing his field twice, he almost escaped, but finally was brought down on his own 20 yard line.

The half ended as the Packers drove to the All-Americans' 33 yard line with Hutson completing the foray with a 17 yard run around the All-Stars' right end.

Coach Curley Lambeau of the Packers must have read the account to his men during the intermission. At least they came back to the field with a furious drive. It indicated their might, but it was a pace they could not maintain.

Another Drive Fails.

After Hinkle had brought back the kickoff to his own 30 yard line George Sauer, who was co-captain of the first All-American squad in 1934 when they played the Chicago Bears to a scoreless tie, shot through center for a gain of 30 yards.

Center was particularly vulnerable since the All-Stars chose to use a six man line on defense, a formation they did not vary all night. Hinkle hit for three yards and then Herber passed to Hutson for a first down on the All-Stars' 29 yard line. Hinkle smacked at right tackle for three yards and Sauer followed with a sharp thrust for four. But Hutson on his favorite end around play was stopped without gain and on fourth down a forward pass fell incomplete in the end zone for a touchback.

Play for the remainder of the third quarter was in All-American territory. After making first down on the All-Stars' 30 yard line four Packer plays could not gain the required distance.

A Last Effort.

The final Green Bay effort came late in the final period as thousands of spectators were banked around the exits. It started when Monnett passed 16 yards to Gantenbein for a first down on the Packers' 36 yard line. It finished eight plays later when Bud Wilkinson, Minnesota quarter back, tackled Bruder on the All-Americans' 39 yard line after he had caught Monnett's fourth down pass but still needed four yards for continuation of the march.

As the game was played it was apparent that the Packers were probably as overconfident as were the Bears three years ago when they were held to a scoreless tie. But otherwise there was no comparison. The battle was packed with thrills and it was an exhibition of open football which will not be duplicated until another Baugh matches passes with Herber.

Field Is Firm.

The gridiron was in excellent condition despite the intermittent showers yesterday. Protected by a huge canvas, the field was firm.

The All-Stars were outgained from scrimmage 126 yards to 65 yards, but this was to be expected, since almost from the first day of practice Coach Dorais had emphasized passing. Green Bay expected passes and in protection offered a six man secondary defense.

Packers Complete 17 First Downs While All-American Rivals Make 8

Before the next kickoff the All-Stars substituted a complete new team. Jankowski, full back for the collegians, kicked off over the goal line.

Sauer hit right tackle for two yards. Johnson, who replaced Hinkle at full back for the Packers made a yard on a line buck. Sauer went around right end for two yards. Sauer punted to Agett who returned 13 yards to midfield. Goldenberg dropped Agett for no gain. On the next play Agett attempted to pass but finding no receiver he ran to his right and went over right end for five yards.

Cardwell went around left end for 17 yards and a first down on the Packers' 30 yard line. The All-Stars were penalized 15 yards for intentionally grounding a pass, placing the ball on Green Bay's 45 yard line. Agett lost 4 yards on a smash at center. Agett then kicked out of bounds on the Packers' 5 yard line.

Laws slid through his left tackle for 4 yards. Law made 3 more yards on a delayed buck through center. An All-Star offside penalty gave Green Bay a first down on its 17 yard line. The All-Stars were again penalized for offside. Johnson cracked center for 2 yards placing the ball on the 25 yard line as the quarter ended. Score: All-Stars, 6; Green Bay, 0.

SECOND QUARTER.

The All-Stars started the second quarter with the entire team that started the game. Green Bay inserted its starting back field.

Monnett lost a yard at his left end. Herber's long pass to Hutson was knocked down by Drake. Hinkle kicked to Baugh, who returned 15 yards to the All-Star 39 yard line. Drake lost a yard, then made three off his left tackle. Baugh lost a yard on a reverse. Baugh kicked to Herber, who was dropped on Green Bay's 24 yard line.

Herber passed to Monnett, who was downed on the line of scrimmage. Hinkle picked up 3 yards at his right tackle. Herber passed to Hutson for 7 yards and a first down. Herber's 40 yard pass to Monnett was knocked down by Baugh.

Herber passed 41 yards to Hutson, who was dropped on the All-Stars' 25 yard line. Another pass was incomplete. Monnett went around his left end for 9 yards. Herber's pass to Gantenbein was incomplete. Herber went around his left end for seven yards and a first down on the nine yard line.

The All-Stars took time out. Hinkle went through left guard for five yards. Hinkle hit center for two yards, putting the ball on the two yard line. Monnett was stopped without gain at his right end. On the fourth down Herber passed to Hutson, who was thrown in his tracks on the line of scrimmage, the ball going to the All-Stars.

Baugh kicked from behind the goal line to the Packers' 47 yard line. Hinkle picked up 4 yards through center. Baugh intercepted Herber's long pass and returned 20 yards to the All-Stars' 44 yard line. Drake lost 3 yards on a try at his left tackle. Baugh's pass over center to Gelatka was incomplete. Baugh kicked to Monnett, who returned 15 yards to the Packers' 37 yard line.

Monnett failed to gain at right tackle. Herber's flat pass to Gantenbein was good for 13 yards and a first down in midfield. Herber's pass to Monnett gained six yards. Another Herber pass was incomplete. Gantenbein took Herber's pass for 13 yards and a first down on the 31 yard line.

Herber's short pass to Hutson was batted down. Monnett was stopped at his left end. Agett intercepted Herber's long pass on the All-Stars' 5 yard line and returned to the Collegians' 25 yard line. He was injured on the play and was replaced by Wilkie of Notre Dame. Wilkie hit center for four yards.

The gain was nullified by an offside penalty. Toth punted to the Packers' 39 yard line. Herber tried to pass, found no receiver and ran for nine yards. Wilkinson knocked down Herber's long pass to Miller. Hutson made 17 yards on an end around play as the half ended. Score: All-Stars, 6; Green Bay, 0.

THIRD QUARTER.

The All-Stars opened the third quarter with the same lineup that started the game. Francis kicked to Hinkle, who returned 15 yards to his 30 yard line. Sauer broke through center and raced 30 yards to the All-Stars' 40 yard line. Herber passed to Hutson for 10 yards. Hinkle hit tackle for 3 yards. Sauer went off right tackle for 4 yards. Hutson failed to gain on an end around. Herber's long pass was incomplete in the end zone and the All-Stars took the ball on their own 20 yard line.

Seibold threw Baugh for a five yard loss. Baugh's kick rolled dead on the Packers' 35 yard line. Sauer made 3 yards at right tackle. Green Bay took time out. Herber's short pass was knocked down by Drake. Baugh returned Herber's punt 15 yards to the All-Stars' 32 yard line. Letlow broke through and tossed Baugh for a seven yard loss. Baugh rifled a pass to Tinsley over center for 13 yards.

Packers Start Advance.

Drake dropped Baugh's pass over center. Baugh kicked out of bounds on the Packers' 27 yard line. Sauer hit left tackle for two yards. Herber's pass to Sauer was ruled complete for 15 yards on interference. Another pass, Herber to Hutson, was ruled complete because of interference, putting the ball on the All-Stars' 45 yard line. Scherer took Herber's flat pass and ran to the All-Stars' 30 yard line.

Laws replaced Herber. Monnett made a yard at right tackle. Laws was stopped for no gain. Monnett's pass to Scherer was short. Scherer took a short pass for a four yard gain, the All-Stars taking the ball on downs on their 25 yard line.

Agett raced around his right end for 21 yards, being downed on the All-Stars' 46 yard line. Agett lost a yard at left end. Cardwell lost four yards on two plays. Agett kicked out of bounds on the Packers' 47 yard line.

Laws failed to gain at center. On the next play the All-Stars were penalized 5 yards for offside. Johnson hit right tackle for 3 yards and then picked up a yard at right tackle. Johnson kicked out of bounds on the All-Americans' five yard line. Jankowski smashed center for 5 yards as the third quarter ended. Score: All-Stars, 6; Green Bay, 0.

FOURTH QUARTER.

Baugh kicked to Laws, who was downed on the All-Star 46 yard line. Tinsley stopped Laws for a five yard loss. Laws hit left tackle for nine yards. Monnett's pass to Schneidman was incomplete. Johnson kicked over the goal line, giving the All-Stars the ball on their 20 yard line.

Baugh was stopped. Baugh passed 20 yards to Tinsley, who ran to the Packers' 47 yard line. Drake smashed through left tackle for 11 yards to the Packers' 36 yard line. Francis failed to gain. Baugh's pass to Tinsley failed.

Another pass was incomplete. Baugh kicked out of bounds on the Packers' 25 yard line. Monnett ran around his right end for seven yards. Hinkle picked up three yards on the next play. Baugh intercepted Monnett's long pass and returned it to the Packers' 46 yard line.

Francis went around his right end for 7 yards. Francis hit right tackle for 3 yards and a first down on the 35 yard line. Baugh's pass slipped through Tinsley's fingers. Wilkinson's attempt for a place kick was short and Hutson returned the kick to the Packers' 20 yard line.

Packers Renew Attack.

Monnett's pass to Hutson was knocked down by Baugh. Gantenbein took Monnett's pass over center and ran 15 yards to the Packers' 35 yard line. Monnett rifled a pass to Joe Laws, who was run out of bounds on the All-Stars' 47 yard line. Drake threw Monnett for a 6 yard loss.

A Green Bay pass was incomplete. Monnett passed to Gantenbein on the All-Stars' 33 yard line. Monnett's pass was incomplete. Hutson, on an end around, lost 6 yards. Joe Laws slipped through left tackle for 5 yards.

Monnett's pass to Bruder failed and the All-Stars regained the ball. Baugh's pass to Wilkinson gained 6 yards. Two smashes at the line failed. The All-Stars were penalized 5 yards for taking too much time. Baugh kicked out of bounds on the Packers' 30 yard line.

Monnett's pass to Laws gained 9 yards. Johnson hit center for 5 yards as the game ended. Final score: All-Stars, 6; Green Bay, 0.

PACKERS SILENT IN DEFEAT—AND VERY DISGUSTED

BY GEORGE STRICKLER.

A chastened, surprised Green Bay Packer football team dressed in silence and slipped away from Soldiers' field last night with its only manifestation one of disgust.

The opinion of National league friends that they had given a better demonstration of football than their professional predecessors in the annual All-Star game was small solace for the 6 to 0 defeat Sammy Baugh and company draped on a smug championship eleven in the first quarter and doggedly defended against a determined assault for the rest of the night.

Nothing cut quite as much as the knowledge that they had failed to score. Arnie Herber, his dislocated shoulder strapped in a sling preparatory to departure for the hospital and an X-ray examination, led the praise for Sammy Baugh. Herber will be out about a month.

Lambeau Praises Tinsley.

Coach Curley Lambeau, who was more interested in winning last night's game than repeating in the National league race, tempered praise for Baugh with a eulogy of Gaynell Tinsley, whose run for the winning touchdown rivaled anything Green Bay's own Don Hutson ever has done.

"We lost the game on the three yard line on third down in the second quarter," Lambeau said.

"It was the first time in three seasons that we have gotten down there and failed to score.

"Widseth played an exceptional game at tackle and the entire All-Star line charged as hard as any we have ever met. Baugh, however, was the difference in the ball game. He's in a class by himself as a passer. He can kick with any one, and I hope we don't have to try to catch him all year in the pro league."

Hutson Sees Some Offense.

Hutson, who played in the All-Star game two years ago, was impressed with the All-Stars' offense. He did not think this year's squad measured anywhere near other All-American squads on defense, however.

To other observers last night's game once more proved the football axiom that a good team defeats itself more often than opponents beat it. The Packers were not up for the game. Baugh's shots to Tinsley and the touchdown aroused the champions, but other than to take the upper hand for the rest of the game they couldn't do much about it.

Red Smith, assistant coach, paid tribute to the All-Star coaches. "They turned out one of the best jobs in the history of this game. That offense was superb. And that Baugh can do us a great favor by joining the St. Louis Cardinals instead of the Washington Redskins."

Herber Only Injury.

Outside of Herber, whose injury occurred early in the third period and left the Packers without their chief offensive threat when they were making their most desperate effort, all the men came out of the game in good condition.

Joe Laws, who was the offensive star of the first All-Star game and who led the Packers on several futile marches last night, was unwilling to take anything from this year's crop of All-Americans, but said he did not believe they measured up to the 1934 group.

None was willing to discuss the chief reason for the Packers' failure—the air of detachment which characterized the team's preparation for the game. This indifference toward the All-Stars held over until after Tinsley had scored. Then it was too late.

The football team was there, as statistics reveal. The Packers led in nearly every department of the table. The lone and most important exception was in points scored, and the more the Packers realized that the team which hurried over the touchdown in the first quarter could not make a real threat the rest of the way the more they became disgusted and sought unwatched exits. It was a great lesson, but it came high.

ALL-STARS ARE ALL SMILES IN DRESSING ROOM

They Greet Sammy Baugh as Their Hero.

BY CHARLES BARTLETT.

The dressing room in the southeast corner of Soldiers' field was the quietest nook in the big lake front stadium shortly after 11 o'clock last night. There were still ten minutes of the fourth annual All-Star game to be played, and Jack Williamson and the rest of the trainers who stayed behind had naught to do but await the coming of their charges.

Twenty minutes later this same sequestered room, down there under the stands, was the scene of joyous confusion. The actors in these little back stage doings were the 1937 All-Stars, and well they might be, for they had conquered the mighty Green Bay Packers and had thus become the first collegiate squad in four years to triumph over a professional eleven.

Tinsley Is Exuberant.

The first trio to break the peace of the little room was composed of big Ed Widseth of Minnesota, Merle Wendt of Ohio State, and Vernon Huffman, winner of THE TRIBUNE's most valuable player trophy last season. There were still those ten minutes to go, but the three, the first to be released from the field, could hardly conceal their feelings at being part of the first team to lick the pros.

There was no need to hide that sentiment when Gaynell Tinsley burst into the room and, forgetting a bruised right shoulder, allowed as how they had turned the trick. The exuberant Tinsley, who speaks in a drawl, scored the one touchdown of the game.

Baugh Is Their Hero.

They continued to troop in from there on, submitting to the ministrations of Williamson and his staf. Billy Glassford, husky little Pittsburgh star, said: "When that Gantenbein hit me I thought a boom had fallen on me." Shortly after Bud Svendsen, young Minnesota center, who had been all over the field for most of the game, came in and announced there were just fifty-five seconds to go.

Svendsen was followed by Duquesne's giant, Mike Basrak, who smiled over a bleeding nose and pronounced the final word, "that's one in the bag for the All-Stars."

The last to enter the room was a slender, black-haired youth who probably looked less like a football player than most of his associates. They all rushed up to congratulate him, and with reason, for the quiet young man was Samuel Baugh, the hero of the evening and the greatest passer All-Star crowds have seen. Samuel made haste to hop into a shower, but not before he had carefully tucked away the black striped ghost ball which he had been pitching hither and yon throughout the evening.

Packers Are Lauded.

Baugh was only one of several players to praise the Packers as a real football team, and Sammy made a particular point of stressing their sportsmanship.

Aside from Baugh, Coaches Gus Dorais, Lynn Waldorf, Elmer Layden, Jimmy Phelan, and Bernie Moore had high praise for Widseth, Svendsen, Woody Stromberg of the Army, Eddie Jankowski of Wisconsin, and Al Agett of Michigan State.

164 OPEN PLAY IN U. S. SINGLES TOURNEY TODAY

Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 1.—(AP)—The national men's and women's tennis singles tournament will open tomorrow afternoon on the courts of the West Side Tennis club.

There will be daily competition and elimination, weather permitting, until the starting groups of 100 men and 64 women are reduced to the finalists in each division on Sept. 11.

The strongest candidates for the men's championship, won last year and three times out of the last four by England's Fred Perry, now a professional, are Don Budge of Oakland, Cal., and Baron Gottfried von Cramm of Germany.

Shostrom, Zukas Win Easily in Tennis Meet

John Shostrom and Joseph Zukas, seeded No. 1 and 8, respectively, in the 24th annual Hamilton park tennis tournament, advanced to the quarter finals yesterday. Shostrom, a member of the University of Chicago squad, defeated Harold Macdona, 6-0, 6-0, and Zukas beat Frank Clark, 6-2, 6-3.

IT'S GIANTS' TURN TO PASS CUBS; THEY TAKE IT, 7-3

Schumacher Pitches; Ott Hits; Cards Lose.

New York, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The New York Giants bounced back into first place in the National league pennant race today. They defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, 7 to 3, while the Chicago Cubs were losing in Brooklyn. The Giants have a two percentage point lead.

Hal Schumacher subdued the Cardinals easily after a shaky first inning. He scattered the Cardinals' nine hits and exhibited fine control.

The Giants landed on Lon Warneke from the start, took the lead with a three run attack in the third and knocked out the star right-hander with another uprising in the fourth. It was a knockout in more ways than one. Warneke, who stopped a fast drive from Jimmy Ripple's bat with his ribs in the third inning, was struck in the right thigh by another drive by Ripple in the fourth.

Dick Bartell, as well as Ripple, was on base, with one out, when Mel Ott hit the first pitch delivered by Warneke's successor, Mike Ryba, against the upper right field deck for his 29th home run of the season.

REDS, BEES SPLIT.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Eight hit pitching by Lou Fette, the Bees' 30 year old rookie, gave Boston a 4 to 1 victory in the second game of a double-header with Cincinnati today after the Reds took the opener, 5 to 1, behind Paul Derringer's six hit performance.

The Bees took the series, two games to one, and now trail the fourth place Pittsburgh Pirates by three and a half games in their drive for a first division berth.

Fette won his own game in the sixth inning when, with the bases filled on two walks and Moore's single, he drove a single into right field that scored two runs. Two were out at the time.

Yankees Just a Ball Team to Galehouse

Cleveland, O., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Steady pitching by Denny Galehouse, who yielded only seven hits, six of them singles, today gave the Indians a 4 to 2 victory over the New York Yankees.

The Yankees were first to score on Bill Dickey's double and Myril Hoag's infield out in the second, but were overhauled in the fourth when, with Hal Trosky on base, Julius Solters hit his eleventh homer of the year over the right field wall.

SENATORS, 8; TIGERS, 2.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Wes Ferrell set the Detroit Tigers down with five hits today as his Washington mates were pounding three pitchers for an 8 to 2 victory. Pat McLaughlin, rookie brought up from Indianapolis of the American association, started for Detroit and was touched for ten hits and four runs in the sixth innings he worked. Jake Wade and Jack Russell followed him to the mound, but failed to stop the Senators' slugging.

Lee, Whitehead Oppose Boston for Sox Today

The rained-out second game of yesterday's scheduled White Sox-Red Sox double-header will be played as part of a double bill at Comiskey park this afternoon. Thornton Lee and John Whitehead will pitch for the Sox. Johnny Marcum and Archie McKain probably will work for the Bostonese.

Yesterday saw the lifting of the 23 player limit and from now on Manager Dykes will be busy looking over newcomers. He must find a third baseman, a second baseman, another utility outfielder, a pitcher or two and a catcher or two before the 1938 campaign. The main vacancies, however, are in the infield.

DOROTHY TRAUNG WINS, 7 AND 6; GOES TO THIRD ROUND

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Dorothy Traung of San Francisco and Medalist Virginia Guilfoil of Syracuse, N. Y., went into the third round of the Mason-Dixon golf tournament today with easy victories. Miss Traung defeated Mrs. George Owens of Petersburg, Va., 7 and 6, while Miss Guilfoil of Syracuse, N. Y., beat Mrs. Neil Wessels of Roanoke, Va., 9 and 7.

Sally Elson of Columbus was carried to eighteen holes by Mrs. Lois Rogers of Parkersburg, W. Va., before taking the second round match 2 up. Other second round results:

Mrs. Ann Hoblitzell, Parkersburg, W. Va., defeated Mrs. Freeda Nolan, Newcastle, Pa., 8 and 6.

Cubs Lose to Dodgers, 6-4; Drop to 2d

The Dodgers got started in the seventh when Lavagetto singled back of second. Phelps bounced a drive past Galan for two bases, Lavagetto scoring the tying run. Brack bunted and Davis, with ample time for a play at third, heaved the ball into left field, Phelps scoring and Brack going to second. Cavarretta picked up English's grounder, but Davis forgot to cover first base so it went for a hit.

Davis threw out Wilson and Henshaw settled for three strikes. Cooney dumped a single between Galan and Jurges in short left, Brack and English tearing home to give the local menagerie a 4 to 1 lead. Bucher whacked a drive toward the 407 foot sign in center, but just about the time Cooney was nearing the plate with the fifth run, Stainback hung his gloved hand up over his head to complete one of those story book catches.

The Cubs' eighth inning bounce back into a 4 to 4 tie began with a pass to Herman, who pulled up at third on Demaree's double to left. Hartnett slashed a single into center, Herman scoring. Demaree scored a moment later and Parmelee, who ran for Hartnett, went to second on a wild pitch. After Jurges had been thrown out, Marty, who batted for Cavarretta, singled to center, sending Parmelee home with the tying run. Butcher came to Henshaw's relief and induced Stainback to roll to English for a double play.

With one out in the Dodgers' eighth Lavagetto singled to right. Phelps filed to Stainback in deep center, Lavagetto sprinting to second after the catch. Frey, who went to third when Hack had to move to first to fill in for Cavarretta, let Brack's grounder slip through his hands, Lavagetto scoring and Brack taking second on the throw to the plate. Alumnus English then singled to center to send Brack home. Shoun came in and fanned Wilson for the third out.

Bill Lee Pitches for Cubs Today Against Dodgers

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 1.—The Cubs' eastern chores for the season will come to a conclusion tomorrow in a single battle with the local funny fellows. Bill Lee who hasn't lasted through a full game since he injured his side Aug. 7 will do the pitching. It will be Luke Hamlin for the Dodgers.

Burleigh Grimes, the Dodger manager, was given a royal blast by the local newspapers today for charging onto the field yesterday and ordering Bud Hassett, his first baseman, from the game because the young man had committed a fumble. Burleigh always cools off quickly after his periodic flareups so Hassett was back on the job today.

While taking pre-game batting practice today, Phil Cavarretta cracked himself on the right ankle with a foul off his own bat. Phil limped off to the club house where an application of Doc Lotshaw's magic fish oil restored the athlete to playing condition.

FARR FIGHT PAYS LOUIS HIS FOURTH LARGEST PURSE

New York, Sept. 1.—[Special.]—For his unspectacular fifteen round victory over Tommy Farr Monday night at Yankee stadium, Joe Louis received the fourth largest purse of his career, final statistics on the gate revealed today. Joe got $102,585.38—40 per cent of the net. He received more money only against Max Baer, Max Schmeling, and Jim Braddock. Farr's share was $51,292, biggest of his career.

Promoter Mike Jacobs, instead of suffering a loss, as widely predicted, made a profit of approximately $50,000. The total receipts were $325,733.95, including radio, movies, and concessions. The gross gate came to $265,733.95 and the net was $222,446.04. The milk fund's share was $22,162.60, 10 per cent of the net. Total attendance was 36,003, with 33,469 paying their way.

Commission to Hear Dispute Over Marek

The legality of Promoter Mique Malloy's contract with Max Marek will be determined at the next meeting of the Illinois boxing commission Tuesday at 1 p. m. Promoter Billy Cepak has signed Marek to defend his state heavyweight title against Art Oliver at White City Sept. 10. . . . Henry Armstrong, featherweight champion, who stopped Orville Drouillard at Detroit Tuesday, will meet Charley Burns in a ten round nontitle bout at Pittsburgh, Pa., next Tuesday. . . . Al Manfredo, California welterweight, yesterday accepted a ten round encounter with Henry Schaft of Minneapolis at Des Moines Sept. 13. . . . Roy W. Gillman will promote a show at Des Moines Sept. 27.

Izzy Kline, Golden Gloves trainer, returned yesterday from New York where he seconded Buddy Baer to a three round technical knockout over Big Abe Simon on the Louis-Farr title card. He is supervising the training of Pete Lello, his lightweight protégé, for an encounter at Marigold Gardens Sept. 20. . . . Charley Gomer, eastern lightweight, will open drills at Trafton's gymnasium this afternoon for a ten round headliner with Davey Day at Marigold Tuesday. . . . It cost Marigold promoters $500 during negotiations for two contests which didn't materialize involving Davey Day and Henry Armstrong, and Day and Pedro Montanez. . . . Johnny Barbara, last year's Golden Gloves welterweight finalist, who is fighting successfully as a professional, left last night for Ferndale, N. Y., to join Barney Ross' sparring staf for Ross' championship defense against Ceferino Garcia Sept. 23.

Ivan Rasputin has agreed to wrestle Jack Claybourn at White City on Monday. . . . Francis Smith, Aurora southpaw featherweight, will appear in one of eight amateur bouts at White City Tuesday. . . . When and if Mike Jacobs gets the boxing rights at Chicago Stadium this fall and winter Joe Foley will be the nominal promoter and Mickey Farr the matchmaker.

SIR JIM JAMES WINS; HE'LL TRY AGAIN SATURDAY

Jocky Jacobs and Success Get Acquainted.

Sir Jim James prepared for Saturday's running of the La Salle handicap at Lincoln Fields yesterday with a victory in the Gridiron handicap. Edward W. Duffy's 4 year old performer showed his best form in some time by leading home Prince Torch, Black Sleeve, Boston Sound, and Danarco. His time for the mile over a good track was 1:39.

Jocky Joe Jacobs, whose successes have been few and far between this year, was astride the Detroit-owned colt and it was his second winning ride of the afternoon. Sir Jim James went to the post at even money, but last minute betting on Danarco forced his price up a bit and he paid $4.40.

Jocky Jacobs was content to let Sir Jim James follow the early pace set by the extreme outsider, Boston Sound. He came to the front on the turn and drew away to a good margin as he started down the stretch.

Miss Pittypat, which used to show signs of stopping at five and one-half furlongs, scored her second straight victory at six furlongs in the fifth race. Miss Pittypat raced six furlongs over a good track in 1:14 2-5. The odds-on choice, Cross Keys, finished second, with Puddin third.

Six went to the post for the race. Puddin, Cross Keys, and Miss Pittypat were well bunched in the early running. Cross Keys turned for home with a slight margin over Puddin, but Miss Pittypat moved up on the outside to win by a length and a half. Paul Ryan was up on Miss Pittypat, which paid $12.80.

YATES' 137 WINS WESTERN GOLF TOURNEY MEDAL

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 1.—(AP)—The deep south stole the thunder of the western golf tourney today when Charles Yates of Atlanta, Ga., won medal honors with a 36 hole qualifying score of 137. Yates, western titlist in 1935 and former national intercollegiate champion from Georgia Tech, broke par 71 for a 67 over the north course of the Los Angeles Country club, putting it with his initial round of 70.

Trailing Yates was Bob Servis of Dayton, O., who scored four birdies for 69, giving him a total score of 141. At 143 came Wilford Wehrle of Racine, Wis. Ray Billows, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., runner-up in the national amateur, who carded a first round 75, had 73 today for 148. He did the back nine in 33.

Chick Evans of Chicago came in with a 70, qualifying with 148 for a tournament he has won nine times.

CAMPBELL SETS A WORLD RECORD FOR WATER SPEED

LOCARNO, Switzerland, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Driven, at 52, by a thirst for rapid transit that 30 years of racing experience never have quenched, Sir Malcolm Campbell, soft spoken Briton, held world speed records for both land and water tonight.

The land record he achieved in 1935 when he drove his huge Bluebird over the Bonneville salt flats in Utah at 301.13 miles an hour. Today he snared the world motorboat record from Detroit's Gar Wood by sending his single-engined hydroplane, also named Bluebird, at an average speed of 125.7959 miles an hour on Lake Maggiore. Wood set the old record of 124.86 m. p. h. at Algonac, Mich., in 1932.

Time, :23 3-5, :47 4-5, 1:14 3-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Hammel, $3.60 straight, $3.00 place, $2.40 show; Gray Ethel, $7.40 place, $4.00 show; Dance Princess, $2.80 show. Winner trained by J. V. Pons. Went to post at 2:15½. At post ½ minute. Start good from gate. Won easily; place driving.

HAMMEL, much the best, was allowed to move up steadily while under mild restraint the first half mile, quickly disposed of GRAY ETHEL when placed to urging and, taken in hand in the last sixteenth, won with something left. GRAY ETHEL had good speed from the start, could not withstand the winner, but held on well to the last eighth, where she weakened. DARK PRINCESS, eased back when racing on the inside on the turn, did not menace the leaders thereafter and also faltered badly in the late stages.

SECOND RACE—Six furlongs. Purse $800. Net value to winner, $600; second, $125; third, $50; fourth, $25.

Time, :23 3-5, :48, 1:15 1-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Scarlet O., $12.20 straight, $7.20 place, $3.80 show; Abanico, $22.60 place, $8.00 show; Wise Princess, $3.60 show. Winner trained by H. Wells. Went to post at 2:45½. Off at once. Start good from gate. Won easily; place driving.

SCARLET O., away slowly and rushed to contention on the outside, continued to lose ground when overtaking the leaders soon after reaching the stretch and, opening up a safe lead, was taken under restraint in the last sixteenth. ABANICO, a factor from the start, was under strong urging the last five-sixteenths and held on with determination. WISE PRINCESS, never a great distance back, raced wide when moving up through the stretch and held on courageously to the end.

BELLEEK, improved and raced wide after three-eighths, came with a rush in the final quarter and, opening up a good lead, held EVA R. safe. Latter was moving up strongly when blocked in the stretch, rallied after coming to the outside, and was strongest of all in the final stages. JOBIOSO, well up from the start, was in close quarters in the stretch and closed well when clear.

FOURTH RACE—Six furlongs. Purse $800. Net value to winner, $600; second, $125; third, $50; fourth, $25.

GOV. LAFFOON [C.Rollins]	115	7	8	6^2	5^1	5½	9	J.H.Manheimer	11.00-1

Time, :23 1-5, :47 3-5, 1:14 3-5. Weather cloudy. Two dollar mutuels paid: Good Cheer, $7.20 straight, $4.40 place, $3.20 show; Whata Question, $14.20 place, $8.80 show; Between Bells, $10.20 show. Winner trained by R. O. Higdon. Went to post at 3:43. At post 3 minutes. Start good from gate. Won easily; place driving.

GOOD CHEER, away fast and having speed, took an easy lead on the turn, was shaken up repeatedly when drawing out in the final eighth, but might have had something left. WHATA QUESTION, a prominent factor from the start, was under stout urging after a half mile and weakened in the late stages, but withstood the rush of BETWEEN BELLS. Latter, kept on the inside when far back, came between horses when closing with a rush the last three-sixteenths.

FIFTH RACE—Six furlongs. Purse $800. Net value to winner, $600; second, $125; third, $50; fourth, $25.

Time, :23, :47 2-5, 1:14 2-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Miss Pittypat, $12.80 straight, $4.40 place, $2.80 show; Cross Keys, $3.20 place, $2.40 show; Puddin, $2.60 show. Winner trained by owner. Went to post at 4:12. At post 3 minutes. Start good from gate. Won easily; place driving.

MISS PITTYPAT, on the inside early but taken out before reaching the final three-eighths and kept under steady restraint for a half mile, responded when called upon and after wearing down the leaders drew out gradually. CROSS KEYS forced the pace under a snug hold, held the lead briefly soon after reaching the stretch and, when shaken up, failed to respond, yet outstayed PUDDIN. Latter had speed from the start, but weakened when the real test came.

SIXTH RACE—One mile. Handicap, grade C. Three year olds and up. Purse $1,000. Net value to winner, $700; second, $200; third, $75; fourth, $25.

Time, :23, :46 4-5, 1:11 4-5, 1:38. Two dollar mutuels paid: Sir Jim James, $4.40 straight, $3.00 place, $2.80 show; Prince Torch, $3.20 place, $2.40 show; Black Sleeve, $3.20 show. Winner trained by G. R. Miller. Went to post at 4:42. At post ½ minute.

SIR JIM JAMES, raced wide when under strong restraint early, saved some ground after drawing into a good lead on the turn, was kept on the inside in the stretch and, placed to stout urging in the final eighth, withstood the bid of PRINCH TORCH. Latter, raced wide throughout and allowed to remain out of it for five-eighths, came with fine belated speed thereafter and was slowly getting to the winner. BLACK SLEEVE gave an even effort.

SEVENTH RACE—Mile and one-sixteenth. Claiming. Three year olds and up. Purse $800. Net value to winner, $600; second, $125; third, $50; fourth, $25.

Time, :24, :48 1-5, 1:14 1-5, 1:41, 1:48. Two dollar mutuels paid: Toney Boy, $6.20 straight, $3.60 place, $2.60 show; Mardromel, $4.60 place, $2.60 show; Saracen, $2.20 show. Winner trained by C. Sitgraves. Went to post at 5:13. At post 3½ minutes. Start good. Won easily; place driving.

TONEY BOY, rated under snug restraint for three-quarters and responding stoutly when called upon, took command with a rush and was in hand the last sixteenth. MARDROMEL, badly outrun for three-quarters, closed well. SARACEN was under energetic riding after a half mile, swerved out slightly on the stretch turn, and weakened after seven-eighths.

EIGHTH RACE—Mile and one-sixteenth. Claiming. Three year olds and up. Purse $800. Net value to winner, $600; second, $125; third, $50; fourth, $25.

Time, :24 3-5, :48 2-5, 1:13 3-5, 1:40 3-5, 1:47 4-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Second Guess, $31.40 straight, $8.00 place, $5.40 show; Swamp Angel, $3.80 place, $3.20 show; Easy Sailing, $3.60 show. Winner trained by N. Moran. Went to post at 5:42½. At post ½ minute. Start good. Won driving; place same.

SECOND GUESS, raced wide throughout, made the pace under steady reserve for three-quarters, withstood challenges after reaching the last three-sixteenths, and was drawing out slowly at the end. SWAMP ANGEL, also under restraint for three-quarters, rallied when called upon, but was inclined to bear over in the last eighth. EASY SAILING, weakly ridden, was allowed to drop back on the final turn, lost much ground entering the stretch, and closed well while racing wide thereafter.

SEABISCUIT GETS 128 POUNDS FOR GOLD CUP RACE

$15,000 Event to Feature Hawthorne Season.

Seabiscuit, acknowledged handicap champion of North America by virtue of seven straight stake victories, has been given top weight of 128 pounds for the Hawthorne Gold Cup race, $15,000 added feature of the Hawthorne meeting which opens Labor day and continues for four weeks.

Racing Secretary Julius Reeder assigned to Seabiscuit, which races for Mrs. C. S. Howard of San Francisco, the highest possible weight. Next highest on the list of thirty-two nominees is John Manfuso's Aneroid, which gets in at 122 pounds. Conditions of this year's running of the Cup race call for weights to be limited to 128 maximum and 108 minimum.

The Cup race is to be run Sept. 11, the same day as the Narragansett Special, and in a letter today to Reeder, C. S. Howard stated his final decision as to Seabiscuit's engagement will await announcement of weights for the New England event. Seabiscuit will be forced to carry much more weight in the latter race, it is believed.

Following are the weights:

Horse.	Wt.	Horse.	Wt.
Seabiscuit	128	Carvola	110
Aneroid	122	Mucho Gusto	110
Tempestuous	120	Sir Jim James	110

Large Mouthed Bass Taking Live Lures at Geneva

BY BOB BECKER.

Chicago fishermen visiting Lake Geneva, Wis., lately have been getting some dandy strings of large mouthed black bass by using live bait. This big lake, which is within easy driving distance of Chicago, often is overlooked by anglers. But judging from the catches of recent days, it pays a lot of the boys to stop there and unlimber their tackle.

When we stopped at the lake a few days ago to see how the fish were striking and to arrange for a day on the lake, we found that F. C. Eckmann of Chicago and his two fishing partners had checked in at the dock around 10:30 in the morning. They were forced to call it a day because everybody had his limit of bass.

There were other limit catches on the books, because the large mouths were waiting to strike live bait.

But the small mouthed bass haven't been quite so active. The strings of fish brought in are made up mostly of large mouths. Along with these fish the fishermen usually have had strikes from rock bass or bluegills, which are quite plentiful in the lake.

To catch bass in a deep lake like Geneva means getting the crayfish lure way down. The "soft shells" [as the boys call them] are an irresistible lure to the bass, and the best Lake Geneva fishing has been enjoyed since the guides have turned to this type of live bait.

You drift over the deep bars with the live bait and hook weighted so it will get down near the bottom. Sometimes they find the bass in 25 or 3 feet of water. Our guides up there recommend a small hook and gut leader. They do not advise the use of a small spinner, either.

CARRIER SHARES SKID AND OTHER GROUPS CRASH

Hand Real Surprise to Most Traders.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Sept. 1.—In one of the widest breaks this year, prices on the stock exchange today fell to new low levels for the current movement, and several issues, particularly in the rail division, touched new low marks for the year and more. Losses ran up to five points among leading industrial stocks, with occasional sharper drops. Utilities could not buck the trend, but held losses to fractions.

Sales increased to 818,910 shares, but trading was not lively at any time. Of the 781 issues traded, 606 declined, only 61 advanced, and 114 held unchanged.

Traders Handed a Surprise.

Traders were reported confused by the market's behavior. They had asserted that the recent setbacks had put the list in a position for an upturn.

Offerings were not especially heavy, but the persistent liquidation caught the list without nearby bids, forcing price variations that were out of line with custom. Much of the liquidation was said by brokers to come from "outside" sources, day by day traders standing by puzzled as to what to do next.

Reports that railroads in the first seven months this year failed to cover fixed charges added to the heaviness of the market. New York Central, in heavy volume, dropped 2 points to a new low for the year. Among others to make new lows were Southern Pacific, off 2; Chesapeake, off 1; Atlantic Coast Lines, off 2⅜, and Pennsylvania, off 2¼. Issues to lose 1 to 2 points included Atchison, Illinois Central, Union Pacific, and Southern Railway.

Steel Group Falls.

The weakness was apparent at the opening as leading stocks came out fractions to 1 point lower. United States Steel started on a block of 1,000 shares at a major fractional loss, extending that loss to 4⅛ points to close at 104¼; Youngstown, off 4¼; National Steel, off 4; Bethlehem, off 3⅝, and American Rolling Mills, off 2¼, were among the heavier losers in the steel division.

Commonwealth and Southern was an active utility issue, holding to the previous closing. Other favorites, including American Power and Light, Electric Power and Light, Consolidated Edison, and Standard Gas and Electric, dropped, showing losses ranging up to nearly a point.

After a firm spell, Chrysler was pushed lower for a net low of 3 points. The issue was in good supply. General Motors, also well traded, dropped 1¾ points.

Metal Shares Also Break.

Losses in the nonferrous metals group ran to 2 and 3 points. Anaconda was volume leader for a 2 point loss.

Deere and International Harvester each declined about 5 points. Oliver and Case lost 3 points each. Sears dropped 3 points and Montgomery Ward lost 2¾ points in heavy volume.

Radio corporation, again the most active issue of the day, eased a fraction. Western Union and American Telephone gave up 2¼ and 1½ points, respectively.

Socony-Vacuum, off 2 points, led the oil division downward. Phillips Petroleum dropped more than 4 points on news the company planned to offer additional stock.

Douglass, off 2½, and Boeing, off ¾, were soft aviation issues. Rubbers lost up to 2 points. In the chemicals, Allied lost 7 points on a nominal turnover, and du Pont 2 points.

Arrangements were made today for sale of an exchange membership for $75,000, off $6,000 from the last transaction. This was the lowest price since April 9, 1935, when three seats were sold at $73,000, $74,000, and $75,000.

AUGUST BUILDING IN CHICAGO RISES TO $3,972,600

Chicago construction activities, which have been declining since April, reversed the trend last month and climbed to $3,972,600, the highest level in six years. The total is also the largest for any month since March, 1931, and the highest for August in seven years, but far below August, 1930, when the total was $7,634,700.

It was more than a million and a half dollars higher than July, 1937, and $2,367,750 greater than in August, 1936.

Home building again registered increases. Permits were issued for 94 single family dwellings last month, compared with 81 in July and 85 in August last year.

In the first eight months of 1937 permits were taken out for 800 new homes, compared with 537 during the same months of 1936. So far this year all permits totaled $22,202,983, against $12,323,065 a year ago.

During August permits were also issued for 55 business buildings, six office buildings, four apartment buildings, four schools, four stores and flat buildings, and one church.

Air Trafic from Chicago Sets Record During August

Departures from the Chicago municipal airport during August set an all-time monthly record of 15,175 passengers, compared with the previous record of 14,744 departures in July, Edward J. Eidson, manager of the consolidated ticket office at the airport, announced yesterday. Departures in August, 1936, totaled 11,991 persons.

Stock Breaks Bring Fear to Business Men

BY HOWARD WOOD.

Yesterday's sharp decline in stock prices, coming almost on the eve of the Labor day holiday, which normally is supposed to mark the end of the seasonal summer recession in business, attracted widespread interest among business men.

An inquiry into opinion along La Salle street disclosed that most brokers were again looking down at the bottom of the rain barrel. Brokers naturally are inclined to be apprehensive after a long period of dullness in the market, but their uneasiness yesterday appeared to be shared to some extent by business men and investors.

Trade Reports Less Favorable.

Current trade reports are not as good as had been expected a month or two ago. The Iron Age in its weekly survey of the steel industry expressed the opinion that the outlook for fall business was not as bright as had been anticipated. The Edison Electric Institute reported a contraseasonal drop in output of electric utility companies. Railroad equipment purchases have fallen off. In a number of important industries, including steel, producers have been "eating off the pile"; that is, maintaining their current high level of operations by reducing their backlog of orders.

These developments, together with an apparent slackening in the previously strong upward trend of corporate earnings, have sent business men into huddles with their statistical stafs in efforts to determine whether recent developments have put the brakes on the recovery movement.

Rails First to Show Change.

The railroads were the first to show discouraging signs. During the first six months rail earnings continued to push upward, but shortly before the end of the second quarter, as prices of materials and costs of operation began to rise sharply, railroad earnings began to slip. In July many important railroads reported a definite reversal in their earnings trend—July results running below those for July, 1936, after a half year in which earnings had been higher than in the first half of 1936. A number of important industrial corporations have had similar experiences, although in most instances industrial concerns have continued to show better profits than a year ago.

One of the few voices of optimism is that of Roger Babson's statistical organization, which points to increased farm income, higher factory pay rolls, and probability of larger dividend distributions as evidence that the country will have the "best fall business since 1929."

Increased Costs Big Factor.

Most of the other statistical agencies emphasize the increasing costs of operation forced upon industry by strikes and the higher costs of materials. The admission by Alfred P. Sloan, chairman of General Motors, that he fears increased retail prices on automobiles may curtail volume has attracted much attention, because most corporations are similarly being forced to boost prices of their products.

The sharp swings in stock market prices are generally blamed on the Security and Exchange commission's moves in attempting to eliminate speculation. Brokers complain that the market lacks the cushions formerly provided by short sellers, "sponsors," and floor traders who have been frightened out of business by the SEC. Investors who hold sizable blocks of stock say that the market is so thin that they can sell holdings only by offering them piecemeal.

Market More Vunerable.

"Market declines are progressing in geometric proportion to a point where the sale of 100 shares is doing the damage which formerly required many times that number," says Shearson, Hamill & Co., in a survey of the situation. "Mr. Gay's [president of the New York Stock exchange] recent remarks as to the illiquidity of the markets are thoroughly substantiated by the record. If this condition does not change many well laid plans for eventual timely conversion of equity holdings to bond positions will go into the next depression unfulfilled. Stocks are gradually getting into the position of realty holdings, for which ready markets do not exist and which often must be held indefinitly before a change of ownership can be effected.

"Apparently, this is in line with the purpose of the SEC which created this condition and which apparently does not see the need for liquidity and wishes to discourage the purchase of securities except for permanent retention.

Situation is "Precarious."

"If the federal authorities can be as successful in their avowed purpose of eliminating the fluctuations of the business cycle as they have been in eliminating so-called speculation, no fault need be found with a state of illiquidity, for then the motive which prompts investors to shift their holdings from one company or industry to another, or from equities to fixed income securities and vice versa will be largely removed.

"However, such is not the case, and investors face a precarious situation."

SURFACE LINES, BUSES HAVE GAIN IN AUGUST TRAFIC

The Chicago Surface Lines carried 57,324,549 passengers during August, an increase of 2.13 per cent over the 56,210,850 total in August, 1936, the company reported yesterday. The lines carried 423,099,688 passengers in the first eight months of this year.

The Chicago Motor Coach company reported its August trafic was 18.3 per cent ahead of the corresponding 1936 month. Trafic in the first eight months of 1937 was 21.7 per cent larger than a year ago.

Match Maker Earns Million in Half Year

The Diamond Match company and the American Commercial Alcohol corporation yesterday reported increases in profits in the first half of 1937 over the corresponding period of last year. Keystone Steel and Wire, however, had smaller profits in the year ended June 30 despite record sales.

Diamond Match company's net income for the first half of the year was $1,057,100, equal to 87 cents a share. Net income was $1,010,100 in the corresponding period last year. June quarter profit was $525,022, equal to 43 cents a share, against $503,341, or 40 cents a share, in the same 1936 period.

Net income of $396,238, equal to $1.52 a share, was reported for the first half of the year by American Commercial Alcohol. Net profit was $329,026, or $1.26 a share, in the first half of 1936.

Profits Fall as Sales Rise.

The Keystone Steel and Wire company reported that its sales in the year ended June 30 reached the highest figure on record, but profits were smaller than in the preceding year. Sales totaled $12,163,668 against $10,598,645 in the preceding year. Net profit was $1,160,857, equal to $1.53 a share, compared with $1,501,493, or $1.90 a share, in year ended June 30, 1936.

The advance in selling prices in the last year, President W. H. Sommer said, was not sufficient to compensate for the increase in wages and material costs.

"The average price on a tonnage basis of all products sold gained 13.2 per cent in the year-to-year comparison while manufacturing costs in the same comparison jumped 23.7 per cent," he said.

Vick Chemical Gains.

Vick Chemical company, manufacturer of medicinal products, has consolidated net profit of $2,953,515 in the fiscal year ended June 30. The profit was equal, after all charges, to $4.23 a share. Net profit was $2,609,334, or $3.87 a share, in the preceding year.

Archer-Daniels-Midland's net profit was $2,967,295 in the June 30 fiscal year. This equaled $5.10 a share on the common stock. In the preceding year the company earned net profit of $1,891,612, or $3.05 a share. The company manufactures linseed and soy bean products.

Net loss of $24,808 in the six months ended June 30 was reported by Waco Aircraft company against a net loss of $32,031 in the first half of 1936.

AUGUST DUTIES COLLECTED SHOW GAIN IN CHICAGO

Customs collections at the port of Chicago in August totaled $2,118,135, an increase of 28 per cent over August, 1936, but a drop of 23 per cent from July of this year when collections of $2,794,205 set an all time high record, Joseph A. Ziemba, collector of customs, reported yesterday.

Collections for the first eight months of 1937, amounting to $15,385,580, were 52 per cent greater than for the same period last year when the total was $10,161,533.

The rise was attributed to increased lake trafic which has resulted partly from generally better business conditions.

Chicago Postal Savings Deposits at All Time High

Postal savings deposits in Chicago reached an all time peak of $101,542,033 on Aug. 31, Postmaster Ernest J. Kruetgen reported yesterday. Deposits July 31 were $101,189,173. The number of accounts also reached a new high of 230,601, against 228,746 a month earlier.

BLISS & LAUGHLIN, OTHER COMPANIES PAY EXTRA DIVIDENDS

An extra dividend of 50 cents and the usual quarterly dividend of the same amount were declared yesterday by directors of Bliss & Laughlin, Inc., makers of steel products, on the common stock. The regular quarterly payment of 37½ cents on the 5 per cent, $30 par preferred stock also was authorized.

Announcement was made following the directors' meeting that consideration will be given to an additional extra disbursement in December, when a more complete estimate of annual earnings can be made. In December, 1936, the company paid an extra dividend of $1 on the common stock.

An extra of 50 cents and the usual quarterly payment of the same amount were voted by directors of Mapes Consolidated Manufacturing company, paper products makers. In the preceding quarter an extra of 25 cents was paid.

BOSTON, ST. LOUIS RESERVE BANKS CUT RATES TODAY

Washington, D. C., Sept. 1.—(AP)—The federal reserve board announced today the Boston and St. Louis federal reserve banks will reduce their discount rates tomorrow from 2 to 1½ per cent. The reduction will bring to eight the number of reserve institutions which have cut discount rates recently in an effort to make credit easily available.

The reductions, which conform with the reserve board's "easy money" policy, make huge supplies of money available to reserve system member banks at cheap interest rates.

Federal reserve member banks increased their loans substantially between March 31 and June 30. The federal reserve board reported today the 6,357 banks had loans of $14,284,875,000 on June 30, the date of the last bank call. This was $585,581,000 over March 31 and $1,743,030,000 over June 30 a year ago.

Holdings of direct government securities increased $14,053,000 between March 31 and June 30, totaling $10,870,404,000 on the latter date. The June 30 total, however, was $851,071,000 under June 30 a year ago.

Total assets of the banks stood at $47,468,613,000 on June 30, up $402,049,000 from March 31 and $934,626,000 from June 30 a year ago.

NEW NATIONAL BANK PLANNED ON MICHIGAN AVE.

Plans are being formulated for a new Michigan avenue bank, it was learned yesterday. A tentative location has been chosen in the McCormick building, at the northwest corner of South Michigan avenue and Van Buren street, it was reported.

The group organizing the bank was said to be headed by H. H. Shockey, formerly associated with the Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust company and now with the Leander J. McCormick estate. Shockey declined to discuss plans for the bank.

Application, it was said, has been made for a national bank charter.

SEC Reveals Stock Deals of Officers

Officers, directors and large stockholders in big corporations were more frequently sellers than buyers of shares in their own companies during July, the securities and exchange commission indicated yesterday in its semi-monthly report on transactions by company officials and other large sharesolders.

The report disclosed the personal stock holdings of officers in a large number of companies, including Armour & Co., General Motors, Sears-Roebuck, and Studebaker.

Individual holdings of Armour officers were disclosed through liquidation in July of an employés' trust. Robert H. Cabell, president, was reported to have personal holdings of 2,432 shares. A. Watson Armour, Chicago, member of the executive committee, held 49,400 shares.

Sears-Roebuck Changes.

The report also disclosed that Gen. Robert E. Wood, president of Sears-Roebuck & Co., disposed of a small part of his personal holdings during July. During the same month several other officers and directors added to their holdings.

Transactions reported included the following:

ABBOTT LABORATORIES—The C. A. Abbott Trust, Chicago, owner of more than 10 per cent of registered equity of company, sold 500 shares of common stock during July, reducing total holdings to 107,894 shares.

AIR REDUCTION—Maurice W. Randall, New York, an officer, disposed of 300 shares, reducing holdings to 2,000 shares. [Nature of ownership, direct or indirect, not reported.]

ALLEN ELECTRIC AND EQUIPMENT—Gerald H. Allen, officer and large stockholder, Kalamazoo, Mich., disposed of 2,000 shares during the month, reducing holdings to 54,075 shares. [Nature of ownership, direct or indirect, not reported.]

Damon Obtains More Stocks.

AMERICAN AIR LINES—Ralph S. Damon, Chicago, vice president, obtained 400 shares of common through exchange or conversion. He also reported reduction of $5,000 in his holdings of the company's 4½ per cent convertible debentures, which are convertible into common on the basis of $12.50 a share. His total holdings after the conversion were $5,000 more debentures and 400 common shares.

AMERICAN CENTRIFUGAL—Charles F. Adams Jr., Boston, Mass., director, sold 200 common shares, reducing total holdings to 4,800 shares. N. P. Demauriac, officer, director and large stockholder, New York, reported a net increase of 2,850 in his holdings to 60,650 shares. Wilfrid G. Rose, New York, officer and director, increased holdings 100 shares to 4,300 shares during the month; Minton M. Warren, New York, director, disposed of his total holdings of 200 shares.

AMERICAN PUBLIC SERVICE—Middle West corporation acquired 189 shares of American Public Service 7 per cent cumulative preferred, bringing total holdings to 20,790 shares.

Changes in Armour Stock.

ARMOUR & CO.—A. Watson Armour, Chicago, director and member of the executive committee, increased holdings by 2,400 shares during the month to a total of 49,400 shares.

Charles J. Faulkner Jr., Chicago, general counsel, acquired 408 shares, bringing total personal holdings to 1,108 shares; William J. Gray, Atlanta, Ga., assistant vice president, acquired 89 shares, bringing total personal holdings to 289 shares; E. L. Lalumier, Chicago, vice president and secretary, sold or otherwise disposed of 700 shares, but acquired 822 shares from the trust, making total personal holdings 822 shares.

Others Acquire Shares.

John A. Lane, Chicago, controler and assistant secretary, acquired 222 shares, total personal holdings; Louis E. McCauley, vice president and treasurer, acquired 177 shares, total personal holdings; Robert E. Pearsall, Chicago, vice president, acquired 311 shares, total personal holdings; J. E. Sanford, Atlanta, Ga., vice president, acquired 196 shares, total personal holdings; John Schmidt, Chicago, general auditor and as-

CROP CONTROL CONDEMNED BY WORLD EXPERTS

Declare Economic Gains Artificial.

ROME, Sept. 1.—[Special.]—The current economic recovery throughout the world was characterized as "largely artificial" by the International Institute of Agriculture in a report issued tonight. Government intervention in the economic field and rearmament were described by the institute as the bases of the revival, neither of which, it said, could result in lasting prosperity.

The institute, founded in 1905, has a membership of 72 nations, including the United States, and makes periodical reports on the world economic situation.

Condemns Crop Curtailment.

The report was particularly pointed in its condemnation of artificial crop curtailment as a method of bringing about economic recovery. Government interference with the economic machinery has been carried further, outside of Russia and the totalitarian countries, in the United States, the report asserted.

Such artificial recovery policies as crop restriction may be temporarily successful, but they place in jeopardy continued economic progress resulting from advances in science and technique, the institute said.

Unless the world is to acknowledge utter intellectual and moral bankruptcy and admit its planned economy is a system of bold economic suicide, it eventually—the sooner the better—must change the direction of its planning efforts," the institute declared.

Urges Coördinated Expansion.

Instead of reducing production the planning must be directed toward coördinated expansion which will employ the service of science and help to bring about greater satisfaction of human needs, it said.

One branch of production, it asserted, cannot be subsidized indefinitly at the expense of the community unless the community's resources develop rapidly enough so that the increased demand makes the subsidized industry self-supporting again.

The world cannot advance in prosperity and civilization over a long period if agricultural production is to be restricted to a dwindling demand, it said.

Not Easy to Change.

It will not be easy for countries to abandon the present artificial economic policies, the institute warned. The intervention has been so thorough that in many cases it has altered the economic structure permanently.

"In the United States which, after the totalitarian states and soviet Russia, is the country where government intervention in economic activity under the Roosevelt administration has been the most thorough of all, agriculture and trade have been placed under the strictest control," the report said.

CHARGE 'L' COULD BOOST EARNINGS MILLION YEARLY

The earnings position of the Chicago Rapid Transit company [elevated lines] could be bettered by a million dollars a year if more advantageous leases and contracts were effected, it was charged yesterday at a hearing before Federal Judge Philip L. Sullivan.

The hearing was on the petition of counsel for A. A. Sprague, trustee for the company, asking affirmation of 102 contracts and leases. Judge Sullivan gave those opposing the leases 15 days to file objections and set another hearing for Oct. 1 before Judge James H. Wilkerson.

Attorney Louis F. Jacobson, representing a group of creditors, asserted that approximately 300 leases and contracts were burdensome and unprofitable to the company. He charged the company is paying $500,000 a year too much for power purchased from the Commonwealth Edison company and that the elevated could increase its income by $500,000 a year by making more advantageous leases of space at or near stations and terminals.

Two Chicago Banks Repay on Depositors' Accounts

A distribution of 5 per cent, aggregating $114,947, to the depositors of the Reliance Bank and Trust company, and a 7½ per cent payment, amounting to $24,340, to the depositors of the West Side Trust and Savings bank were announced yesterday by State Auditor Edward J. Barrett.

Charge Postal Ruling Hurts Air Carriers

Senator Pat McCarran

Washington, D. C., Sept. 1.—The postoffice department's decision forbidding a through air sleeper service over two connecting lines from New York to Los Angeles was assailed today by Senator Pat McCarran [D., Nev.] as "one of a long series of discouragements which have met every effort of the nation's air lines to improve their service to the public."

McCarran denounced the ruling made last Saturday by Karl A. Crowley, solicitor of the postoffice department, that the proposal of United Air Lines and Western Air Express to pool equipment for the through sleeper service would promote monopoly.

Charges Public Interest Ignored.

The interests of the public, McCarran said, are constantly ignored by the postoffice department because of "the narrow interests of the air mail and the still narrower interests of the air mail act of 1934."

McCarran has sponsored for three sessions a bill to put regulation of the air lines under the interstate commerce commission, a measure which is vigorously opposed by the postoffice department.

At the last session the bill was killed by a one man filibuster conducted by Senator Kenneth McKellar [D., Tenn.], chairman of the postoffice committee and sponsor of the 1934 air mail act, which followed the cancelation of the air mail contracts and the forced reorganization of the air lines.

Terms Crowley Dictator.

"The postoffice department has ample means of enforcing its decisions," McCarran declared. "Solicitor Crowley states in his opinion that if the two lines insist on continuance of their through sleeper service their air mail contracts will be canceled. Through this arbitrary power, Crowley is the supreme authority over air commerce today.

"In a trivial way, Crowley has made some concession to public convenience. He admits that it would be some slight inconvenience for air sleeper passengers to get up at 5:30 in the morning to change from one plane to another at Salt Lake City, rather than occupy their berths on to Los Angeles. He thoughtfully suggests that the schedule might be moved up so they would not have to change until 6:30.

Assails Reasons for Denial.

"One of his main contentions in banning the through service is that the leasing of equipment between lines will lead to monopoly. He cites the argument that if 'such arrangements were found to be legal,' the air mail map would be practically remade overnight and there would be a wild scramble for leasing agreements between main line contractors and those on feeder routes.'

"In other words, if the present system were unfrozen, a rapid development of air commerce would be possible. If any legal means could be found to escape present restrictions, there would be such an expansion of commercial flying as the country has never witnessed."

INCREASED COAL PRICES INDICATED FOR CHICAGOANS

Higher coal prices for Chicago consumers were indicated yesterday in connection with the meeting of the district producers' board to set minimum prices at the mines in accordance with the Guffey-Vinson act. The new schedule will be submitted to the National Bituminous Coal commission, which administers the act.

Members of the board meeting here refused to discuss the new schedule, but trade interests asserted the new prices would run above the current price level. George Reed, vice president of the Peabody Coal company, is chairman of the group.

CINCINNATI RISE INDICATED.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 1.—[Special.]—A general increase in prices of coal on the wholesale market was indicated here today in the announcement by officials of District 8, Bituminous Producers' Board, that a new list of prices would be filed tomorrow with the federal trade commission.

SEC APPROVES PUBLIC SERVICE, EDISON MERGER

Action Removes Last Obstacle.

Final action clearing the way for the merger of Commonwealth Edison company, Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, Western United Gas and Electric company, and the Illinois Northern Utilities company was taken yesterday when the securities and exchange commission in Washington approved the proposal.

The SEC authorized Edison to acquire the outstanding common and 6 and 7 per cent preferred stocks of Public Service. It also authorized Commonwealth Subsidiary corporation, an Edison unit, to acquire the outstanding 6 per cent preferred and $7 preferred stocks of Illinois Northern and the 6 and 6½ per cent preferred stocks of Western United.

Stockholders Give Assent.

Consent to acquisition of stock in the three operating companies by Edison and its subsidiary has been approved by stockholders of Edison and by the Illinois commerce commission.

In carrying out its program of consolidating control of the companies Edison does not contemplate in its present plan to acquire direct ownership of the physical properties of these concerns. Neither does it contemplate merging the operating organizations and personnels of the companies.

The Illinois commerce commission on Aug. 3 issued an order authorizing Edison to divide each old share of $100 par value stock into capital four shares of $25 par in order to carry out the exchange offers in connection with the plan. The commission also authorized the company to issue additional stock required to complete the consolidation.

Terms of Proposal.

A statement issued by Edison after it had been notified of the SEC action said it is now in a position to carry out the exchange plans under which it proposes to offer:

1. Three shares of its $25 par stock in exchange for each share of the common stock of Public Service.
2. Four shares of $25 par stock in exchange for each share of the preferred stock of Public Service.

When Commonwealth Edison has made these offers, Commonwealth Subsidiary corporation will then be in a position to offer:

1. Three and five-tenths shares of Edison $25 par stock for each preferred share of Western United.
2. Three and seven-tenths shares of Edison $25 par stock for each preferred share of Illinois Northern.

Former Giant Power Pool.

In discussing the proposed plan early this year, Edison officials said its completion would unite the four operating utilities in the Chicago area into one closely knit organization which will have a total electric generating capacity of 1,525,480 kilowatts, one of the largest electric power pools in the world.

Edison operates within the city; Public Service in the northern suburbs up to Wisconsin, the area adjacent to the Indiana line and in other parts of the state; Western United in the counties west of Chicago, and Illinois Northern Utilities in territories bordering those of Public Service and Western United extending westward toward the Mississippi river.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a hearing will be held before the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, on September 13, 1937, at 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, at the United States District Court Rooms, United States Post Office and Court House, Federal Square, Newark, New Jersey, pursuant to the order of said Court dated August 30, 1937, at which you or any of you may show cause—

(a) why an order should not be entered by this Court discharging the lien reserved by order dated May 11, 1936, for the payment of allowances granted by this Court in these proceedings; and

(b) why a final decree should not be granted discharging the Trustees of American Type Founders Company, Debtor, and directing the cancellation of their bond; approving the final report and account of the Trustees of Barnhart Brothers & Spindler and discharging said Trustees of Barnhart Brothers & Spindler and directing the cancellation of their bond; discharging American Type Founders Company from all of its debts and liabilities which were in existence on December 11, 1934, (except the interest, claim or lien, if any, of the United States of America for any unpaid taxes, and the lien, if any, of any other unpaid taxes, assessments, water rates or other governmental or municipal charges and, as to the real estate except as any easements, servitudes and encumbrances may affect said lands and premises), and terminating and ending all rights and interests of its stockholders except as provided in the Plan of Reorganization dated July 12, 1935, and in the order dated May 11, 1936, entered in these proceedings and enjoining all said holders of claims based upon said debts and liabilities, except as aforesaid and all said stockholders from taking any action against American Type Founders Company, Debtor, except for the enforcement of such rights as may be provided in said Plan and in said order; and discharging Barnhart Brothers & Spindler, Debtor, from all of its debts and liabilities which were in existence on December 11, 1934, (except the interest, claim or lien, if any, of the United States of America for any unpaid taxes, and the lien, if any, of any other unpaid taxes, assessments, water rates or other governmental or municipal charges) and enjoining all holders of claims based upon said debts and liabilities, except as aforesaid from taking any action against Barnhart Brothers & Spindler except for the enforcement of such rights as may be provided in said Plan of Reorganization dated July 12, 1935, and said order dated May 11, 1936, and closing the case; and authorizing Guaranty Trust Company of New York to cancel all of the debentures and coupons outstanding under indentures of trust executed by American Type Founders Company dated May 1, 1909, May 1, 1917, and October 1, 1925, to destroy the same, and discharging said Guaranty Trust Company of New York as Trustee under said indentures from all liability thereunder; and granting such other relief as may be proper in the premises.

Dated, August 30 1937.

Stocks, Bonds

New York Bonds.

New York, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Bond prices drooped today with railroad obligations and selected convertible issues under pressure. Losses of fractions to around 4 points on light dealing were numerous.

Federal loans stiffened with advances running up to 7-32ds point. Recessions, which were few, ranged to 6-32ds of a point.

American Typefounders convertible bonds of 1950 were carried down 9⅞ to 120 on three sales.

Railroad bonds exhibited the greatest weakness with many issues registering new lows for the year. The decline among the carriers was not confined to individual issues as has been the case in recent sessions but was general throughout the list. Increasing costs now becoming evident, together with a decline in trafic revenue, was cited as the main contributing factor in the selling.

Alleghany 5s of 1949 broke 4¼ to close at 80½. A few defaulted rail bonds sagged a point or more.

Industrial and utility liens followed a fairly even course although a few weak spots cropped out.

Chicago Stocks.

Commonwealth Edison, Chicago corporation, and Zenith Radio, trading favorites, led a sharp decline yesterday on the Chicago Stock exchange. Of the 96 issues traded 54 declined, only 12 advanced, and 30 were unchanged. Transactions totaled 23,000 shares.

Edison lost 1⅜ points to close at 31¼ on trade of 2,200 shares, largest individual turnover. Zenith dipped a full point on 1,050 shares, and Chicago corporation closed ⅛ of a point lower on 1,150 shares.

The selling gathered momentum as the session progressed and closing prices generally were around bottom levels for the day.

The exchange reported that August sales totaled 754,000 shares, compared with 764,000 shares in July and 1,658,000 shares in August, 1936. The average daily volume during the month was 29,000 shares, against 30,560 shares in July and 63,769 shares in August, 1936.

Bank Stocks.

Continental Illinois National bank stock yesterday declined $4 a share, and First National dipped $2. Chicago Title and Trust and Personal Loan and Savings stocks each declined $1.

Commodities

November butter yesterday closed at a new high mark for the year, 33½ cents a pound, up ⅛ cent for the day, on the Chicago Mercantile exchange. Butter for immediate delivery was unchanged to ½ cent a pound higher.

Traders said the strength in the butter market was due to a combination of comparatively small supplies, a favorable reversal in the storage movement, and continuation of hot weather in important producing areas.

October eggs were unchanged at 22⅝ cents a dozen and November eggs were steady at 22⅞ cents. Graded eggs advanced ¼ to ½ cent a dozen in the cash market, but other classes were unchanged.

Silk futures declined 1½ to 4½ cents a pound and silk for immediate delivery declined 2 or more cents a pound, depending on grade. The market was depressed by selling attributed to lower foreign markets and the fact that daily mill takings in August were 25 per cent lower than in July.

RYE FUTURES RISE SHARPLY; OTHER GRAINS MIXED

CHICAGO GRAIN FUTURES

	Yesterday.	Tuesday.	Yr. ago.
Wheat	$1.05⅝	$1.06¼	$1.07¼
Corn	.62¼	.62¼	.91⅛
Oats	.29¼	.29⅛	.40½
Rye	.78⅝	.77½	.77⅞
Soy beans [Oct.]	.93½	.92¼	....

Rye futures displayed independent strength yesterday following reports that Belgium had removed the import duty on American rye. Prices rose sharply and while the full advance was not held to the close final quotations were 1¼ to 1½ cents higher net. No explanation was given for Belgium's action, although it was thought to be due to inability to secure sizable quantities of rye from other exporting countries. Export sales of 80,000 bushels were reported from the United States yesterday.

Fluctuations in wheat were erratic within a range of 1¾ cents a bushel, with the close unchanged to ⅝ cent lower. Winnipeg wheat futures declined a small fraction of a cent in sympathy with Chicago and as the result of hedging pressure.

Liverpool Closes Higher.

Liverpool futures rose as much as 1 cent higher despite reports of further rains in Argentina.

September corn was easily influenced by small orders. It closed 2 cents a bushel lower at 95¼ cents. Other deliveries of corn closed unchanged. Oats futures were slightly firmer, while soy beans advanced 1 to 1¼ cents a bushel.

Part of the strength in wheat was attributed to buying induced by unconfirmed rumors that Russia had decided to intervene in the Sino-Japanese war. The rumor originated in London and had some effect on the English wheat futures. Little was heard yesterday of fresh offerings of wheat for export from Russia.

Shorts Buy September Wheat.

Shorts were fair buyers of September wheat on the Chicago Board of Trade and found offerings small. Cash houses bought September and sold December early in the session. Importing countries in Europe showed little interest in offerings of American hard winter wheat.

No. 2 mixed corn sold in the cash market at 1⅛ to 2 cents a bushel premium over the September future, the closest any deliverable grade has sold to the future for some time.

The government's weekly crop summary indicated the corn crop suffered some damage last week from dry weather.

LAGGING STEEL DEMAND CLOUDS FALL OUTLOOK

Failure of new steel business to develop as rapidly as expected has caused a growing belief that the volume of fall business may be lower than was predicted earlier in the summer, the magazine Iron Age said yesterday.

"The current outlook points to increasing tonnage in lighter products, particularly sheets, strip, and wire," the trade journal asserted, "but not much improvement in the immediate future is seen for heavy products, such as shapes, plates, pipe, and rails.

Steel ingot production continues unchanged from last week at 83 per cent of capacity, Iron Age estimated. A one point loss to 82 per cent in the Pittsburgh district and a two point decline in the Cleveland-Lorain area to 77 per cent were offset by a one point gain at Youngstown and minor increases at other points.

"Order backlogs are rapidly diminishing in all lines and are exhausted in some products," the journal continued. "Many lines of production will soon be cleared of back orders unless a material increase in buying develops this month.

Endowment Policies.

Endowment policies usually call for payment of a specified sum to the beneficiaries of the policyholder if death occurs before the expiration of a specified period. But if the policyholder is living at the end of the period, the money is paid to him.

Endowment policies really are term insurance for a specified length of time plus a savings account in which a sum equal to the face value of the policy is accumulated. This savings provision, of course, means that the cost of the endowment policy is more than ordinary insurance for the same amount would have been.

Endowment policies appeal to the person who wishes to combine insurance with investment. If such a person considers merely the pure endowment feature—the accumulation of a fund—he may feel that he is not getting a good return on his money. However, he has insurance protection all the years the policy is in force and provides for an immediate estate for his heirs in case of his death.

Endowment policies have never been as popular in the United States as in Great Britain. In recent years, however, a larger demand has developed for endowments running for longer terms than the usual 10, 15, or 20 year periods.

Tomorrow: Life income policies.

EIGHT MONTH VOLUME ON BOARD OF TRADE EXCEEDS ALL OF 1936

Transactions on the Chicago Board of Trade during the first eight months of 1937 were 561,000,000 bushels in excess of business transacted during all of 1936, it was disclosed yesterday.

From Jan. 1 to Aug. 31 a total of 10,981,000,000 bushels of wheat, corn, and other grain futures changed hands on the exchange. During the same period in 1936 sales amounted to 6,265,000,000 bushels. Total trading in grain futures for all of 1936 was 10,420,000,000 bushels. If the current rate of business is maintained during the balance of the year sales for 1937 would be the largest for any year since 1930, when they were 18,147,000,000 bushels.

Sales of grain futures on the Chicago Board of Trade during August, as indicated by the daily reports of the commodity exchange administration, were 1,340,843,000 bushels, compared with 1,617,227,000 bushels in July and 872,040,000 bushels during August, 1936.

HOT WEATHER CAUSES RAPID RIPENING OF CORN

U. S. Reports Damage in Some Districts.

Dry, hot weather forced the corn crop rapidly toward maturity in many western and central areas, according to the weekly crop summary of the department of agriculture. In some of the dryest sections deterioration in the outlook occurred.

More advanced fields in Indiana, said the report, will be safe from frost damage in two or three weeks. Early corn is being gathered in the eastern two-thirds of Kansas for feeding purposes. In South Dakota hot winds caused premature maturity and some of the crop is being cut for fodder. Harvesting of new crop is under way in southern Oklahoma.

Some Deterioration.

Abnormally high temperatures caused further deterioration in southern Iowa and on uplands throughout the state. The crop was rushed too rapidly toward maturity, according to the survey. Most of the crop in that state is well dented, and up to 75 per cent is safe from frost in some northwestern counties.

Most of the rainfall during the week ending Aug. 31 was confined to a belt extending from northern Minnesota southwest to southwestern Nebraska and extreme western Kansas. Temperatures during the week were above normal except in extreme western Montana, where there was some frost.

NEW 4 YEAR LOW AGAIN HIT BY COTTON PRICES

Cotton prices again moved lower yesterday with all deliveries again selling at the lowest levels since November, 1933. Selling resulted from hedging pressure and private reports suggesting a crop as high as 16,457,000 bales, or 736,000 bales in excess of estimates a month ago. A crop of this size would be the third largest on record. Last year 13,399,000 bales were harvested.

A sharp rally occurred early on buying attributed to Japan, but southern interests sold heavily and prices reacted, closing at the low point of the day. Net losses on the Chicago Board of Trade amounted to .03 to .10 cent. Other American markets declined .05 to .10 cent a pound.

Spot cotton closed .10 cent lower, with New Orleans quoting 9.20 cents, New York 9.30 cents, and Galveston and Houston 9 cents a pound.

GETS 18 MONTH PRISON TERM FOR CONVICTION ON SEC FRAUD CHARGE

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Federal Judge E. Marvin Underwood today sentenced Robert Belmont, a co-manager of the Atlanta office of Kopald-Quinn & Co., to eighteen months in prison, gave another man a suspended sentence and freed a third.

All three had pleaded guilty to a conspiracy count of the mail fraud and securities act indictment in which the securities commission charged company officials with stock market manipulation which cost investors $1,000,000.

Albert Trause of New York received a five year probationary sentence. Prosecutors said he was a minor offender. Attorney W. Paul Carpenter withdrew a guilty plea entered for William Mendelson, and Assistant District Attorney Neil Andrews agreed to nol prosse the case against him.

Also convicted were Joseph R. Mendelson, Leonard I. Sutterman, Joseph N. Sherman, and Joseph Ricebaum, all of Chicago. The court set Monday for hearing new trial motions. Sentencing was deferred.

Four acquitted by the jury were Benjamin C. Waller of Detroit; Meyer Wolfson of Chicago and New Orleans; Harry K. Newberger of Chicago, and B. J. Gould of Peoria, Ill.

NEW ROCK ISLAND TRAIN TO MAKE 1ST RUN SEPT. 9

The Rock Island railroad's new high speed streamlined Peoria Rocket train will be dedicated Sept. 9 by members of the Chicago Association of Commerce and the Peoria Association of Commerce. A delegation of 70 Chicagoans, headed by C. L. Rice, president of the Chicago association, will take the first trip on the new train.

The Rocket will leave Chicago at 8:30 a. m. on its first trip and run the 161 miles nonstop in 2 hours and 40 minutes. The Chicagoans will inspect the plants of the Caterpillar Tractor company and of the Hiram Walker distilleries. They will leave Peoria at 4:30 p. m. central time, arriving in Chicago at 8:10 p. m. Chicago time.

TOP STEERS NEAR ALL-TIME PRICE PEAK FOR SEPT. 1

Reach $18.50; Other Kinds Sharply Lower.

Best steers at Chicago yesterday rose to $18.50 per hundred pounds, the second highest price in the history of the market for Sept. 1. A war year, 1918, was the exception when $19.00 was paid on that date. At the opening of September last year top cattle brought $10.00.

Prime longfed steers from eastern Iowa averaging 1,247 to 1,264 pounds reached the new peak, going to the representative of an eastern packer. Several loads brought 18.25 and $18.30, averaging 1,185 to 1,400 pounds. The bulk sold at $11.00 to $18.00. Longfed weighty steers were practically the only meat animals in demand yesterday, most classes of live stock selling sharply lower.

Only Best Steers Gain.

Advances of 10 to 15 cents were registered in the best steers, but others slumped 25 to 50 cents in one of the most erratic markets of the season. An uneven trade developed for common to medium grades of yearlings, in which some sales of cattle almost alike in quality and flesh were as much as $1.00 apart. Beef cows and hefers slumped again to new lows for the summer. Canners and cutters sold off 10 to 15 cents. Bulls, calves, stockers, and feeders held about steady.

One of the severest breaks of the year swept the markets for fresh pork and hogs. The top for live hogs at $11.80 was down 20 cents, lowest since June 23, and the average fell 30 cents to $10.70. Spots at the close were 40 cents lower, with about 3,000 animals unsold.

Most of the lambs sold about steady yesterday. Selected natives to city butchers reached $11.15, packers getting the bulk at $11.00 down.

MONTH'S RECEIPTS LOW

Receipts of meat animals at the Chicago stock yards last month was the second smallest for August in 52 years. Cattle, calves, hogs, and sheep totaled 637,001 head compared with 711,677 a year ago, also an abnormally low total. It was less than half the 1,292,908 head received in the corresponding month in 1933, and compared with a five year average of 1,067,000 for the period 1928-'32.

Most of the decrease was in hogs. Only 202,972 arrived during the month, the smallest August total on official records dating back to 1878. Figures for three years follow:

APPEAL DECISION UPHOLDING PART OF UTILITY ACT

26 Companies Challenge Federal Law.

New York, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Electric Bond and Share company and the companies associated with it in challenging the constitutionality of the public utility holding company act of 1935 filed an appeal today in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals from the decision last January of Federal Judge Julian W. Mack, which upheld the legality of the act's registration provisions.

In the 26 associated appellants are several of the larger utility holding companies, including American Gas and Electric, American Power and Light, National Power and Light, Electric Power and Light, and the United Gas corporation. Enforcement of the 1935 legislation has been held in abeyance pending a final decision on its constitutionality by the United States Supreme court.

Argue Power of Congress.

The brief argued that congress went beyond its powers in requiring public utility holding companies to register with the Securities and Exchange commission and that there was no constitutional authority for congress to regulate a holding company's ownership of operating units.

"The entire regulatory system," it asserted, "is directed toward 'the public interest and protection of investors or consumers.' Its object is stated to be to 'eliminate the evils' of holding companies which are engaged in business or in activities which affect or burden interstate commerce—not to regulate that commerce, or evils which affect such commerce, but to purify the holding companies themselves by destroying them, or at most permitting to those not destroyed a limited existence conditioned on absolute control."

Charge Destruction Sought.

The brief charges that the act is directed against ownership of a particular form of evidence of title and control by its owner and that the objective is the destruction of that ownership. The ownership and voting of stocks of corporations operating in several states is not interstate commerce, even though the companies are engaged in interstate commerce, the brief contended.

Day By Day Story of the Experimental Farms

By Frank Ridgway

Sorghum Stands Drouth.

September 1, 1937.

THE three sorghum crops now being grown on the Wheaton farm test grounds are making a fine showing. All of them have been living up to the sorghum family's reputation for withstanding drouths during the hot, dry days of midsummer.

Hegari is the newest one of the three in this region. Seeds were brought to the farm from Arizona, where the crop is raised as a roughage for live stock. There it yields a high tonnage per acre. It is expected to make a satisfactory yield here. Heads have been showing up in the hegari during the last week.

Some of the plants are more than 50 inches tall and they will average about 47 inches. The stand is thick and the foliage is heavy. Many of the blades already are at least 31 inches long and three inches wide.

Yields Are Satisfactory.

Atlas sorgo, another high ranking forage crop in the southwestern states, is again making a good showing. This is the fourth year Atlas sorgo has been grown at the Tribune farms, the third year on the Wheaton place. Only small amounts of the crop have been raised each year, but it has produced satisfactory yields even under extreme drouth conditions in 1934 and 1936.

Caretakers took measurements of Atlas sorgo a few days ago and found the tallest plants are more than 80 inches. The plants average about 64 inches in height. The blades, 2½ to 3½ inches wide, average about 30 inches in length. The stand is thick and the foliage heavy. The heads are not yet out, but the plants are expected to mature before normal killing frost appears.

Molasses will be made from the old fashioned sorghum variety of cane being grown. The plants of this sorghum grow taller than the forage varieties, hegari and Atlas sorgo. The tallest stalks are now 86 inches in length. A few heads are beginning to open, indicating that the plants will have plenty of time to mature. The plants are grown in hills to allow plenty of room for the individual canes to form. It is the juice from the cane that is cooked in vats and made into molasses. The leaves are somewhat narrower and shorter and are not as thick on the stalks as the hegari and Atlas sorgo.

Lambs in Lespedeza.

Corean lespedeza now being grown on a field test basis at the Wheaton farm is furnishing valuable late summer pasture for the lambs. More than 200 of this year's crop of spring lambs were turned in to nip down the lespedeza last Friday.

Fourteen and a half acres of the lespedeza were sown last spring. The seed was sown at the rate of sixteen pounds to the acre with Grimm alfalfa. Recently the crop was damaged by grasshoppers, but rains revived the plants until now they average about four inches.

Since the Corean variety is an annual, new seed must be sown each year or the plants must be permitted to mature seeds before frost. The seeds fall to the ground, where they remain in the open field over winter, coming up the following spring.

Perennial lespedeza plants have lived through two winters in a test plot at the Wheaton farm. Last winter, however, a high percentage of the plants was killed—plants that lived are in a thrifty condition.

HEARST ALLOWED TO WITHDRAW FINANCING PLAN

Action Attributed to Bad Market Conditions.

The Securities and Exchange commission announced yesterday in Washington it has granted the application of Hearst Publications, Inc., and Hearst Magazines, Inc., to withdraw registration statements covering proposed issues of debentures of $22,500,000 and $13,000,000, respectively. The effective date of these registrations has been repeatedly postponed by amendments to the original statements.

Hearst Publications originally filed its statement on March 31. It was stated that the purpose of the issue was to refund outstanding obligations of the company. Hearst Magazines statement was filed March 10. The stated purpose of its issue was to retire notes, pay the balance of the purchase price of a New York building, and to add to working capital.

Reasons for Action.

In New York Hearst officials explained the withdrawal was made because market conditions later were not as good as at the time of filing and that the proposed underwriters had not been in a position to market the debentures at an interest rate and underwriting commisson which was thought attractive.

Lane Bryant, Inc., filed a registration statement with the SEC covering an issue of $2,000,000 of ten year 5 per cent bonds. The bonds will be of $1,000 denomination and will carry warrants giving the right to purchase twenty shares of common stock at $16 a share up to Dec. 31, 1938. During 1939 and 1940 the price will be $20, and during 1941 it will be $25. The warrants expire Dec. 31, 1942. Lane Bryant owns retail stores in various cities which specialize in women's and children's clothing. A. C. Allyn & Co. will be the underwriter.

Metals Firm Files.

Pressed Metals of America, Inc., Port Huron, Mich., filed a statement covering 12,429 shares of common stock without par value. Present stockholders will be given the right to purchase the new stock. Proceeds will be used for plant improvements.

Stockholders of the Thew Shovel company, Lorain, O., yesterday approved an increase in authorized common shares to 250,000 shares from 125,000 and changed the stock to $5 par from no par. The measure was designed to increase working capital.

Stockholders of Hawaiian Pineapple Co., Ltd., approved a plan to change the common stock from $5 par to no par and to authorize $10,000,000 in $25 par 6 per cent preferred stock to be used in the payment of dividends on the common stock, and to issue 222,576 additional common shares to be offered present stockholders at $20 a share on a basis of one new share for each five shares held.

Link-Belt.

Investors' Guide: Kindly advise the present status and rating of Link-Belt company stock.—E. B. K.

Answer: Manufacture of conveying machinery and chains is the principal activity of this large producer of durable goods. It makes all sizes of machinery for handling materials of various kinds—cranes, grain car unloaders, tramways for unloading ships, oil pumping units, and sand and gravel washing plants. Practically every type of chain used in transmission of power is made by Link-Belt.

The company operates its own steel and machine shops, foundries, and casting plants. Its manufacturing activities are centered in Indianapolis, Chicago, Philadelphia, and Atlanta.

The wide diversification of markets for the company's products in various types of industries is illustrated by the fact that the automobile industry normally takes only about 10 per cent of output, although it is the company's largest customer. Earnings, therefore, fluctuate in relation to the state of industrial activity in general.

Production now is running almost on a par with record activity of 1929, when sales amounted to $26,519,000 and net income was $3,485,000, or $4.56 a share. In the twelve months ended June 30, 1937, sales were $24,257,000 and net income was $3,202,000, or $4.42 a share.

In the first six months of this year sales were $13,164,000 and net income was $1,739,000, or $2.41 a share, compared with sales of $9,696,000 and net income of $758,000, or 96 cents a share in the first half of 1936. The company's record since the 1932 low follows:

1936	...$20,789,000	$2,221,000	$2.97
1935	... 14,093,000	1,092,000	1.30
1934	... 10,378,000	869,000	.94
1933	... 7,705,000	217,000	*.05
1932	... 6,808,000	*970,000	*1.78

*Loss.

Financial position is strong, current assets being $14,560,000 against current liabilities of $2,100,000 on June 30, 1936.

Capitalization of the company consists of 32,706 shares of 6½ per cent $100 par preferred and 675,573 shares of no par common stock.

Three quarterly dividends of 50 cents have been paid on the common stock this year. Including $1.30 in extras, $2.50 a share was paid last year. Dividends amounted to $1.20 in 1935, 40 cents in 1934, 50 cents in 1933, $1 in 1932, $2.10 in 1931, and $2.60 in 1930.

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER: Building Up to an Awful Letdown

WHAT'S ALL THAT YOU'VE GOT THERE, WINNIE?
MOTHAW HAS SENT ME OVER A WHOLE BOX OF RECIPES SHE'S HAD FOR YEARS! SOME OF THESE DISHES SOUND DELICIOUS!
HERE'S ONE FOR STUFFED GREEN PEPPER WITH SPANISH SAUCE AND LYONNAISE POTATOES! AND HERE'S ANOTHER FOR SHIRRED EGG PLANT WITH BAKED TOMATOES AND CREAM SAUCE!!
UMMMMM!! MY MOUTH IS BEGINNING TO WATER ALREADY!!
BOY, WE'RE GOING TO HAVE SOME REAL MEALS AROUND HERE FROM NOW ON! WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO FIX FOR SUPPER TONIGHT, DEAR?
WHY-ER-I THOUGHT I'D OPEN UP A CAN OF VEGETABLE SOUP!!

THE BOSS OF STUDEBAKER SAYS:

—And by George—Used Car Buyers—he means it! And to prove that he means it—he issued a further order to cut prices lower than they have ever been. And that order goes for the main used car department store and the 5 branches.

BUY ON STUDEBAKER'S EXTRA-EASY PAYMENT PLAN!

NO FINANCE CHARGE AND NO INTEREST

The Studebaker payment plan is rightly considered the easiest payment plan in Chicago. It is Studebaker's OWN plan. Exclusive! Now—for a limited time—during this great disposal sale only—you don't have to pay one red cent of finance charges and interest for 8 months of the period! We must sell $100,000 worth of used cars before September 15th.

NOTICE

TO ALL PERSONS HAVING CLAIMS AGAINST THE WEST SIDE TRUST AND SAVINGS BANK, AND TO ALL PERSONS INTERESTED IN SAID BANK, AND THE ASSETS AND ESTATE THEREOF:

Please take notice that on the 16th day of July, 1937 an order was entered by the Superior Court of Cook County, Illinois, in the cause therein bearing the general number 34 S 452 of said Superior Court, entitled "People of the State of Illinois ex rel Auditor of Public Accounts versus The West Side Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago," providing, among other things, that all persons [other than those specifically excepted by said order] claiming rights or benefits as trust creditors of said bank and claiming to be entitled to the security, or the avails or proceeds thereof, deposited by said bank with the Auditor of Public Accounts of the State of Illinois, under the provisions of an Act of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, entitled "An Act to provide for and regulate the administration of trusts by trust companies," in force July 1, 1887, and all amendments thereto, do present their claims therefor, on or prior to the 1st day of October, 1937 by filing the said claims with said Superior Court, on due notice as provided in said order, and further providing that all claims not so presented [other than the claims specifically excepted by the said order] be barred as trust claims and be denied all right of participation in, claim to and benefit of the securities [and the avails and proceeds thereof] deposited by said bank with said Auditor of Public Accounts, under the provisions of the Statute referred to hereinabove.

CHARLES H. ALBERS,
Office Address: 735 W. Roosevelt Rd., Chicago, Illinois.
